(The scene opens up with a young Andromita looking on as a woman putting on a the same amulet that Andromita uses to transform)

Woman:

What is it little one?

Andromita:

Mommy why do you wear that stone?

Woman: (Pointing to the amulets stone)

This stone is a purified form of elements; In this case my element that I hold close to me is the element of the Wind.

Andromita:

So I will get an element as well one day?

Woman:

Yes one day when you find the element that best matches your power then that day your true power can be unlocked.

Andromita:

So what if I am not linked with wind like you?

Woman:

Well it will still grant you some power but the true power of the element will be locked away till someone truly skilled can use it. You remember how many there are right?

Andromita:

11 aren't there?

Woman:

Close there is a 12th element but it's hard to master.

Andromita:

What element is that mommy?

Woman:

The element of the Heart!

(The scene shifts to darkness)

Moon:

Moon Blessed Wishing... Save her. Save Andi.

(Light brightens the darkness as it surrounds and severally wounded Andromita on a grassy ground as the light moves about Andromita's wounds begin to heal)

Moon: (Tears in her eye)

WAKE UP ANDI

(Andromita turns her head a bit and groans in pain)

Andromita:

Gosh you're loud. (Opens her eyes and then takes a massive quick motion looking around at a massive jungle that the two find themselves in) What the we just fell into a volcano didn't we?

Moon:

I'm not sure my self but some how we ended up here. Andi your armlet it's weird what happened?

Andromita:

Mothers stone, the element of the gales it's gone. But how am I still in battle form?

Moon:

Wait you had another element, that's great.

Andromita:

No its not. With out that element I can't use my power to fight. And worse its was hers.

Moon:

You mean your mothers, I don't quite remember but I have been seeing some dreams she died before the battle on the kingdom didn't she?

Andromita:

I don't want to talk about it.

Moon:

Fine don't open up to me anyway. (Stands up) We can find several things to talk about after while we try to find where we are and how to get out of here. (Offers her hand but Andromita slaps it away)

Andromita:

Look don't think things are settled now because we know each others identities they aren't.

Moon:

Fine with me because I have a bone or two to pick with you about your relationship with my Darien!

(Andromita stands up and brushes the dirt and grass off herself)

Andromita:

Well I was just doing a job I sort of fell into, but now you can feel safe cause now I know he is the earth prince, I would rather slug him then kiss him again.

(The two look around and Sailor Moon begins to walk one direction only to have Moyria grab her outfit by the neck and yank her a different way)

Moon:

I say we go this way!

Andromita:

You do and I don't think I can save you from the fall your about to take.

(Sailor Moon looks back at the direction and sees the greenery suddenly drops off near where she was about to step)

Andromita:

I wasn't a sheltered princess, so while we are out here I suggest you let me lead the way if you want out of here alive.

Moon:

Well that is a change. You're actually trying to keep me alive now.

Andromita:

I still haven't completely forgiven you Sailor Moon. But no, I will not try to kill you till the Negaverse is defeated. Consider it a way of me honoring our past.

Moon:

Our past! So then the dreams I have had are true.

Andromita:

We we're once as close as sisters. We grew up together, you at the castle and me under my father protecting you.

(A light appears as Andromita talks and instantly Sailor Moon takes note)

Moon:

What is that?

Andromita:

Huh? (She turns and sees the light suddenly dash off through the jungle) What ever it is it's sure to lead us to somewhere with answers quickly after it.

(The two run off as the scene changes to the volcano where the others just watched Sailor Moon and Andromita disappear over the edge of the crater. The storm still blasting harsh keeps the group from moving forward. With one exception Darien)

Mina:

Get back Darien it's not safe with this storm there is no way to reach them safely.

Darien:

I am not going back without her. Serena is my everything and I won't let her die this way.

Haru:

Damn it you stupid fool in this even if you transformed you would run risk only hurting yourself. (Haru is stopped by Michiru)

Michiru:

No Haru. You know damn well what he is going through if our situations where reversed you wouldn't stop ether.

Haru:

But we can't just stand by and watch him risk his life like this.

Circuit:

Please I know you have little reason to trust me sailor but allow me the task of retrieving the earth prince. My body is both lighter and expendable.

