(The scene opens up in darkness as a faint glow of light appears and calls out)

Voice:

Princess

(Serena looks at the light)

Serena:

Wait what is going on here?

Voice:

Princess, the element is waiting for you.

Serena:

Element what element, where?

Voice:

I will be waiting for you in the place where your journeys all began.

Serena:

Wait who are you? What place are you talking about?

(The light bursts and shows a scene of the former Moon Kingdom and a strange looking version of Queen Serenity)

Serena:

Queen Serenity? No that not right you're not her. But you want me to come to the ruins.

(The figure nods then fades into darkness, as Serena jerks herself awake in her bed, shouting)

Serena:

No wait don't go!

(Luna pops her head up from her own sleep at Serena's cry)

Luna:

A bad dream Serena?

Serena:

We need to gather the team Luna. I know where the next element is.

Luna:

Well at this time of the morning I think it might be hard to gather all of them.

Serena:

Get who you can of the sailors, I will get Renee.

Luna:

Wait you actually want to get Renee to go with you to get an element?

Serena:

No but she is the best hope to get us to the element.

Luna:

You mean to teleport yourselves? To where?

Serena:

The ruins of the Moon Kingdom.

Luna:

What?

(Serena walks off to go get Renee, while the scene changes to Darien and Moyria's apartment where despite the late hour neither of them are sleeping as the issues of the past few days since learning the truth of each others identities has caused a great amount of tension amongst the two)

Darien:

Look I don't care what you have to say about it I am not going to let you keep up with your plans.

Moyria:

I told you already, there is nothing to worry about I'm powerless. If I could transform now, hell I don't even have a gun to shoot you. Don't you think I wouldn't be trashing your sorry butt all over this apartment, like back at the college!

Darien:

Yeah well if I had known who you really were I would have left you to die on the mountain a month ago.

Moyria:

This isn't solving our problems arguing over our past fights so let's settle it here and now. Only one rule no transforming.

Darien:

No I promised Serena I wouldn't fight you. Not anymore. But you sure as hell are testing that limit with me right now.

(Moyria walks to be face to face with Darien)

Moyria:

Aw the poor little cowardly earth prince has to hide behind his girl friends skirt.

Darien:

The only reason I am still here Moyria is to help you out. You know damn well Reyhard has you pegged as having illegally come to this country. As it stands you need me to help you keep this job and keep the legal authorities from causing you more trouble.

Moyria:

Yeah and you need me to help with the elements and cause your little girlfriend has hopes of restoring what she buried in the past.

Darien:

Yeah well before I so much as even do another camera shoot with you I need to trust you won't do something to harm us. You and me, or even the sailors in taking action to gather the elements for yourself!

Moyria:

And what do you purpose I do to gain that because right now the only thing I am willing to give you is another set of broken ribs and maybe a fat lip for all those times you kissed me on camera.

Darien:

Hold it right there you where the one to kiss me several times.

Moyria:

Only cause the damn script call for it.

Darien:

Same here. (He begins to walk off to the living room but stops) Give the sailors the element of shadows.

Moyria:

No.

Darien:

Even you said the elements are best in their hands and to be used by their masters.

Moyria:

The element of Shadows is one of three elements I can not ever let the Negaverse get a hold of I am not going to risk letting them get their hands on it nor will I let it be handed to the one you all that best fits its power.

Darien:

Then at least tell me who it fits and any other elements you know of.

Moyria:

Fine but from now on till I can find a way to transform you will agree to help me and not Sailor Moon in gathering them understand.

Darien:

