(The scene opens in Darien’s apartment Serena sits with her legs thrown over the back of the couch and lays backward with her head staring at the ceiling, the silver crystal in her hand. Luna and Artemis look on as Darien walks in carrying a tray of tea cups and a carton of milk. He pours the milk in two cups and sets them on a coffee table; he pours two cups of tea and places one on the table in front of Serena.)

Darien:

Drink up, it will help comfort you

Serena:

Yeah ... (Serena goes on staring at the now black crystal in her hands)

Artemis:

Luna, how long has she been like this?

Luna:

She’s been that way since Darien brought her home from their last battle 4 days ago. I’d say I’m worried but she would just turn around and do her school work and get up on time at home. I figure she’s been possessed by a competent counter part.

(Serena looks up at Luna with sad eyes, then returns to the crystal)

Darien:

She is not herself at all. What can we do?

Luna:

I have no clue Artemis have you found out any thing as to what could have happened

Artemis:

No, all I can say is I don't know what could turn the crystal black and get Serena to act this way.

Darien:

She's depressed, more so when the crystal went black according to the girls.

Luna:

Well The Sailor Stars did say that crystals derive from the life force of planets and people. Could the crystal have gone bad because of her depression?

Artemis:

It's possible. So we just need to snap her out of it to get her back right?

Darien:

It's not that easy I think. The reason she is depressed is she places the blame of all the bad that's happened to everyone up till now.

(Serena flips right side up in angry mood and drinks some of her tea)

Serena:

You three are acting like I'm not in the room with you or something.

(The three give a look of shock and then move to one of regret)

Darien:

Sorry but you just seem so out of it. What do you need to feel back to normal?

Serena:

I don't know?

Luna:

What do you mean you don't know?

Serena:

I mean I don't know Luna! I mean am I Sailor Moon now or not. Do I even want to be her any more? If I become her who will suffer next?

Darien:

Serena you haven't done anything of the sort, you have saved lives countless times. Including each life here in this room.

Serena:

And yet people still get hurt

(She looks down into her tea stirring at it with the spoon)

Luna:

We don't want people to get hurt but if you don't continue as Sailor Moon then the Negaverse may win and hurt countless lives. Is that what you want?

(Serena puts down her cup on the table)

Serena:

I need some air.

(She gets up and places the crystal in her purse opens the door Darien and the others try to follow)

Leave me alone okay.

(She shuts the door and Darien drops to his knees on the floor.)

Darien:

We can't let this go on we are losing her.

Luna:

We have no way to save her from herself.

Artemis:

Luna you and I should keep an eye on her for her own good Darien...

Darien:

I will get in contact with all the Sailors and get them to be on alert to help her.

Luna:

Will the Outer help out?

Darien:

I will make them help. (Darien clinches a fist) I'm not making requests and I when I next see Andromita I will make her pay for causing this pain to her. (Punches the floor)

(The Scene changes to a store with Moyria and Sayrun out shopping together, As the Scene opens Moyria sneezes.)

Sayrun:

Someone's talking about you

Moyria: (Sniffs)

What?

Sayrun:

It's old Japanese saying, that when you sneeze once then some one is talking about.

Moyria:

Nothing bad I hope. Any way I get that you want me to wear better cloths but honestly I have to get some furniture in my place first. The floors getting to be a bit of pain to sleep on at night, at least a futon would help.

Sayrun:

Non sense comfort takes a back seat to fashion, wet rag. Besides you have a bonus of the shear luck of being at that junk yard when the explosion hit and catching the footage of that monster rampaging. Though it's odd that it was defeated and you didn't catch a better shot of the one fighting it. They didn't look like Sailor Moon. I guess it could be a new hero in the area.

(Moyria clinches her teeth in a fake smile to share with Sayrun)

Moyria (To Self):

Should have erased the damn recording, the money may be good but now I'm exposed.

Sayrun:

Look at this

(Moyria jumps from her loss of concentration)

Moyria:

I didn't...