Amy:

Circuit, are you sure you can?

Circuit:

I have a 64% chance of success with retrieving him and a 37% with retrieving my mistress and the princess.

Rei:

Then I say go for it? But with Sailor Moon gone its your call Mina.

Mina:

Do it but Ami I want you to keep an eye on him with your visor to keep an eye out for threats.

Amy:

On it Mercury Crystal Power... (Amy transforms to Sailor Mercury and quickly activates her computer visor.)

Mina:

Go Circuit!

Circuit:

Yes Venus.

(Circuit dashes up the rocky terrain after Darien)

Darien:

I'm coming Serena, I won't let you die, not today not ever.

(Darien suddenly slips as a section of the weaken cliff side from the combined blasts of lighting, wind, rain and Andromita's recent attacks have made the ground unstable. But a sudden blast of cable shoots out and wraps Darien's leg keeping him from falling down the cliff)

Circuit:

I need to find a stable area before I can lift the Prince.

Mercury:

The ground around you isn't stable enough ether Circuit just hold on as best as you can.

Michiru:

Haru!

Haru:

On it how about you Lita?

Lita:

Jupiter Cyrstal Power... (Lita changes to sailor Jupiter) Already ahead of you Uranus.

Haru:

Uranus Crystal Power! (Haru changes to Sailor Uranus and the two sailor's dash up to grab the cable and pull dragging Darien up the crumbling Cliffside.)

Setsuna:

Watch the lighting girls.

Mina:

More Circuit he's likely to fry them all.

Mercury:

Circuit they have a right to worry in this state you have ... (Mercury cant finish the sentence as lighting indeed strikes Circuit and moves up the cable at the Sailors but then suddenly the lighting sparks around Jupiter then vanishes)

Michiru:

What was that?

Mercury:

It has to be only one thing. Jupiter you have the element on you right?

Jupiter:

Now isn't really the time to ask Mercury but Yeah.

Mina:

The element protected them.

Mercury:

Hmm I wonder.

(Darien is dragged back over to solid ground and Uranus runs up unwinding the cable from him.)

Uranus:

Will you listen now?

Darien:

They aren't down there!

Uranus:

What?

Darien:

As I was dangling I could see the whole crater around her and they aren't their.

Uranus:

Then there is no point in us staying up here, we are going down and don't you try to resist or else.

Darien:

Fine.

(Uranus grabs Darien and leaps back to the van as Jupiter goes to gather Circuit but is halted by Mercury)

Mercury:

Jupiter hold it a second I need you to try something first.

Jupiter:

Uh fine but it's not exactly a bunch of fun up here what do you want me to do.

Mercury:

Take the element out and try to use it in someway with the storm.

Jupiter:

Any suggestion as just how I am to use it.

(Circuit blinks on and off from his damage from the strike)

Circuit:

Jupiter it Like your cur...net power ... activate it.

Jupiter:

Activate it huh? Wait what does Sailor Moon Say to activate the new crystal?

Mercury:

Try Jupiter Power Activation!

Jupiter:

Fine... Jupiter Power Activation! (Jupiter holds her element up to the sky and a stray bolt of lighting strikes her bathing her in light as her uniform transforms to an armored form similar to Sailor Moon's Royal Crisis mode. Also a massive staff with a hammer at the end appears in her hands) No freaking way you mean it actually worked. (The element has transformed into a crystal on the hammers tip.)

Mina:

The elements they enhance our powers!

Mercury:

Jupiter's readings are vastly increased in this form. Jupiter try to calm the lighting in some way.

Jupiter:

Uh sure thing, guess this hammer thing should be used. (Jupiter twirls the hammer staff over head and the lighting of the storm begins to gather and continues to strike the staff) Jupiter Heaven's Thunder Strike (She ends the twirl by swinging the hammer skyward and the lighting collected is rocketed back up to the storm blasting a power explosion that causes to break the storm apart and calm the weather to normal.)

Whoa that was strong.

Mina:

You did it Jupiter!

Mercury:

Looks like we have a way to use the elements to help us out.

Rei:

And more of a reason to keep the Negaverse from getting their hands on any more of them.

Renee: (Running to Darien)

Daddy your safe! (Darien hugs her) but what about Sailor Moon?