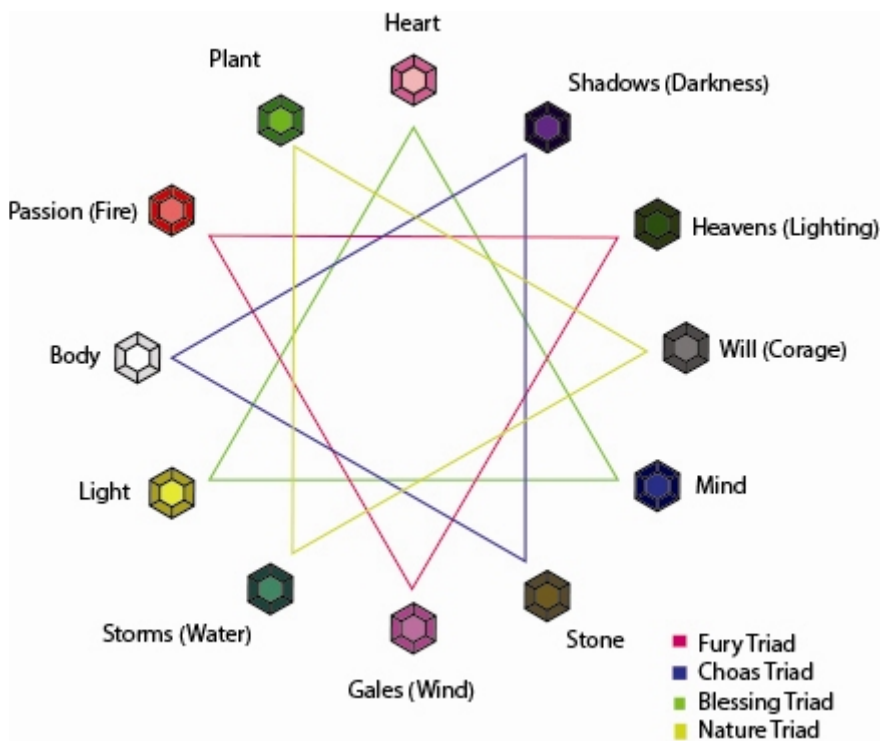

Why if helping them helps defeat.... (Moyria interrupts him)

Moyria:

The elements that Metallia needs the most are Shadow, Body and Stone. She now has Plant and Storms in her possession meaning she is close to completing the Nature triad.

Darien:

So they do have two.

Moyria:

As you now know the elements that the Sailors are matched to those most likely to master them. Sailor Mercury has the element of mind which I have never personally seen used before. Sailor Jupiter the element of heavens as you have found out she controls the power of lighting and thunder on new levels with it. Sailor Mars the element of Passion which is also another name for the element of flame, once she uses it she will her fire power reach new levels. Sailor Moon the element of Heart granting her great healing powers as well as tapping into all of the powers she once possessed but as it runs wild there is no telling to the elements true power even surfacing yet. And finally Sailor Chibi Moon with my element of wind with it she will be able to teleport and use blasts of wind to mimic Sailor Moon's own abilities.

Darien:

And the other three elements who best in the team can use them.

Moyria:

The shadow is best in the hands of Sailor Pluto how ever it's corrupted the past users and I would rather it stay locked away as its dark powers are something Metallia will fight to regain. The element of Storms is also know as the element of waves and thus is best in the hands of Sailor Neptune. (She pauses and grits her teeth)

Darien:

And the element of plant, who best fits that one that the negaverse has.

Moyria:

You. The earth prince! With its power you would gain a new sense of power equal to the sailors. Had I gotten my hands on it in the park I would have taken measures as well to see it never reach your cowardly hands.

Darien:

What is with you calling me a coward I have saved both you and Sailor Moon from danger before never flinching?

Moyria:

I call you that cause the day it mattered the most. Is the day you ran from battle? The day my mother died because you and your earth kingdom turned your back on helping us against, Metalia!

Darien:

What?

Moyria:

The battle of hope lost gorge.

Darien:

I don't remember such a battle.

Moyria: (very upset and on the verge of tears)

Cause you ran. You left her on her own. Father and I tried to stop her but she did the best she could. She delayed Metalia by teleporting her far away but not before my mother took a fatal blow before my eyes. I watched as you lead your forces to flee the battle.

Darien:

Look I am sorry but I don't honestly recall my memories of the past are faded just like Serena. Unlike you we had to be reborn on this world and with that our memories of the past are a haze at best. You can't keep acting like this stuff happened yesterday. It's been a thousand years.

Moyria:

You can say that but you didn't lose anyone that day you don't know the pain I felt.

Darien:

Oh no why don't you wait right there (Darien walks to the living room and grabs a small wooden box.)

Moyria:

I don't need to see your crappy jewelry choices or cigars or what ever you have in that box.

Darien: (Opening the box and showing four ordinary looking stones each is a different kind)

I lost these.

Moyria:

Rocks you lost rocks. I lost my family because of yours and the princesses actions.

