(The scene opens in the growing destruction of the Eastern Robotics Expo, a small amount of robots are still fighting Sailors Mercury, Jupiter and Venus, while Sailor Moon is face to face with the barrel of Andromita’s blaster aimed dead on her.)

Sailor Moon:

What the Heck is this all about, I never seen you before in my life.

Andromita:

Yeah I’m sure, Princess. Let’s run down the facts shall we. Fact the Moon Kingdom is no more.

Sailor Moon:

Yes but I didn’t do...

Andromita:

Fact in order for the people of the Moon Kingdom members to be revived the only power known by Central's data recorded is the Silver Crystal.

Sailor Moon:

True but...

Andromita:

Fact only two people possess the power to use the crystal, and only one of them is left standing today.

Sailor Moon:

(A little ticked off) Hey now I'm trying to

Andromita:

Fact the one person who survives has somehow damaged the crystal beyond its power and now stands before me, and for what. What price did you offer for the lives of countless people?

Sailor Moon:

(With a very frustrated look on her face) HEY LISTEN FOR ONCE. I didn't do those things. Queen Serenity used the crystal.

Andromita:

Even afraid to answer for your actions, your pathetic, I don't see how you can live with yourself. But don't worry I will end that here and now.

(Andromita begins to pull the trigger only to have the blaster knocked off course as a single rose strikes the ground. A very pissed off Andromita turns and sees Tuxedo Mask perched on a large plastic sculpture of a Giant robot for a popular anime series.)

Tuxedo Mask:

You're not listening to what she has to say. That is no way to disrespect someone you sure have determined to kill.

Sailor Moon:

(With eyes of passion for Tuxedo Mask) It's been a long time Tuxedo Mask thank you for the save as always.

Tuxedo Mask:

Careful Sailor Moon, this one is not like any monster we faced before.

Sailor Mercury:

I hate to ruin your battle guys but looks like the monster is still....

(Andromita slides, grabbing a better angle to shoot a blast at Tuxedo Mask. But a sudden blast of lighting striking the roof of the expo causes her attention to be draw to an earlier problem. As the orb like Droid floats above from the place Andromita's earlier blast sent him flying)

Sailor Mercury:

Alive. Interesting is this monster living or machine?

Andromita:

Damn it. Failed to destroy the damn thing, the first time I shot it.

Tuxedo Mask:

Sailor Moon you deal with the Monster, I will hold off our gun toting guest.

Sailor Mercury:

Sailor Moon try to aim for the Blast area, it looks to show a weakness in that spot

Andromita:

Sorry Masked man but I have a princess to kill and need to get back on the trail of Geo.
(Shoots a blast, only to have Tuxedo Mask Dodge)

Tuxedo Mask:

Geo? Who is Geo? (Moves in close swinging his cane at her, she blocks with her boot kicking the staff back. Tuxedo holds on to it)

Andromita:

If you don't know then there is no reason for you worry about him because he is my prey not yours or the Guardians. Got me! (Tries taking a swing a chop with the butt of the blaster only to be blocked by the cane. The two seem to be in this testing each others Strength. While this is going on Jupiter prepares for an attack)

Sailor Jupiter:

Jupiter Oak Evolution (spraying a collection of robots with the blast)

Tuxedo Mask:

Why do you care so much to want to kill Sailor Moon?

Andromita:

My Father was tricked by the Negaverse and I escaped in hope to stop the Kingdom from falling. It was a promise I made to my father. My last promise to him. But because of the princess's actions the lives of many suffered at her cowardice. It's a disgrace of honor my Father fought and died for. (Tuxedo Mask appears to be losing to Andromita in the fight on those words, but he bounces back knocking her chop and almost pushing her back some.)

Tuxedo Mask:

I'm sorry for your loss but your wrong what happened wasn't her fault.

Andromita:

How do you know, the only survivors that remember are the Princess court and ... You... you vile Earthling. You corrupted the court got them to trust your kind with your honey words, you're the Earth, Prince Endymion.

Tuxedo Mask:

I do recall going by that name at that time yes. (Adromita puts her blaster in the holster and takes a new stance.) You're listening to reason it's good to...