Darien:

I don't know but we need to find out. Mercury can we get that robot cat back working?

Mercury:

He still seems to have some function but it looks limited.

Darien:

Well get on it if we have any hope of finding Serena and Moyria we may need his skills to find them.

(Jupiter walks up with the damaged Circuit)

Mina:

Wow that is so cool I can't wait till we find my element Jupiter.

Jupiter:

Its weird I am wearing armor but it feels just as light as the normal uniforms.

Luna:

It's cause the armor and the staff are both creations of the element of the Magi.

Rei:

I thought you guys didn't know about the elements.

Luna:

No the elements no. But the Magi where once a legend of the Moon kingdom's past before the Queen ruled. Somewhere hidden in earth a group of wise people lived and studied the full power of the elements of nature and of man.

Mercury:

The 12 elements Andromita mentioned.

Luna:

Exactly Mercury and these people learned how to master the elements. Just as Jupiter did, they were a powerful force but the power grew corrupt and turned them to fight each other. Till one day their home was destroyed and from it a chunk of the earth was launched to the heavens. The last few survivors mainly turned from their magic and died out with time. With the exception of one woman.

Mercury:

Who was this woman? A threat for us.

Artemis:

No Mercury just the opposite actually. The woman was called Siv and she is known as the creator of the silver crystal.

Mina:

What this woman created the silver crystal how?

Luna:

Sadly we don't know only Siv, and those with her know the story, and they refused to speak about it.

Artemis:

And now no-one survived to tell us.

Circuit:

Not ... True... Siv is... mistress's ... (Circuit goes black before finishing)

Mercury:

Siv is what Circuit.

Rei:

Doesn't he refer to Andromita as his mistress!

Michiru:

Then she knows about this woman Siv. And how the silver crystal was formed!

Mina:

Then if we can get her to help then maybe the silver crystal can be healed.

Setsuna:

I am afraid not. I know I promised not to speak of the meeting Serena had when she gained the new crystal, but the silver crystal is good for only one more use according to Neo Queen Serenity and only after it has time to restore.

Darien:

Well then no matter what no answers will be made till we get Serena and Moyria back from where ever they went off to get in and we will stop to get the parts we need on the way back to the hotel.

(The girls shake their head in agreement as the scene fades to the jungle where Andromita is moving through with ease but Sailor Moon keeps getting smacked in the face with branches as they move)

Moon:

Okay I get it you still hate me for the whole destroyed the moon kingdom issue but you can let up on these branches at any time. (Is hit in the face right after her complaint)

Andromita:

Sorry I didn't realize I was doing that sorry.

Moon: (To Self)

Yeah just as you didn't realize you have bee kissing my Darien. (Another branch hits her in the face, and then she speaks out loud) Enough seriously do you even know where this stupid light went. I haven't seen it for a while now.

Andromita:

Yeah guess we may have lost it.

Moon:

Great so instead of being lost in a clearing we are now lost in the deep jungle. Seriously what did I ever see in you to think you where worth my friendship.

Andromita:

My point exactly! Ever since our big fight at the Moon Kingdom!

Moon:

Wait we fought before you came to earth?

Andromita:

Haven't dreamt that one yet huh? Yeah we fought but not like these past few months no. But it hurt no matter what. It was the night of mom's funeral. You had just met with the earth prince and you gave him your locket. I watched you two in the shadows and confronted him when I knew you left. But my anger over everything including him taking you from me caused me to try and turn your feelings on him.

Moon:

A letter? I received a letter that claimed to be from him, but I could tell from the moment I read it that it was a lie and worse I saw the person leaving it behind, was you.

Andromita: (nods her head in agreement)

You accused me of trying to get in-between the two of you because I was jealous of your love for him. (She stops and laughs) Guess we still are having this fight today aren't we.

Moon:

Why don't you trust him, Darien that is? Is it because he distracted me from your mom's funeral.

Andromita:

(Shaking her head no) No it's before you even started to see him. As an emissary of the Moon Kingdom my family went to earth to help stop Metalia's first attack, we joined the earth forces but when the enemy showed many of the earth kingdom ran including your heroic prince. That battle lead to others that kept weakening our forces and eventually took my mothers life.