Darien: (Grabbing a stone and squeezing it then thrusts it at Moyria's chest)

These are all that remains of my loyal followers from the battles with Queen Beryl. No they aren't my family, but they were as close to me as friends could be. And when we all were reborn, that witch corrupted them to fight with her. Jadeite, Nephrite, Zoisite, and Kunzite, my friends all died as well. Many had but these ones I had to help Sailor Moon to defeat to save this world from Beryl's return. I had to help kill my own friends to save the world from their corrupted forms. And now they are locked in forms of these stones. (Darien replaces the stone he picked up and closes the lid calming down) You not alone Moyria. But if you keep acting this way then you will be. (Moyria looks down feeling regret for casting judgment at Darien) Now the other elements need to be kept safe so yeah I will hold up my end of the agreement. But I want you to work to bury the hatchet with Sailor Moon and try to work with us and not against us okay.

Moyria:

Fine I don't have much I can do but, to stop Geo and Cen then I will help the best I can.

(Darien's cell beings to ring)

Darien:

Damn who would be calling at this hour?

Moyria:

Sayrun, Akito maybe Reyhard?

Darien:

It's Serena? (Answers the phone) Hey what's up why are you ... (Stops of a minute)

Moyria:

Man that girl really needs to chill about us living here.

Darien:

Moyria!

Moyria:

What she does, if there was anything find out who you really are surely killed it for me.

Darien:

We need to go meet the girls.

Moyria:

Wait? Now seriously I know I don't have Circuit right now but what could... (Darien interrupts her.)

Darien:

They think they found an element in the ruins of the Moon Kingdom.

Moyria: (Leaping up and grabbing a small backpack with camera equipment)

Fine but if I am going I'm taking the camera this time I don't want rich boy chewing me out if we miss shooting later.

Darien:

Yes see you soon Serena. (Hangs up) Good idea but I think he is still wetting himself over how you got the girls to be interviewed two weeks ago.

(The Scene changes to Spectral's lab)

Spectral:

Yes my dear Iris that last test run left you far weaker than we imagine. I sincerely hope that the pain you're experienced was excruciating. I would hate to know you missed out on suffering for your failures.

(Geo appears and Spectral kneels before him instantly then Cen walks in behind Geo)

Geo:

Rise Spectral, I need to speak with you.

Spectral:

Of course my lord what is it that I can help with.

Geo:

Our new companion here has pointed out a location of one of the elements that may be worth us going after. And with its location it's likely the Sailors won't bother us.

Spectral:

Really my calculations have yet to decipher where the next element would appear I would love to hear where this woman thinks an element will appear.

Cen:

It doesn't need to. It was locked away in a magical safe before the war.

Spectral:

An unused element? How do you possibly know its location?

Cen:

Because I know who put it there and the fact that the Sailors don't have it means they have no clue of its location in the Moon Kingdom ruins.

Geo:

This element is it one of the chaos triad?

Cen:

No, but I have a good idea who on the other team would best benefit from the power and if we can keep it out of their hands then their strength will be lessened.

Geo:

And which element is it.

Cen:

The element of will.

Spectral:

If we got that I could reverse its effect to make it useful for the queen.

Geo:

The element of will, does it have another name?

Cen:

It does my lord. The element of courage, the very element my dear sister is the most likely to master.

Geo:

So the element could make our mouse into a lion then.

Spectral:

Perhaps we could alter it and let her have the altered version.

Geo:

You would give her the element?

Spectral:

If I can reverse the element only sir. Then her courage will turn to fear.

Cen:

Oh no need to worry she has plenty of that now as it is.

Spectral:

Then do you need a monster to help you on this mission?

Cen:

No save them, the element is guarded by a magical trap. A monster would only get in my way. Even if the Sailors find out about the element they have to make the way themselves through the trap.

Geo:

Very well then, Cen I expect another success from you. Spectral I would like to hear more from you on corrupting the elements.

(The scene changes to dawn breaking on a road side as Serena, Luna and Renee watch as Amy, Lita, Rie, Mina and Artemis run up quickly followed by Moyria and Darien.)

Rei:

So is this everybody going.

Luna:

The others couldn't make it.

Lita:

So why is she here?

Darien:

We have settled on an agreement.

Serena:

Well that's good (gives Moyria a smile but Moyria turns her head in a pout)

Mina:

So why do we need to go to the Moon Kingdom. I mean its nothing but ruins.

Amy:

Well if an element is there then it needs to be gotten before the Negaverse finds it.

Moyria:

If it's an element still there, then it can only be the element of Will. However getting it from its magical safe will be difficult. I need to let you all know that we will all be tested in our actions but facing fragments of our own pasts. We will have to face some of the darkest moments of our pasts. Those who aren't ready to face these moments then head home now. (Serena starts to walk away with Renee)

Luna:

Except you two!

Lita:

I have nothing to fear.