Sayrun:

You didn't what?

(Moyria looks at a monitor in the store displaying an on exhibit at a museum.)

Moyria:

I didn't know how good that color matches you um hat.

Sayrun:

My hat?

Moyria:

Uh yeah... your hat.

(The Monitor changes to a stone column with fancy decoration and a crystal shard stuck inside)

Sayrun:

I have a lot to teach you wet rag.

Moyria:

Yeah I'm sure you do

Moyria (To Self):

That's a Moon crystal. What is it doing on earth? I need a closer look, cause that could be a problem if Geo gets his hands on it.

(Notices Sayrun waving her hands in front of her)

Sayrun:

Hello earth to Moyria. We are here to shop not gaze at old ugly stones. If you want to see stones go check out the jewelry section. I will finish gathering some of your outfits.

Moyria:

My outfits? I thought you were buying the stuff for yourself.

Sayrun:

We are here for you on our day off not me. Though you could thank me by getting me this cute top.

(Moyria looks over at a cart load of cloths.)

Moyria:

What am I a co-worker or your dress up doll, there is no way I can afford all this.

(The store clerks laugh at the two as the scene changes, to a small coffee shop with Michiru and Haruka having drinks together, Michiru sets down a tablet in front of Haruka and points at a article on the museum exhibit)

Haru:

No way is that

Michiru:

An artifact from the Moon Kingdom, but it seems this report they think it's a fragment of a lost roman civilization.

Haru:

So what do you want to go check it out? I'm not one for museums Michiru you know that I find them dull.

Michiru:

Well you will have to deal with this on your own I'm afraid. I need a closer look but I have a practice I can't miss then after that I have to pick up, Hotaru.

Haru:

Why isn't Setsuna helping out, I mean Hotaru is her responsibility isn't she, in order to keep her from having any more sudden growth spurts.

Michiru:

Well I'm picking her up from Setsuna if you must know. I was asked to baby-sit while she has some other engagement.

(Haruka coughs on her coffee)

Haru:

Other engagement you mean she finally is going out of her solitude to do something.

Michiru:

I really don't know, but if you do me this favor I might just have to reward you in the near future.

Haru:

Hmm a reward you say it couldn't hurt. (Haru's phone rings she looks at it and answers) Yeah Darien what do you want. (A paused moment) Tough luck bow tie, all of the outer are busy on other tasks, but I guess we can keep an eye out for her if something comes up.

(This time Darien is heard through the phone to be shouting and Haruka pulls the phone from her ear)

Darien (on phone):

I don't care what your doing Haru, Serena needs everyone's help that means all of us, I know you guys don't like working with the others but with out Serena the world will be serious trouble when the time comes.

(Michiru grabs the phone)

Michiru:

Okay Darien, we will keep an eye out for Serena, and contact you if something comes up till then we will be dealing with the tasks at hand, alright. (Pause) good then we're in a agreement, talk to you later. (Hangs up) You really should act nicer to people Haru. Just do the prince a favor and keep an eye out for the princess and call him if you see her wandering okay.

Haru:

Fine she is the princess after all.

Michiru: (leans in and kisses Haru)

Well then I will see you at home later.

Haru:

This reward better be worth it.

Michiru:

It will be. Don't worry. Later.

(Michiru leaves as Haru continues to drink her coffee)

Haru (to self):

Does he really think we wouldn't help Serena if she asked, guess Michiru is right maybe I am cold hearted (out loud to a waitress) can I get another but in a to go cup and bring the check please.

(The scene changes to Serena walking along the city streets alone at a distance Luna and Artemis can be seen following. As she walks up an alley, Serena is suddenly grabbed and pulled quickly in a strange door. Luna and Artemis see her vanish and run only to find an empty alleyway with no doors)

Luna:

What just happened?

Artemis:

The Negaverse?

Luna:

Do they just grab people from the street in day light and have them vanish in thin air?