Andromita:

Solar Flare (Andromita strikes the ground forcefully with her fists sending a blast of energy that sends Tuxedo Mask flying back) I will not hold back anymore now I know your true form, Corruptor.

(Sailor Mercury, Jupiter and Venus all stop in shock at what just happened, Sailor Moon would stop but has been to distracted with the fight of Andromita and Tuxedo Mask to while trying to dodge lighting strikes from Droid)

All the Sailors:

Tuxedo Mask

Tuxedo Mask:

I'm alright girls stop the monster. (Tuxedo works to get back on his feet) So you're going to shoot me now.

Andromita:

The blaster is for monsters and cowards. I want the dignity of tearing you apart with my own hands.

Tuxedo Mask:

Well not to sound like a brute but I don't think I want to face you bare knuckle. So I think I will keep up with my weapons (Tuxedo tosses a barrage of roses at Andromita while she flips about avoiding them) Your quick.

Andromita:

And you fight like all humans, afraid to get your hands dirty, Prince.
(Dashes in throwing a punch but Tuxedo Mask dodges and she continues forward smashing a sizeable dent into a metal display stand.)

Tuxedo Mask:

You have us at a disadvantage, you know all about us, yet we don't know you.

Andromita:

I am your destruction that is all you need to know.
(Andromita grabs the smashed stand lifts it and hurls it at Tuxedo Mask who is unable to dodge when a cry is called out from nearby)

Sailor Moon:

Silver Moon Crystal Power (A blast of silver light hits the stand and it explodes knock both Andromita and Tuxedo Mask to the ground. As a very upset Sailor Moon stands with a strong face ready to attack again if Andromita forces her.) I will not let you harm my beloved Tuxedo Mask.

Sailor Venus:

Umm Sailor Moon I don't want to upset you or nothing but the Enemy is still attacking here!

(Andromita reaches for her blaster, and like wise Sailor Moon prepares to attack again)

Sailor Moon:

Silver Moon Crystal ...

(Andromita Blasts Droid again this time its form explodes and the robots come to an instant halt, Andromita returns the blaster to its holster, and gets to her feet)

Andromita:

I have misjudged you Sailor Moon. You do have some courage after all. But that doesn't excuse your actions, but that will have to be another time when the odds are less in your favor. I will kill you Sailor Moon I promises you that. (Andromita hits her Armlet) Circuit Activate Star Bust. (The room is engulfed in a massive bright flash blinding the girls and Tuxedo Mask. When the light fades Andormita is gone and the Sailors stand befuddled at what just went on.)

Sailor Moon:

Tuxedo Mask are you okay?

Tuxedo Mask:

Yes just had my pride hurt a bit.

Sailor Moon:

Who was that girl?

Sailor Mercury:

Who knows?

Sailor Venus:

Who wants to know? She was rude and worse yet homicidal.

Tuxedo Mask:

(Raising to his feet) She knows us, or at least the past us. I think it be a good idea for a group brain storm, But if you might have to count me out as this mess just added to my hours I will be here while Sayrun wants to cover things.

Sailor Moon:

(Moves in close waving a finger at him) Take care and don't let me catch that new girl getting close to you.

Tuxedo Mask:

(Leans in grabbing her and kissing her on the lips) I told you no one will take me from you.

Sailor Venus:

See why can't we find that, Jupiter.

Sailor Jupiter:

Hey I would just settle for one night out with any guy. You know how long it's been.

Sailor Mercury:

We better move guys the authorities will be here soon, I suggest we call each other to set a time and place to meet up, and we need to fill, Luna, Artemis and Mars in on what happened here. (Sailor Moon stares at Mercury) What? What is wrong Sailor Moon?

Sailor Moon:

You still sound as bad as Goblin King Yamazaki.

Tuxedo Mask:

Goblin King?

Sailor Moon:

I'll fill you in on his dark reign later.

(The scene changes to moments later outside near the JSNN news van. Darien comes running as a perturbed Sayrun and calmly packing Moyria stand near by.)

Darien:

Sorry I went to the bathroom when all this mess started and I got sent to the south end of the building in the evacuation.