Mina:

Yeah I mean what is the worst we could face.

Rei:

So all of us will face them together.

Moyria: (Shaking her head no)

Sorry but once the trap is active you each will have to face the fear on your own. No one can or will be able to help. I suggest we set up a team to stand guard just incase to help the ones that don't make it.

Amy:

Yes it's a good idea. Then who do we have set up as the base team.

Darien:

Renee your power will be limited so once we get there you should power down and stay with Luna and Artemis.

Moyria:

And Sailor Moon.

Everyone else:

WHAT?

Moyria:

Sailor Moon's Healing ability and power will make for a good solid base team member. Leaving the remaining six of us the chance to go in and face our fears in hopes of defeating the trap.

Rei:

No way sister.

Lita:

Yeah like we can trust you going after the element you stay behind.

Darien:

No girls, Moyria doesn't have a way to transform she will be a problem if the Negaverse attacked the base camp.

Serena:

I agree with Moyria. She won't betray us will she? (Darien and Moyria reluctantly nod)
Very well then Renee its time.

Renee:

Right Royal Guardian Power Activation (Renee transforms into her new form of Sailor Chibi Moon) Okay every one grab hands and form a chain (The girls and Darien all grab hands and the cats hop up on Mina and Serena's shoulders as Chibi Moon twirls her ribbon) Moon Ribbon Teleport.

Serena:

No crashing this time!

(The group vanishes and the scene changes to the ruins of the Moon Kingdom where they all crash into a pile)

Moon:

I said no crashing! Hey we transformed?

(The group looks about them and sees that they indeed have changed forms but most surprising is Mars and Mercury both seem to have transformed by the elements)

Jupiter:

No way guys you have your new forms to after all.

(Moyria kicks a rock as she looks on the group in their transformed forms)

Moyria:

We don't have time to waste we need to find the trap and get going.

(Suddenly a voice calls out from behind a pile of rubble and Cen comes walking out)

Cen:

Right you are my sister. You simply must find it, how else will I be able to steal it from you.

Moon:

Damn it's that woman again.

Luna:

Sailors get to the element leave the woman to Sailor Moon and Mini Moon.

Mars:

But with these new powers we could.

Moyria: (Shouting)

THAT'S AN ORDER GET TO THE ELEMENT.

Venus:

Hey the pecking of leadership order has your last.

Artemis:

Venus this is serious.

(Moyria grabs Tuxedo Mask's arm)

Moyria:

Let's go!

Tuxedo Mask:

I am going to stay and help Sailor Moon!

Moyria:

You made a promise remember you do as I tell you when the elements are involved we go now.

Cen:

Well it looks like my dear sister has a little crush on the earth prince.

(The other Sailors along with Tuxedo Mask and Moyria run deeper into the ruins of the Moon Kingdom)

Moon:

She better not. Friendship of the past or not I will kick her butt if she even tries something. (Cen lashes out her metal whip and swipes at Moyria only to have it blocked by Sailor Moon) Chibi Moon any help you can offer will be good here!

Chibi Moon:

Fine I'm on it Sailor Moon. (Chibi moon leaps up and starts to twirl a arm that has nothing on it but then suddenly the Lunar rings appear) Lunar Rings Gather (The rings fly from her arm and land over Cen clasp tight on her.) Got her, goes to show you Sailor Moon I am not so useless. (Suddenly her transformation wears out and along with it the rings vanish)

Cen:

You where saying brat

Moon:

Great time for you to change back Renee. (Sailor Moon grabs Renee and starts to run from Cen as the scene changes. To a large room with a door and the others standing before it)

Moyria:

Okay once the door is open the trap will begin. Not everyone will succeed and end up back here but not in good shape I'm afraid. One of us however need to make it through understand.

All:

Right.

(Moyria opens the door and the group runs in and suddenly they all vanish into a void the scene locks in on Mars who finds herself in a hospital room.)

Doctor:

I'm sorry Mr. Hino but your wife's chances don't look very good.

Rei's Father:

Understand.

Mars:

Wait what how can I be here? This is my greatest fear losing my mother again?

Rei's Father:

No Rei, it's because your actions that your mother is in this mess you horrible child.

Mars:

No, mom died of cancer. I didn't have any thing to do about it.

Rei's Father:

Oh no it's because you're a freak of nature that brought your dark evil on her. You killed her. You are no child of mine.

Mars:

No I did not do any of this

(Suddenly Rei's father breaks apart into crows that swarm the room darkening it)

Crows:

You are nothing but a evil freak of nature. You killed your mother.