Artemis:

Not usually but who knows this new enemy doesn't act the same way as the others. Besides the point we need to call Darien and let him know.

Luna:

Right!

(Meanwhile in a void of time in space)

Serena:

What the heck Setsuna you scared the hell out of me doing that?

Setsuna:

Sorry but I was asked to bring you here alone.

Serena:

Asked wait why... no by who?

Setsuna:

An old friend.

Serena:

And do I know this friend of yours

Setsuna:

You could say so. But let me open the door to better show you. Pluto Crystal Makeup

(Sailor Pluto transforms then raises her staff high)

Sailor Pluto:

Open gate of time and space.

(The time gate opens)

Sailor Pluto:

I can't follow you Serena but in void of this gateway you will meet some one who wishes to speak with you.

Serena:

But wait why would they want to speak to me.

Pluto:

It is mine duty merely to open and guard the gate, the answers you seek are inside.

Serena:

Wait what if something attacks me in there.

Pluto:

I sense but one presence in that time one that is waiting for you.

Serena:

Fine but if this ends up as a trap and I die your number 1 on my haunt list

(Serena walks into the gateway and the door closes behind her, and she is surrounded by nothing but darkness)

Serena:

Hello you kind of rudely called.

Voice:

Yes Serena it's about time we sat down and had a chat. I am Sorry I guess Pluto is getting a bit excited to use the door besides sending you my letters

Serena:

Letters... but the only letters I get are from ...

(The light hits a traditional Japanese tea table complete with food and tea and sitting on one end is Neo Queen Serenity)

Neo Queen Serenity:

Yourself right.

Serena:

Isn't it some sort of bad time thingy to have two of the same person in the same place at one time.

Neo Queen Serenity:

Is it? Hmm guess it's too late to worry about that.

Serena:

So what do you want to see me about if this is about Renee the brats doing okay?

Neo Queen Serenity:

No, while I do miss having her around. I needed to talk with you because of your current issue.

Serena:

You mean it's about the crystal. (Reaches in her pocket book pulls it out and offers it to Neo Queen Serenity) You want it. You don't have much power anymore you could maybe use it.

Neo Queen Serenity:

No, I can no longer use the power of the former silver crystal.

Serena:

Former its still the crystal it's just all black and doesn't work for me anymore.

Neo Queen Serenity:

(Pulls the crown from her head) Look at my crown Serena tell me what gem you see adorn its crest

(Serena takes the crown and looks at the gem)

Serena:

Is this a trick question it's the Silver crystal.

Neo Queen Serenity:

No I lost the power of the crystal, while the crystal holds some power it will take time for it to heal and then it will only be able to be used one time. In a time a dire need for the whole world. Till then you need a new power, a power that hasn't been used since the time we where on the Moon.

Serena:

And you're going to give me this power?

(Neo Queen Serenity shakes her head no)

Neo Queen Serenity:

I am not the one to give you this power. But it will come to you soon. From one at this time you don't yet trust. But time will come when the two of you become good friends again.

Serena:

You mean Andromita. Wait what do you mean good friends again?

Neo Queen Serenity:

Sorry Serena I can't spoil it for you.

Serena:

So wait so the gem in your crown.

Neo Queen Serenity:

It's called the Magi-stone a crystallized fragment of a powerful magical source and from a soul lost before the fall of the Moon kingdom. While not as powerful as the Silver crystal it will grant you new powers and abilities that will aid you in your battle. But before you can accept it you must cleanse your heart of the doubt you carry. So that is why you and I are here. Its time for us to have a talk, younger me.

(The scene changes to the alleyway Darien and Rei, Amy, Lita and Mina all stand around looking for a clue to Sailor Moons disappearance)

Rei:

Leave it to Serena to get kidnapped all alone in the day by the Negaverse.

Amy:

Rei we don't know if that's who did this.

Lita:

Who else would do this, guys?

Mina:

There have been reports of some thefts around here but no kidnappings.