Sayrun:

(Makeup flaking at her angry face cracking through the layer she recently placed on.) Really cause Ms. Gatent also went that way even though she was right behind me. Thank god for me still having a van key to grab the spare camera to film some of the action outside from here.

Darien:

Oh yeah I thought I saw you at the area on the right.

Moyria:

Uh yeah you where in the group on the right no wonder why I beat you back.

Sayrun:

By the way camera girl did you get the scrap of the old camera?

Moyria:

Uh no sorry (Moyria eyes her backpack that seems to hold a greater amount then it did before the incident.)

Sayrun:

Great now it's most likely buried and we can't get to it so that's a camera coming out of my paycheck just great.

Moyria:

(Shrugging her shoulders) I am sorry

Sayrun:

It can't be helped; you can make up for it shooting the next few hours with me and Darien. (Moyria starts to say something but is stopped as Sayrun continues) If you prove yourself I'm sure the boss can't help but see you have some worth at least unlike dedicate family men like that traitor Shu Taka. Man I hate children. Well you have to get things ready we go in five.

(Later and further the girls are walking back to get on a bus)

Serena:

Oh man this sucks, things are bad enough to have monsters after me, but now I have some homicidal nut case determined to blow my head off, for no good reason.

Amy:

I'm sure the girl has some good reason, but what she went on about sounded odd. We need to ask Artemis and Luna what they know of this.

Mina:

Something feels odd about her though, she is not like the regular bunch of bad guys.

Lita:

I just wished I wasn't as busy with all those robots. I would have like to try her at hand to hand, she looked tough.

Mina:

There you go again willing to take on people to test their strength. It's that same reason you lost to Haru the last time you two fought.

Lita:

Yeah well Haru is a tough one, I wonder if she could handle that girl.

Serena:

Bet you Haru would be more then willing to take that challenge.

Mina:

When is she not? (The girls all laugh with Mina on that statement) But seriously Serena what was that all about in the end. I don't think I ever seen you that mad.

Lita:

Come to think it nether have I how about you Amy.

Amy:

No never.

Serena:

Her fight with Darien had me worried about him.

Lita:

Yeah we get that, but Silver Moon is your strongest attack and you almost used it twice in a row against her. Why?

Serena:

Something about that girl makes my blood boil. Not to mention she wants to kill me over something I didn't even do. Seriously she's psycho.

(The scene fades as the bus arrives. Hours pass into night and a tired Darien, and Sayrun drive with Moyria back to the News studio to park the van and call it a night.)

Darien:

We're here. I will unpack, Moyria you should go with Sayrun to see the producer about paying you for your help today.

Moyria:

Alright, lead the way Ms Calvin.

(Moments later Sayrun and Moyria arrive to a near dark news room an balding blond but mostly grey haired man with glasses sits behind a desk reading over figures. Sayrun knocks on the door.)

Man: (Mr Reyhard)

Ah Sayrun good work today.

Sayrun:

Couldn't have done most of it with out our accomplished camera operator here today. (slapping Moyria on the back pushing her forward into Reyhard's office) This girl was a life saver; literally she saved my life form some electrical bolt so as tired as I am for covering a 14 hour shift. I won't leave your office till you hire this girl.

Reyhard:

Really, tell me young miss have you worked a camera before today.

Moyria:

No sir

Reyhard:

Well that settles it Sayrun I mean you may thank her and all, and she may have done some good work today but we need people with experience. (Pulls out a pad from his desk writes on it and hands a slip to Moyria) Here this is thanks for your work today but I'm afraid I need some one that can handle stressful situations with experience.

Sayrun:

7500 yen for saving my life, and your top news story, seriously. Give the girl a job already.

Moyria:

Um excuse me but I have been in far more stressful situations sir.

Reyhard:

Shopping mall super sales don't count.

Moyria:

No sir I am ... a was a military officer.

Reyhard:

(Laughs) For the JDF no doubt they barely see any action other than rescue mission.

Moyria:

No not them um ...

Sayrun:

The girl is foreign like you and me. Her name is Gatent.

Reyhard:

That's worse, it's French.