Mars:

NO I DID NOT. I AM NOT A FREAK.

Crows:

Freak evil Freak! Freak! You're a Freak!

(Soon images of the other girls appear)

Crows and girls:

Freak! Freak your nothing but an evil freak.

Mars: (In tears)

I AM NOT A FREAK. (Suddenly Mars's body begins to engulf in flames and erupt before she is shot out in the room where the door stood in tears and surrounded in flames that don't burn her.) I'm not a freak, I'm not.

(The scene changes to Jupiter who finds herself walking to in her old middle school before meeting the others. The room is full of students both middle, high school and even other people as well as the sailors.)

Jupiter:

This is my fear? I know all these people

(Several of the people start to walk out)

Student 1:

Get away from me you bully. (Gets up and walks out the door)

Student 2:

That's that rebel girl.

Student 3:

Who would want to be friends with a bully like her?

(More people leaving the room, it now is down to the common faces of the Sailors and a few regular characters through the series but they too are leaving)

Jupiter:

Where is every one going?

Amy:

Away from a bully like you

Jupiter:

I'm not a bully Amy.

Mina:

You sure look like one.

Jupiter:

Mina! You can't possibly mean that.

Mina:

Quit acting like we are friends.

Rei:

Yeah who would want to ever be your friend?

Jupiter:

Rei? Guys what is going on?

Serena:

You're no friend of mine!

Jupiter:

Serena!

(The sailors are the last to leave as Jupiter is alone in a room)

Jupiter:

I'm alone, I have no friends, I am no good. (suddenly Jupiter is thrown back into the room before the door and snaps out of it hearing Mars screaming and in flames) Mars! (She reaches out to Mars but quickly pulls back) Damn the trap we failed. (Jupiter punches the ground just as Venus comes flying out in tears)

Venus:

I had no choice. I didn't mean it.

Jupiter:

Venus! You lost too.

Venus: (still in tears)

Jupiter what? .... The trap I'm out it wasn't real?

Jupiter:

No but it sure hit a nerve with me, looks like it got you and Mars too?

Venus:

Mars! What's wrong with her? She's on fire; we have to put her out.

Jupiter:

No Venus I think she is fine the fire is on her but not burning her it must be part of her new power.

Venus:

Still we can't leave her like this.

Jupiter:

I...I can't ...

Venus:

What Moyria said is true we need Sailor Moon to heal us from this.

Jupiter:

Maybe, guess the other two are doing well to last this long.

Venus:

Mercury isn't likely to fall for the illusions so easily, But I have a feeling Moyria and Tuxedo Mask are facing issues that they are more use to facing.

(A scream is heard and suddenly Sailor Moon comes running in the room with Renee in her arms and Luna and Artemis holding on)

Moon:

Guys we have trouble, I'm no good dealing with this woman on my own.

Venus:

Sailor Moon heal, Mars and Jupiter and the three of us will deal with her. (Venus takes a fighting pose)

Jupiter:

What about you Venus?

Venus:

Guess mine isn't as long effecting as you two I will hold her off for now...(Cen comes running in the room) Venus Love Me Chain (Venus's chain whips and causes Cen to move back)

Moon: (Setting Renee down)

Right... Moon Blessed Wishing Heal these souls...(A light shines and surrounds Jupiter and Mars. Jupiter relaxes her stance and lets out a grin while Mars calms down but looks shocked at the flames moving about her body)

Mars:

Guys? What is this!

Jupiter:

It must be your new power like my hammer.

Venus:

Try and use the fire to fight with.

Moon:

Mars, we believe in your power.

Mars:

Thanks, Sailor Moon sometimes you can say the right things. (Mars closes her eyes and concentrates) Mars Flame Purification (The flames on Mars swirl about her body and strike the ground around Cen then move in quickly to burn at her. Suddenly Cen vanishes and reappears across the room. At the same time another shadow falls from the doorway.)

Cen:

Nasty Power there you have. To bad I have my Teleportation back up no thanks to my dear sister. To bad she can't see me wipe the floor with the pathetic weaklings of Sailors you all are.

(The new figure appears as a wounded Mercury who stands up with gritted teeth)

Mercury:

I'll show you who's weak. Mercury Frozen Illusion (Cen goes after an Illusion of Mars that shatters then sees the other sailors and runs off through the door)

Moon:

Mercury!