Moon:

But surely he ran for some reason.

Andromita:

I don't care the reason, ever since then I have hated the Earth kingdom and cursed its coward prince. Seeing him in your arms just caused me to fear that soon you and our home would fall again at his cowardice.

Moon:

No I won't believe this Darien is no coward. He would never run from battle without a damn good reason.

Andromita:

I was there and my eyes didn't lie to me Sailor Moon. He ran. (The two stop as they see the light has appeared again and this time it seemed to look more like an eye of light watching the two girls argue, they turn to go near it and it runs off again)

Moon:

Here we go again!

Andromita:

Yeah but this time I'm not letting it get away.

(The two dash after it only this time Andromita fails to notice the change in the scenery and the two of them run right off a cliff into a bottomless looking void)

Moon:

I thought you were better at seeing things in the wild being experience.

Andromita:

So I got distracted, so sue me.

Moon:

If we live I will.

(The two continue falling when they see the light ball right along with them they try to move it to grab at it but before they can their falling beings to slow and they soon are floating in mid air.)

Moon:

Okay a littler creped out now. How are we floating?

(Then Andromita spies the light orb is glowing a bright reddish white light)

Andromita:

The element of gales, the orb has it and it must be what is holding us afloat.

Moon:

How can the element act this way?

Andromita:

I don't know (The element moves in on Andromita and then looks at Sailor Moon then suddenly both their transformations vanish)

Serena:

What just happened?

Moyria:

It dropped our power. For some reason?

Serena:

The Magi Stone! It took it. (The two look up at the orb as Serena's crystal floats around the glowing eye of the gales element)

Moyria:

It's collecting the elements so then (Moyria reaches in her pocket and finds the Shadow Element.)

Serena:

What do you mean my stone isn't an element is it?

Moyria:

Sorry to have kept you in the dark but I figured if you kept looking for one you already had it would leave you open for me to come in and take it but I guess that's useless now.

Serena:

So it is one?

Moyria:

The hardest one to master, the element of the heart. Must say since the day you started using it I figured I was misjudging you. But now I know its just dumb luck. (The shadow element beings to glow along with the gales) Not a chance I won't give it up as well. (But soon the element dissolves and reforms in the same glowing orb like eye. Then suddenly the Heart bursts out a blinding light and the shadow element takes on a form of a man)

Serena:

Is that some monster?

Shadow:

Incorrect user of the heart, I am the shadow of history.

Moyria:

History? Explain why are we here? Where is here for that matter?

Shadow:

This is the remains of one of the fragments of the lost kingdom of Magi. I am the shadow of this lands former keeper. As to why you are here it is because the blood of the Magi called for you to be here.

Serena:

I'm still a little lost what do you mean fragment of the lost kingdom.

Shadow:

Years ago great mages from around the world gathered the 12 strongest would be found and they would each be placed in charge of one of the elements of nature and elements of man. After the mages used the magic they possessed to prevent a great darkness from being reborn. The Mages decided that the solar system needed guarding. They divided the elements across the 9 planets and Earths moon. But two elements remained free unable to be controlled by their users. The element of the heart and the element of Spirit. The users formed kingdoms and passed their powers down to their children. The Moon eventually became the strongest of these kingdoms and soon the two wild elements of Heart and Spirit where gathered their but went unused being passed down through the royal line along with the element of Gales.

Moyria:

Wait your saying the element of Wind was the property of the royal family of the Moon Kingdom then. No how did mom end up with mastering it then?

Serena:

But that doesn't explain how did we get here and who brought us?

Moyria:

I brought us along with the element of wind. I some how teleported us here. My mother's element heard me when I called out for help.

Serena:

Help? You asked it for help for what?

Moyria: (Gritting her teeth and biting her lip)

To save you.

Serena:

Save me. You used it to save me. That doesn't make sense even a while ago you said you weren't ready to bury the hatchet but you still saved me.

Moyria:

Lay off Serena! I did it cause I want the pleasure to kill you myself that's all.

Shadow:

This is why you fail to control the element of the heart, young magi. Your heart and mouth aren't in synch.

Moyria:

You shut up as well. And I am no magi. The magi died with my mother.

Serena:

It was a lie is that what you mean shadow?