Sayrun:

Come on I bet the girl doesn't even have a place to go I mean just look at how she is dressed, she can't even get proper fitting clothing.

Reyhard:

(Sigh) Don't make me regret this Sayrun. Very well if you can provide your paper work and a copy of your resume to HR tomorrow, then I think I could hire you on as assistant camera operator, for 60,000 yen a month.

Moyria:

(Has a bright expression hit her face.) Really thank....

Sayrun:

Hold it girl don't let this man fleece you. That's 20,000 less than the average.

Reyhard:

The girl has no experience with camera work. (Sayrun slams her hand on the desk giving Reyhard a cold stare that has him curl back some.) Fine 90,000 That is 10,000 above the average you happy Sayrun.

Sayrun:

Very much so. Now Moyria you can celebrate.

Reyhard:

She doesn't have the job yet I need her paper work. I'm not about to piss off the government by hiring an illegal immigrant here. Paper work by 5 pm tomorrow in HR understands.

Moyria:

Yes sir perfectly.

Sayrun:

Welcome aboard girl. Now let's get a beer to celebrate, where is that intern of mine?

(The scene change to Serena's Room where she is sitting at her desk in her room working on homework or as Luna spies more doodling.)

Serena:

It's totally insane Luna I'm telling you.

Luna:

I can see from what you tell me things sound serious, both a monster attack and an attack from this mystery girl.

Serena:

Make matters worse the monster claimed to be part of the Negaverse. I mean didn't I completely destroy them all with Beryl 3 years ago.

Luna:

Well the Negaverse was the power to destroy the Moon kingdom and they did it with trickery so it wouldn't be unheard of if some small fraction is still out there.

Serena:

Hey that girl said something similar to that.

Luna:

Like what

Serena:

Something, about how Darien, tricked the Moon kingdom. By dropping its defenses or something like that.

Luna:

Did you catch her name?

Serena:

She didn't give it. ... But wait didn't the monster identify her... Yeah it was something like Amoeba.

Luna:

I some how don't think a girl would be named after a single cell organism.

Serena:

A what?

Luna:

(Shocked look) Seriously do you do any studying at all! (Regains composure) Any way when did you all agree to discuss this matter?

Serena:

Amy said we could fit some time in tomorrow since its Saturday, at the temple. She even got a hold of Michiru and got her and Haru to agree to show up. I talked to Darien and he will try to get there as well.

Luna:

Good till then I will look into this Amoeba girl and the Negaverse see if I can find a connection with the fall of the Moon Kingdom. Now I suggest a far greater task for you for now.

Serena:

What's that?

Luna:

(Plopping down a Biology text book) you study harder in this and learn what a real Amoeba is.

Serena:

Awe this is because I bought you that discount cat food isn't it?

Luna:

No but your not helping you case any more with that statement.

(The Scene changes to a small bar where a drunken Sayrun tries to incise Moyria and Darien into joining her. But she quickly passes out. At the table with a groan from the bar tender)

Bartender:

Darien did Sayrun pass out again.

Darien:

Looks like it do you want us to take her home.

Bartender:

Nah let her sleep it off. I will take her home she lives near by any way.

Darien:

So what about you Moyria? Do you live near here?

Moyria:

(Shyly curls up her face hiding it from Darien's view) I just arrived in town yesterday, all I own is in that bag.

Darien:

Guess it can't be helped. You can crash at my place tonight. Then I can help you find a place.

Moyria:

Th..thanks (hiding a shy blush) your really a kind person. (Moyria fumbles around in her pocket and pulls out the Circuit smart phone. Looks at it and sighs)

Darien:

That's a fancy phone. Never would have thought you could afford that model.

Moyria:

I kinda just picked it up recently, but its useless not much more battery life.

Darien:

Well you need to just recharge it. Didn't you get an adapter for it? (Moyria shakes her head no) Hmm I think I have the same kind of charger at home you can use mine to charge it. Then while we are out we can get you a new charger. Can't afford to miss important calls after all miss assistant camera man.

Moyria:

Um Darien...Do you like me or something.

Darien:

Wow you're upfront about that.