Venus:

So you failed the illusion as well

Mercury:

No I made it past the first trap, As did Tuxedo Mask and Moyria but then the second one opened and I wasn't fast enough to avoid it.

Jupiter:

So then it's up to those two.

Mars:

When this is over I think I'd like to hear how you all did better than me.

Mercury:

Sure.

(Sailor Moon begins to walk to the doorway and sees a light like in her dream.)

Venus:

Sailor Moon? Where are you going?

Moon:

She's there.

Mars:

Who's there Meatball brain.

Moon:

Sorry Guys but can you watch over Renee I think I was meant to go in the trap after all.

Jupiter:

But Tuxedo Mask and Moyria are still in there they can get the element.

Moon:

No there is something else just trust me.

(Sailor Moon walks close to the door and then suddenly the shadow wraps around her pulling her in and the doors slam close)

Venus:

Another trap?

Mars:

I hope not but we must trust her.

Renee:

She will be fine, I just know it.

(The scene changes to inside the trap with Sailor Moon as she walks around in the dark for a while)

Moon:

So this is what my fear is huh? It's kind of empty. (Sailor Moon suddenly falls and the room bursts in light revealing piles and piles of dead bodies and sitting on top of the bodies are the forms of all her friends and family dead as the light turns to the city burning every thing to ash. Sailor Moon drops to her knees in covering her mouth and begins to cry out but stops herself) No is not real. I admit it is my greatest fear that I will fail those that are important to me But I haven't failed yet. (Flames burn intense and begin to swirl into a woman as the scene of the people fade. The woman takes on the shape of the woman Sailor Moon saw in her earlier dream)

Woman:

Very Good Princess, you where able to confront your fear and face it, something your fellow Sailors could not.

Moon:

Who are you and why do you look so familiar?

Woman:

(Smiles) Well asking questions you should already know. Very well given it has been some time since I last saw you your highness. I am the lady Siv head magistrate of the Moon Kingdom.

Moon:

Siv? I have heard that name before, at the Jungle with Andi!

Siv:

(Laughs) I thought I felt a bit of an energy pull awhile ago, that must mean you where in need of the Magi's guidance.

Moon:

Your one of them, one of the Magi then.

Siv:

I was when I was alive yes and more. I was the magi of the element of gales. A close friend of your mother the Queen, a royal protector of all the kingdoms and mother to your dear friend Andi as you call her.

Moon:

Andi's mom, you're the one that died fighting Metallia before the Negaverse attacked us.

Siv:

Yes and in that fight I created the one tool to defeat Metallia, the silver crystal infused with all the elements in their purest form.

Moon:

So then you can restore the crystal!

Siv:

No you will restore it on your own in time as you gather the other elements.

Moon:

Then we need the element within and it would help to give it to its user.

Siv:

You have two more traps to go through. I will take you through them.

Moon:

Wait Mercury made it past the first one and said she saw Moyria and Tuxedo Mask had made it to the second. Will I meet up with them?

Siv:

No I sent my daughter and the Earth Prince to another goal to help them both with troubles of their heart. But don't worry though these traps hurt they do not kill.

(The scene changes to a large room with squares blinking on and off four doors one each direction line the far walls, while in the center of the room Tuxedo Mask and Moyria stand.)

Moyria:

See any pattern to it yet.

Tuxedo Mask:

Well Mercury thought she figured it out but she failed. You know about the first trap why not about this one?

Moyria:

Hey I was young when this place was built and even then I didn't want to go up against the first trap.

Tuxedo Mask:

What was your trap like?

Moyria:

Tell you what when we make it out of the trap one way or the other we will have a beer at the apartment and talk all about the stuff we just saw.

Tuxedo Mask:

Any clue on which door to go to?

Moyria:

Well going to any of them if they are wrong then we have to cross the whole room to guess again. Of course that's saying that the doors aren't set up to fail us as well.

Tuxedo Mask:

From what you're saying it sounds hopeless to even try. But we have to move on the last test proved the answer was to face your fears.

Moyria:

Wait that's it. Why didn't I get it?

Tuxedo Mask:

What is it? That it's hopeless.

Moyria:

The element we are after is the element of Will's also known as the element of courage. Something it's something my dad taught me. Courage is, about knowing when to fight and when to stand down. This trap is meant to be unsolvable and hopeless because you need to have the courage that you won't be able to solve it. (Moyria sits down in the middle square and looks at Tuxedo Mask)

Tuxedo Mask:

Okay I guess it sounds possible. (He sits down as well) Now what?