Shadow:

Correct heart user, the young magi is telling lies to protect herself form you.

Serena:

From me?

Moyria:

I said shut up my feelings have nothing to do with any of this.

Serena:

You do still care.

Moyria:

No I do not!

Serena:

Shadow?

Shadow:

That is a lie, her feelings are strong and where the reason you both came here.

(The shadow forms a black square and plays Sailor Moon falling off the cliff and Andromita going after her)

Andromita:

Princess, I won't let you fall. No not like this. You can't take her. The world needs her.
(Tears run down her face) I need her. I need my friend, some one help me save her.

Moyria:

Stop it!

Serena:

You called me your friend.

Moyria:

We were friends. Once but not now and never again!

Serena:

Your mouth may say no but your heart says yes.

Moyria:

Drop it. Shadow how do we get back?

Shadow:

You need the Element of Gales to open the way.

Serena:

Great no problem you two can do that then.

Shadow:

No I can not act without a master to properly activate it; the element only brought you here because the element of the heart linked the element of gales to a skilled user near by.

Moyria:

It won't attune to me I know, I tired years ago when I first got it. At best I can send the element trough a teleport if Circuit got in contact with me but not having heard anything from him since we disappeared they may think were dead from the fall.

Serena:

Then we are stuck here with out a way back or to get the element that can get us out in the proper hands. Wait didn't the shadow just say someone was nearby which caused the element of the heart to activate the other element.

Moyria:

Yeah well the elements where each given to a segment of the different kingdoms so. The element of wind would be linked to one of the others.

Serena:

Yeah and the kingdom that claims the element of gales is the Moon Kingdom.

Moyria:

You already are tuned for the element of heart Serena, the element of Gales won't reach full power from you.

Serena:

No but I am not the only Moon Princess in our group.

Moyria:

What? Wait that little pink haired girl do you mean her?

Serena:

It's a long story but Renee is my daughter and heir to the Moon Kingdom as well so.

Moyria:

So she is the one to use the element of Gales. Now all we need is... (Moyria halts as a her cell phone rings a familiar chime) Circuit is that you?

Amy: (on cell)

Guys its Moyria.

Darien: (on cell faint)

Give it here Amy. (louder) Moyria is Serena with you?

Moyria:

Your princess is safe Prince.

Serena:

Darien is every one okay?

Darien: (on cell)

Yeah but where are you guys. We have linked up Circuit to a computer system to get it working but we can't locate you.

Moyria:

Circuit's damaged no wonder he didn't try and call. Listen closely I need you to find his projection relay and click it on it should lock in on this cells location and allow us to send something your way.

Serena:

We need you to get Renee to use it.

Darien: (on Cell breaking up)

Renee? Wait do you mean you have another element.

Moyria:

Just hurry the signal wont last. Shadow I need the element of Gales. (The shadow fades as the elements return with the shadow and gales in Moyria's hands and the Heart with Serena just as Moyria's cell begins to glow a strong light) Now listen closely once the element is through the girl should be able to transform to a new form and have the ability to teleport to us and back.

Darien: (on Cell breaking up)

How will she know is there some kind of clue you can give her?

Moyria:

Tell her to focus on Sailor Moon and that should bring her right here.
(The cells light causes the element of Gales to vanish and then the cell goes dead)
Well nothing to do but wait now.

(The scene changes to the group just as the element pops into place in front of Circuits broken form)

Mina:

It is an element.

Darien:

Okay Renee you ready for this.

(Renee nods her head)

Renee:

To bring Serena and the other girl home sure. Pink Moon Power Activation! (seconds pass and the group all face faults) I guess that's not it?

Amy:

Hmm looks like according to Circuits records that this is the element of Gales and its Activation code is. Royal Guardian Power Activation!

Renee:

Yeah I don't think I would have ever guessed that. Royal Guardian Power Activation!
(Light envelopes Renee and a over sized set of armor appears on her looking like she would have a hard time fitting it when the outfit suddenly shrinks in size to fit her form. Along with her armor a baton with a long flowing ribbon appears in her hands.)

Lita:

Ouch.

Haru:

Um I don't think she focused on Sailor Moon.

Hotaru:

Amy:

The elements must be meant to be used by more experienced user. No telling how well you can control it Chibi Moon.