Moyria:

Its just I never really had any friends in the past and you're being so nice to me.

Darien:

Well as a friend and a coworker sure. But I'm doing these things because I believe we all need to look out for each other when they are in need. Like you I didn't have many friends growing up and my parents died when I was young. How about you?

Moyria:

My Mother died when I was young and for a long time it was just my father and me. But he died recently. I have a sister but she left a few years back when she didn't see eye to eye with father. Mom was the only thing holding our broken family together I guess.

Darien:

Well maybe we should head on to my place, oh and a fair warning never let my girl friend hear I let you stay over. She gets pretty jealous easily.

Moyria:

So you have a girlfriend.

Darien:

Yeah, her name is Serena, she may just be a high school girl right now but she makes me laugh and that's what I like about her. (Moyria's earlier blushing fades and a frown of disappointment hits her face but she tries to hide it from Darien's notice.)

Moyria:

(To self) Damn wish I could have one thing to look forward towards in this messed up world.

(The scene fades as the two walk towards Darien's apartment; it shifts to outside the Game Center Crown as Luna sneaks in soon followed by Artemis)

Luna:

Mina, fill you in as well

Artemis:

With the best the flake could

Luna:

Try squeezing info from Serena sometime you will come crawling back to Mina. Any way why are we here? I thought you where the one I talked with through the game system.

Artemis:

Yeah well that's true but I still hid Central's data in here and since we need the info I thought I would look into it.

Luna:

Tell me when was the last time you used the system?

Artemis:

I use it all the time from Mina's laptop but here it's been a while.

Luna:

Did you ever update the info on the Moon Kingdom that we discovered after the girls finally all got together?

Artemis:

I think so why?

Luna:

Something Serena said that both the monster and the girl said about being betrayed and the dropping of the Kingdom's Defenses.

Artemis:

What the defense were down when the Negaverse attacked weren't they.

Luna:

Yes and in the past I thought they just meant the magical defenses cause Prince Endymion but that wasn't all the defenses of the Kingdom was it?

Artemis:

Hmm what do you mean?

Luna:

There was an active military force on the Moon Kingdom yet when attacked they where not there. Why?

Artemis:

That's right the Admiral's men. You think the girl has a connection to them.

Luna:

It's possible.

Artemis:

Then let's go in and confirm it with Central.

Luna:

About that you do know the Sailor V game broke and they tossed it two years ago right.

Artemis:

Um well then there is only one solution left!

Luna:

(Giving him a look of not being impressed) Let me guess we check in on the girls laptops.

Artemis:

Yeah, but first you want to check out the Chinese food place's dumpster for some left over General Tso's

Luna:

You're on.

(The scene changes to morning at Darien's apartment. Moyria grabs Circuit and activates it. While Darien is still sleeping)

Circuit:

Good Morning Mistress... Power source have reached maximum use.

Moyria:

Good to hear Circuit. Now I need you to set me up with some false Identification for Moyria Andi Gatent, she needs to have military experience but not with the Military of this country, Oh they also think I a foreigner so include those papers as well. I need a false past to keep searching of Sailor Moon and Geo.

Circuit:

Working, I will have documents ready for you in a moment.

Moyria:

Oh yeah don't make me French ether the guy hiring me hates those people.

Circuit:

Understood, but Gatent is a French name. I will use my records to link you to a French established country.

Moyria:

It's hard to get use to this new earth. The earth of my past just accepted a person's word they have all become cowards and hide behind strange devices. And ignore the true issues of the world. (Moyria empties the contents of her backpack to see what she had gathered the day before. In it is some broken robot parts and the damaged TV camera. Also included in the electronics is the smart phone which Circuit currently operates from. A collection of paper bills and coins form the waitress that first saw her throwing her tips to flee Andromita who openly was carrying a gun. And finally her gun itself and uniform.

She grabs the uniform and rubs the embroidered logo of her ship, a tilting crescent moon with a circle in the moons crescent. She thinks back to her father and what he told her of the symbol.)

Andromita (Young girl):

Papa, why does the ship have that symbol, and not the one that Queen Serenity has?