Moyria:

Wait (the room starts to go dark and the two are separated again. The scene brightens up on a battle scene that Moyria finds all too familiar as she stood here before years ago. A massive rocky canyon much in the form of the Grand Canyon, she sees a massive dark shadow weaving in and out of the rocky crags while a strange transport speeds in front with Siv, Raydon, along with a young Andromita) Hope's lost Gorge why am I here. What good is it to show me this?

Raydon:

Dear what ever you plan on doing I hope you do it quick. Cause big dark and ugly can move better then we thought.

Andromita:

Dad head to the north if we can keep it behind us we can reach the Earth Kingdom's forces.

Moyria:

Stop this I don't want to see this again. It doesn't make any sense why should I see this it has nothing to do with trap. I don't fear what happened to mom!

(The vehicle bursts over a small hill and around a corner.)

Andromita:

See there they are the earth forces like I told you we don't stand alone.

(Raydon smiles then squints and grits his teeth)

Raydon:

Look again kiddo they are running as well.

(The earths forces start building up dust clouds and running away from the building darkness)

Siv:

I have no choice, Love, look after our daughter.

(The Vehicle comes to a screeching halt and Siv walks to the shadow)

Andromita:

Mommy what are you doing?

Siv:

Sweetie please I don't want ether of you to see this but stay till the end and take the crystal to the queen she will know what to do with it.

Raydon:

As always! Be waiting in our spot tonight.

Siv: (A tear runs down her face)

I'll be there..(Turns and face the shadow) Moon Ribbon Teleport (Both Siv and the dark Shadow teleport out of the canyon)

Andromita:

Papa, where did mom go with the monster?

Raydon:

She did what she had to child (he leans in to hug his daughter as tears well up in his eyes)

Moyria:

There you showed me! What now what do you want to show me? (The room grows dark but begins to lighten dimly again in the far reaches of the solar system and the two slowly begin to freeze) No way this is where she teleported it to.

Metalia:

I will return to destroy the kingdoms.

Siv:

Yes and others will rise to stop you at every turn.

Metalia:

Foolish woman (the shadow slaps Siv and sends her far from the sun) your family will never again lay eyes upon you is that what you wish then suffer. I could have given you such great power, and all I wanted was the energy of the Magi.

Siv:

No I am not a fool. A fool is the one to take your offer in exchange for all that they truly hold dear this is why I formed it with every fiber and tear in my body I created the weapon that will destroy you, creature. Hopefully Serenity will find the strength to use it and if not her then her daughter and so on and so forth till the day my own child witnesses the day you finally fall for good goddess of Chaos. I have Faith and trust they will do what is right for the future. I have the courage to place my hope in the strength of my friends and family to move on in the right direction after I am gone.

(With that the darkness releases and Moyria finds herself in a room with a pedestal and a box on top. She walks up to the pedestal but finds the box to be empty. She sits down and starts to laugh which turns to tears. When Tuxedo Mask enters as well.)

Tuxedo Mask:

What are you doing the element is there isn't it!

Moyria: (Shaking her head no)

We're too late the element is gone we failed to get it in time. The negaverse must have gotten it before us.

(Tuxedo Mask reaches out and brings Moyria to her feet)

Tuxedo Mask:

Look I am sorry about what happened in the past.

Moyria:

I don't want to talk about it right now.

Tuxedo Mask:

No because I think I know what you saw because I saw it from my point of view. Hope's lost Gorge. I was there after all. There was a trap set up by someone we thought we could trust and to try and stop her me and my men went after her avoiding the larger threat coming, to chase a distraction. Worse yet the girl that setup the trap got away with the help of others.

Moyria:

So you weren't running away you were facing another threat.

Tuxedo Mask:

Yeah, and I think you know damn well who the girl that got away was.

Moyria:

Let me guess. My sister, Cen.

(Tuxedo Mask nods in agreement and walks Moyria out through the door of the room but pauses for a second.)

Tuxedo Mask:

Um I know how Serena feels about us working together like this but these past few months of working together proves that we should be closer as friends and comrades in arms... (Before he can finish Moyria moves in and kisses him passionately)

Moyria:

Sorry but I... I can't help but feel it will be my last chance to do that and I just wanted to ...um well lets discuss this matter back home okay over those beers.

Tuxedo Mask: (taken back)

Um yeah okay (to self) Thank god Serena didn't see that! (The two move through the door and its passageway grows dark as Sailor Moon steps out of the shadows of the room from a hiding spot)

Moon:

She kissed him? No camera no script, she kissed him.