Darien:

Go easy okay.

Mina:

Renee the baton maybe it will help in getting Serena and Moyria.

Rie:

Yeah remember what she said focus on Sailor Moon and you will find them.

Sailor Chibi Moon:

Right... Um Moon Ribbon (Sailor Chibi Moon starts twirling the ribbon in the air)
Teleport (suddenly Sailor Chibi Moon is shoot forward by through her ribbon and crashing into the nearby wall)

You can do it Chibi Moon I believe in you.

(A dazed Chibi Moon shook herself to a clear head and tries again)

Chibi Moon:

Moon Ribbon Teleport (suddenly she vanishes this time from the room completely)

Michiru:

I hope she makes it this time.

Darien:

She will I have faith in her.

(The scene changes to the jungle)

Serena:

I wonder what's keeping that brat from... (Before she can finish her sentence Chibi Moon comes crashing down on Serena) OUCH hasn't anyone told you to watch where you're going.

Chibi Moon:

I don't know how the power is hard to control

Moyria:

The element you're a bit young to be using it so it has to compensate. You will have power but it will have a strict time limit. So we need to move before you use it up. Serena takes her hand and mine. (Serena does as Moyria states) Good now teleport us back from where you were last okay.

Chibi Moon:

Yeah I got it. Moon Ribbon Teleport. (The three rocket through the ribbon and vanish, as the scene changes back to the rest of the group, all three Chibi Moon, Serena and Moyria go crashing into the wall. Then suddenly Chibi Moon converts back to normal.)

Lita:

Wow again

Haru:

At least she got them back!

Mina:

Somehow I don't think Serena and Moyria feel the same.

Serena:

Okay no more using your element till you learn how to land brat.

Renee:

Hey I just learned how to use it. Hey cool it's a cute necklace. (Renee shows off her new element necklace in the form a double crescent moon with one smaller than the other.)

(Darien reaches over and hugs Serena)

Darien:

I was so worried we lost you.

Serena:

Its okay I'm a little bruised but we are okay.

Mina: (Eyeing Moyria)

Not completely

Serena:

No let her be. Andi was only acting that way cause of how she had been treated in the past. She is our ally and I won't have any of you fight her.

Darien:

Sorry Serena but I can't abide by that she and I have a score to settle.

Moyria:

Then have at it. With the girl having my mothers element I have no way to transform.

Serena:

What about the other element?

Moyria:

I would have to be a stupid fool to try and link with the element of shadow. But no matter what I am not about to hand it over to you all ether.

Darien:

You can't transform that's good but if you think I will go on working along side you. You have another thing... (Moyria gets up and walks out the room)

Moyria:

I fully understand Darien. I will resign at once and leave the show.

Mina:

Wait if she does that then wont you loses the show.

Moyria:

Yes he will lose his job and I will be turned over to the government for sneaking into the country under their radar.

Darien:

Fine we will keep working together for now. At least now I can keep my eye on you should you try and betray us again.

Moyria:

Fine but I will be sleeping elsewhere tonight. Mercury take care of Circuit for me till he's back in fighting form okay.

Serena:

Where are you going? We just got back and I still have questions.

Moyria:

Not tonight Serena. I will answer all I can but for now I need some time alone. This place is too crowed with bad memories.

(Moyria shuts the door to the room)

Haru:

Well I guess she has a good idea hey Michiru want to go check out the tea shop again before dinner.

Michiru:

Sure thing. Have a good evening.

(The two of them also leave as Setsuna looks at Hotaru then at Renee)

Setsuna:

Okay girls how about I take you two shopping before dinner.

Hotaru:

Can we get some ice cream?

Renee:

Count me in then!

(And the three leave as the others look strangely at one another)

Rie:

Hey Amy you sure you got all the parts you need.

Mina:

Yeah why don't we head back to see if there are other stores that may help out?

(Lita, Rie and Mina Grab Amy and run out of the room shutting the door behind)

Serena:

Look like we are all alone.

Darien:

Looks that way! Hey you don't think Moyria meant that when she left to let us... (Serena holds her finger up to Darien's lips and then moves into kiss him passionately as the scene changes to outside the hotel the different sets disperse on their ways as Moyria finds herself walking watching the cherry blossoms fall, when Akito appears)

Akito:

And where have you been all day. We lost a whole day of shooting with you two.