Raydon:

This symbol my dear is the symbol of our unit. The moon represents our home Kingdom. You see those that are blessed with the crescent as the queen has are members of her court; it's worn by the Queen's loyal guardians as well. It's a symbol to show they will always stand by her. With it tilted it shows while we follow the orders of the Queen. The circle in the crescents arc stands marks the standing light in the darkness. As the Moon Kingdoms defense force we must seek to resolve the issues with out disrupting the peace of the Moon Kingdom.

Andromita:

I don't quite get it papa.

Raydon:

(Laughs) It's like how when your mother and I put you to sleep we keep the door open.

Andromita:

To protect me, from the Boogie-man so he wont get me. But I'm not afraid of him.

Raydon:

(Laughing) Yes, like that. We keep the door open to keep watch over you, but within you, is your own light, a will and desire to stand on your own. That is what this symbol means. It's the symbol of unity of all in one. It is the symbol of courage.

(The flashback fades back to Moyria letting out a tear looking at the symbol.)

Moyria:

Father I am lost, but my courage will show me through. I can't believe the princess could fear such courage in the past. But I know as it stands she can not be trusted. None of the Guardians can.

Circuit:

Mistress the identification is done preparing to transfer (Light fills the room and a collection of papers along with a little blue book flop to the ground) I even took liberty and created a resume for you to seek employment with.

Moyria:

Thank you Circuit, go into stand by.

Circuit:

Yes Mistress. (Circuit shuts off and Moyria repacks everything leaving out the letters and Money, as Darien walks into the room yawning)

Darien:

Up early, don't you ever sleep?

Moyria:

I'm a light sleeper.

Darien:

You must also be pretty excited as well. Look I need to meet up with some friends briefly in a few (see Moyria has some cash) Why not take that money and the check Mr. Reyhard gave you and get some cloths at least. You can check out the mall near where I have to meet the friends. I will only be a little while.

Moyria:

So this is money? (Holding the cash)

Darien:

Looks like at least 16000 yen. You should at least be able to get a new set of cloths that fit you with that. That and that check should also get you a place to rent but it would have to be outside of the main area of Tokyo. Hmm maybe we can find you a place that will take the check as a down payment. Any idea on how much they are going to pay you a month

Moyria:

90,000 a month

Darien:

(Shocked) 90,000 wow for an assistants job.

Moyria:

Ms. Calvin said it's about right for someone like me.

Darien:

Maybe an assistant producer or director, I think Ms. Calvin is expecting good things from you to convince Mr Reyhard to give you that much. Tell you what. I will ask the building Manager of this place if he has any openings for you. My rent is about 70,000 a month here, but he is a good friend of my Uncle so I might be able to get you a good deal. We can go see him when we get back okay.

Moyria:

Alright.

(The scene changes to later that day, at the temple. Lita, has already arrived and is dress in a work out uniform. Rei is also there in her temple garb. They wave at Serena, Amy and Mina. Mina and Serena are each carrying Luna and Artemis, soon after a car zooms up to the stairs and parks and out step Haru is a sports coat and Michiru in a breezy dress.)

Amy:

Looks like we all are here.

Serena:

Darien isn't (Looks around)

Luna:

Which is more important? Seeing Darien, or saving your neck.

Serena:

That is simple Luna, Both are equally important.

Haru:

We didn't come here for chit chat Serena. You guys said there was a serious threat.

Luna:

Yes Artemis and I looked into the information you provided us but it's still hard to quite get a full grip on all this.

Rei:

I don't see why I can name many people that want Meatball dead.

Michiru:

Yes Amy told me about the girl is she part of this alien attack on the Expo.

Lita:

Its odd but if she is, and then her boss will be super pissed at her for blasting the monster.

Haru:

She killed the monster with some kind of attack.

Amy:

No she shot it with a laser gun of sorts. But she does have special abilities; she did something to send Tuxedo mask flying.

Lita:

And she looks to be super strong. She went toe to toe with Tuxedo Mask and barely blinked and that was before she got serious with him.

Mina:

The girl has a major killer vibe about her.

Artemis:

From what we could gather from Centrals data, we suspect her to be connected to the Moon Kingdom's Defense Unit.