Siv:

My daughter has many of the same tastes as you, It's kind of like myself and the queen when we were younger.

Moon:

Huh?

Siv:

Well you faced your second test. A test of restraint!

Moon:

So that was an illusion like before then!

Siv:

I am afraid not your highness, my daughter does have strong feelings for the earth prince or at least the form she has come to know. Now I normally have a third a test of trust but for you this test will not end when you leave here.

Moon:

Why what is the point the element is gone you heard Moyria!

Siv:

Really why don't you look inside yourself your highness!

(Sailor Moon looks in the box and sees it empty and starts to turn but decides to look back at the box and sees the crystal form within)

Moon:

An illusion?

Siv:

I hid it from those that would come looking for it. By placing a simple illusion that would only reappear if you had the will to look for it again.

Moon:

That was the test?

Siv:

No as I said the test will go on after you leave. I want you when you leave with the element to tell them that you couldn't find it ether. The user is not ready to master it and must face further challenges in the coming days to gain the trust needed to be able to use the element.

Moon:

Who is the one to control the element?

Siv:

Search your heart you will find your answer when we meet again.

Moon:

So I will be seeing you again?

Siv:

Yes but not till the user of the element of will is ready. Then you both can see me and I will try and answer any questions you have.

(Sailor Moon grabs the element and hides it away and starts to walk through the door but stops and turns around)

Moon:

Good because I have some big ones building like just who are you really?

Siv: (laughing)

I will be waiting to answer those questions as well my highness. Just do me one favor.

Moon:

Sure what?

Siv:

Take care of my daughter she needs your friendship to restore her trust.

Moon:

Wait you mean the element is...(The room goes dark and Sailor Moon is launched out of the room and into the large hall) hers? ...Huh I'm outside.

Luna:

Sailor Moon it's a disaster!

Moon:

What are you talking about?

Renee:

The element it wasn't in there. Tuxedo Mask and Moyria made it to the end and couldn't find it.

Moyria:

The negaverse must have gotten to it first damn it.

Tuxedo Mask:

Calm down Moyria!

Venus:

Looks like then that we failed to get another.

Moon:

No... (Recalls Siv's words) maybe it was taken from here long ago.

Mercury:

We can only hope.

Mars:

Yeah

Jupiter:

Well Renee you think you can transform again to take us back?

Renee:

I will try

(The scene changes to later that afternoon as Akito storms out of the apartment in a fury over Darien and Moyria missing all day)

Moyria:

Guess the honeymoon period is over since the interview with the scouts.

Darien:

Our only saving grace is you telling him we needed some time alone together to get closer for our roles. (Darien thinks about his words and blushes slightly) Guess it wasn't much of a lie after that kiss up at the ruins.

Moyria:

Yeah well I meant what I said. I can kiss your lips countless times Darien but I know where your heart belongs. Now about the first illusion you saw?

Darien:

Oh no I went first explaining the third one.

Moyria:

Yeah well I got us out of the second one and did take the lead on the kiss afterwards.

Darien:

Yeah maybe it would be best if we kept it to ourselves. We could use to have some secrets between each other. Till then let's just have a beer and be thankful we made it through another day.

Moyria:

Sounds good (Darien pulls out two bottles and hands one to Moyria) to a new friendship.

Darien:

No to restored ones, and lets all try to work as a great team.

(The two cling their bottles as the scene fades to dark, when a voice calls out)

Voice:

I am coming back to make you pay for what you did to me! Then your fears will really begin.

(Mina sits up in a cold sweat eyes open wide from her bed)

Mina:

I'm so sorry, but please don't come back, Ace.

(The Scene fades to darkness)

Preview of the Next Episode:

Serena:

No way they are producing a movie version of Sailor Moon. When does the camera crew arrive?

Amy:

Serena they are making a movie not a documentary.

Lita:

Hey this magazine says they have a local talent in mind for the film stars.

Circuit:

Things go crazy for the girls when Mina lands a role playing Sailor Moon in a movie about the Sailors. Moyria joins Mina in facing the threats of a film that is set for disaster from the get go long before Spectral shows up with his latest monster creation as an element is set to appear during the shoot. Can the girls find the element and still be able to handle remembering their lines.

Sailor Moon:

That part should be mine, I'm the real one after all.

Andormita:

Next Time: Episode 13 Lights, Camera, Danger

Mina Dressed as Sailor Moon:

See You Next time

Sailor Moon:

Hey that's my line!