Moyria:

Shove it rich boy.

Akito:

What did you just say to me?

Moyria:

I told you to shove it. Today you really don't want to get on my bad side.

Akito:

Look here miss your relationship with Darien may be fake but when I place the camera on you I expect you to give me more class then what I am getting now.

Moyria:

You're filming me right now?

Akito:

Yeah I saw you walking alone in the cherry blossoms and thought your beauty looks good so I started filming but then I saw that sorrowful expression. You killed the whole shot.

Moyria:

You really don't know what made this show a success do you.

Akito:

Well its yours and Darien's charisma on camera.

(Moyria shake her head no)

Moyria:

Wrong bucko. It's because we always found the interesting news because it followed us where ever we go. (She stops and thinks for a second) You want an interesting story, I have an idea.

(The scene changes to Geo's Throne room as Cen returns with the element of Storms)

Geo:

At long last another element in our hands and best of all the worthless Sailor Moon and rat Andromita took a little fall into the volcano.

Cen:

My sister will no longer be a threat to your plans Geo.

Geo:

Do you see Iris this is what a true warrior should act as

(Light hits a severely beaten and bloody Iris looking on at Cen)

Cen:

Why is this scum out of her cage?

Geo:

We had to test her out.

Cen:

So she is ready then?

Geo:

No it is still too early for her final fight. But soon Spectral will have her set to destroy all the remaining Sailors. (Geo places the element of storms along side the Element of Nature and Metalia awakens from her rest) Good evening my queen, I have good news of our competition. Our latest warrior Cen here has sent Sailor Moon and the warrior Andromita to their doom.

Metalia:

Really then why do I sense that power of the Silver crystal growing in strength?

Geo:

What that can't be possible? Cen you saw the two hit bottom right?

Cen:

Uh no I kind of fell through the gate while they fell down the volcano. But surely they couldn't survive, Andromita's teleporter doesn't work and Sailor Moon doesn't have the power to...

Metalia:

Stupid fool the princess live and you two where stupid enough to believe they would fall so easily. Gather me more elements and I will show you how one truly destroys the little princess and her friends.

Geo:

Of course my queen. (To self) next time Cen you better be damn sure they are dead and prove me or else you will join Iris in the treatments.

(The scene changes to late at night as the group is gathering under the cherry trees. Serena is sitting with her friends when Moyria walks up in a fancy dress with makeup and grabs her by the arm)

Serena:

Hey if you want to talk just ask me!

Moyria:

Shut up and come with me before, the rich jerk shows up.

(Moyria walks her to a dense area of brush)

Serena:

What is the deal is the Negaverse attacking. Your sister. Or are you going to try and kill me.

Moyria:

Just shut up and transform will you. I am limited and I want to get this in before Akito sniffs out my plan okay.

Serena:

Your plan? What plan?

Moyria:

To gain the one interview everyone wants. An interview with Sailor Moon hero of the world.

Serena:

You want to interview me. Fine but on two conditions.

Moyria:

Sure what are they?

Serena:

One you don't kiss Darien after this interview.

Moyria:

Not hard he isn't going to interview you it will just be me and you. What about the other?

Serena:

It's an interview with all the scouts, I figure since we all are here for a change it would be a shame if they missed a chance to be on national TV and Mina and Rei wouldn't let me live it down.

Moyria:

Deal an interview with all the Sailors. Go get them and get ready.

Serena:

Oh and one last thing this isn't a condition for the interview it's just a suggestion for you.

Moyria:

What's that?

Serena:

Lighten up and have some fun for once.

(Serena runs off to get the others)

Moyria: (cracking a smile, to self)

As you wish my princess!

(The scene switches to Moyria standing there with all the Sailors sitting around a cloth laid out as they watch the cherry blossoms fall)

Moyria:

Okay everyone ready let's get this while we can. (Moyria pauses for a second) Spring is across the country and the cherry blossoms fall. Everyone from young to old, rich to poor enjoy to look at the blossoms fall in the night skies, even a group of very well know super heroes....

(The scene goes black)