(Michiru and Haru look at each other in questioning glances, the others stand completely lost)

Haru:

Do you know them?

Michiru:

Something about the name sticks with me. I seem to remember that there was a group of soldiers that the Moon kingdom used to defend itself from all areas in the solar system. A force that would act in the name of peace, to show that peace they didn't have a planetary guardian but instead were run by a man that the Queen held in high regard.

Luna:

Since they were an outside force we didn't have access to their records but if it's true, and she is a former member, then why just her?

Artemis:

And why would someone set to protect the Moon Kingdom blame Sailor Moon for destroying it.

(Darien walks up)

Darien:

She blames Sailor Moon for the death of all people of the Moon Kingdom.

Serena:

(Squealing in glee runs and hugs Darien) DARIEN, my love it's so nice you could join us. Hey what do you mean she blames me for the people death?

Darien:

Sorry but it's what she said. That and she, feels I was the one to corrupt the princess to abandon her people and lead the Negaverse to destroy the Moon Kingdom.

Luna:

So that's it.

Serena:

What is it?

Amy:

Yeah sorry but I was there, and I don't get it ether.

Artemis:

When the Negaverse attacked they used the Earth Kingdom as pawns to bring forth its destruction. If she didn't know it was Beryl's doing and that Queen Serenity Sealed all of you away to be reborn then in her eyes....

Rei:

We all betrayed her. Is that right?

Michiru:

More the Princess did.

Serena:

Not you too, Michiru!

Michiru:

No, I mean if only the Queen or Princess could use the crystal, and the only survivors she finds is us and Sailor Moon in possession of the crystal then from her perspective. You betrayed the Moon Kingdom by taking the Crystal and running so to speak.

Mina:

We tried to tell her but the girl wouldn't listen. She's stubborn and cold hearted more so then you two (Pointing and Haru and Michiru)

Haru:

From what you say I'd like to try my hand facing her.

Serena:

I'll put you on speed dial and call you next time she shows up.

Luna:

The girl isn't the only issue. Amy you said you wanted to look into the monster yourself what did you find.

Amy:

Its odd, it looks like a robot in all sense of the word but its sentient and further study I did last night shows it may be actually a living creature that mimics robotic qualities, other then that I found no evidence of it having any thing to do with the Negaverse.

Mina:

But it said it was part of it.

Amy:

Yes but all monsters of the Negaverse where blasted to dust in the past, this ones body survived mostly simply because the girl shot it. And will it used electricity it didn't actually try to collect energy form anyone, it more tried to control the robots of the expo.

Serena:

Guess it wanted to make friends of its own kind.

Rei:

Amy just said it wasn't a robot, dimwit.

Serena:

What's with you jealous we didn't invite you?

Amy:

(coughs to return attention to her) I think it was a recruitment effort.

Serena:

SEE REI he was making friends

Mina:

You mean that he was trying to build an army.

Rei:

NOT FRIENDS MINIONS, DUNCE.

Haru:

So we have on one hand an enemy in the shadows out holding monster job recruitment and on the other a former ally bent on our destruction.

Mina:

Thank god they are enemies.

Luna:

Hey Lita, Amy, Darien, Serena said the monster identified the girl by name.

Serena:

Yeah and I told you the name.

Amy, Lita, and Darien:

It was Andromita

Luna:

Amoeba indeed Serena

Mina:

I thought it was Elita, I mean it makes sense the way she fought.

Artemis:

(With a look of disappointment) Looked it up no one ever called themselves that Mina, EVER.

Luna:

Andromita is a possibility, we need to look further into her, for now we all need to be on high alert to when she is involved and keep an eye out on any unusual monster activity. So I suggest we keep each other in touch for the next 72 hours. Amy, keep looking into that monster and if you find anything out let us know.

Amy:

Okay Luna.

Luna:

That is all for now.

Haru:

Very well, hey Michiru lets grab some lunch.

Michiru:

Okay but it's my choice this time.

(Haru and Michiru had back to Haru's car and speed off down the road)

Serena:

Darien since I'm off and you are off lets go on a date.

Darien:

Um sorry but I kinda set plans for today.

Serena:

You said last night you had no plans.

Darien:

(Looking nervous) Yeah um something came up and I have to help a friend find a new place.

Serena:

This friend wouldn't happen to be that new girl at work.

Darien:

(Very Nervous) Well um ... not really ...um... (sigh) yes, I kind of promised I would help her get a place, she is out shopping at the mall for some new cloths.

Lita:

I think we should get out of here before the eruption hits. Better get ready for my class.

Mina:

Amy you up for some shopping

Amy:

Sure.

Rei:

(Acting like she hears something in the distance) What's that grandpa you need help cleaning? I'm on my way there.

(Luna and Artemis Join Amy and Mina headed down the stairs of the temple, while Serena goes red in the face.)

Serena:

And how did you meet up with her at to find out about this.

Darien:

We kinda ran into each other this morning.

Serena:

YOU LET HER STAY OVER DIDN'T YOU!

Darien:

Uh yes but she stayed in the living Room.

Serena:

YOU DON'T LET ME STAY OVER YET YOU LET A COMPLETE STRANGER SPEND THE NIGHT.

(The scene fades with the girls fleeing the area in shock at Serena's anger. Meanwhile at in a dark hideaway of the world Geo looks over the room for something)

Geo:

Damn Droid failed to get me either the toys or energy. (Geo snaps his fingers and a ball of light illuminates the room as the ruins of Beryl's former base.) But I have to thank that worthless vessel Beryl for her temper. She left me a nice gift in the form of several minions. (The light illuminates a frozen body in stone. Then the light hits several more bodies that also have been frozen.) But still the Guardians of the Moon are far stronger, then when she face her, what do you think my queen, shall we improve on Beryl's past mistakes.

(A dark laugh is made from the darkness)

Geo:

Then I think a little surgery is in order. (Laughs Manically), Spectral, Iris get to work.

(Two figures one man and one woman appear out of the darkness, the man clean cut with his hair tied back, the woman is not in the standard Negaverse uniform but in a fancy punk-Goth take on it, her pink and green highlight hair formed in curls.)

Spectral (Man), Iris (Woman):

Yes My lord.

Geo:

We have allot of work to see the return and rise of Queen Metalia.

(The darkness shifts and eyes glow while an evil smile cracks from the shadows. The Scene changes to Moyria with a small bag of cloths walking the mall)

Moyria:

What a strange place indeed huh Circuit. (Moyria looks at display of lighted fans swirling lights along its blade spelling messages)

Circuit:

Primitive mistress, yet an interesting source of goods for sale. But my searching this world's information network shows much of the stuff here is also available at this body of water that I can't locate called E-bay and another located in a South Western river basin. Quite an amassing place this world is indeed.

(loud talking comes from the entrance of the mall)

Serena:

I AM NOT FINISHED CHEWING YOU OUT MISTER.

Circuit:

Look Mistress it must be some sort of mating ritual. Were the female devours the male after mating with him.

Moyria:

No Circuit something tells me I just got Darien's girlfriend mad with me. Switch to stand by okay.

Circuit:

Yes mistress but I will keep active I wish to study this activity more.

Darien:

Uh Sorry about this Moyria, But Serena wouldn't let me go with out her when she got me to talk.

Moyria:

So she uses torture on you how cruel.

Serena:

Listen here Missy you may be older then me but Darien is my man, I'm not about to let you take him you got me sister.

Moyria:

Wouldn't dream of it, you look like an army of one and I don't want to fight you for him so I surrender he's yours.

(Serena calms down and sticks out her hand to shake)

Serena:

Serena Tsukino

Moyria:

Moyria Gatent, nice to meet you Serena

(The two shake hands and Darien let's out a sigh of relief. The scene goes black)

Preview of Next Episode:

Moyria:

Okay Circuit we have all the parts we need its time get your full body up and running.

Circuit:

I finally get a body of my own and am free to explore the world for information, but a when I find myself being spotted by Amy things get a little complicated and suddenly my new body has been determined by the guardians as one of the enemy and while they fight me Andromita comes face to face with Iris who has been sent out to gather parts for the new army of Metalia.