Darien:

I don't like this. Serena is off somewhere and can do nothing to help.

Amy:

Calm down every body, we need evidence I need to transform to use the visor and see if I can find any warps in space time here. Keep a look out. Mercury Crystal Power Makeup
(Amy transforms to Sailor Mercury)

Mercury:

Okay (Pushes to release the visor over her face to do read outs) Not good guys I am detecting a warp in space time occurred here recently. All signs point the negaverse may very well be involved.

Rei:

Wait Serena's reckless that's a given but she never gives out her identity so how is it the negaverse found her and took her.

Lita:

Yeah Serena wouldn't give that info out to the enemy.

Mina:

Not on purpose

Luna:

Give up girls she could have if the price was right.

Darien:

No, something isn't right. Maybe we should explore the area and see if we find any signs of the negaverse around, and a good place would be to investigate these thefts around her.

(Mercury reverts to Amy)

Amy:

I agree we should split into teams

Artemis:

We need to keep in constant communication if you find anything suspicious report it for us all to check out okay

All:

Right lets find Serena.

(The scene changes to inside the museum and Haruka stands over looking the broken column with the Crystal shard embedded within.)

Haru (to Self):

Just as I thought ... this is dull. Plus what does Michiru think I can do to get it any way. Museums are hard to just get in and out without drawing attention. Let alone to take an item from an exhibit. (Haruka looks around) This exhibit alone looks to have 3 cameras in view and I can count on a laser sensor alarm. Motion sensors also possible in the area and alarms on windows and doors also, then there more likely is five to six guards on duty in a place like this. (Suddenly Haruka spies Moyria also looking over the area) Someone else checking out the security here? Looks like Michiru was right to have me come here if she's out to get the crystal herself.

Moyria:

No it's not what I thought after all. It is a part of the royal palace but it doesn't hold any thing special.

Haru (to self):

WHAT she knows it's a Moon Kingdom column that means this girl is the enemy. But what does she mean it's not special. (out loud) My you sure seem to know more about this stuff then I do. Can you help me out?

Moyria:

Huh. Oh sorry I was just thinking out loud. I um studied this back in High school. (To self) yeah that's a believable lie

Haru (To Self):

Bull no high school could link a ruined column to its origins of being from a palace or not. (Haruka smiles and speaks out loud) No you show you know this stuff far better then I do, tell you what you help show me around and I can treat you to dinner.

Moyria (To self):

Is this guy hitting on me? Better play along without raising suspicion. (Laughs and speaks out loud) Yeah sure I guess no problem (Stands with a embarrassed look on her face, speaks to self) CRAP what the heck I don't know anymore about this stuff just the column, no choice just need to bluff my way through this.

Haru:

Are you okay?

Moyria:

Uh yeah um well take this (points at a display of house hold items of plates, combs and utensils) these items are found in the noble house of um... uh (looks around and sees a sign with the name of a man that was part of the team) Waliski

Haru:

Really interesting, I never would have guessed the Romans moved so far north as the Baltic Sea in the world.

Moyria:

Uh yeah they where all over that part. (to self) God please let her buy it.

Haru:

Well you're the expert so who am I to disagree

(Haru leads a very nervous Moyria around the museum, as they walk out of the room the scene changes to Michiru stopping by an apartment door and knocking, no answer for a moment and then suddenly the door opens as a elementary school aged Hotaru opens the door)

Michiru:

Why hello there Hotaru, Setsuna had me come keep an eye on you today. (Looks around) Did she already leave?

Hotaru:

Left this morning

Michiru:

What this morning, then why ask me to come by now and not earlier.

Hotaru:

Suna doesn't let me cook, my body is weak and too small and then I need help with my medicine.

Michiru:

That's understandable but to leave you alone all this time.

Hotaru:

She popped in for a brief moment, she said she didn't know how late she would be but she stayed and made lunch. But she left right after.

Michiru:

What is she working on that has her out of the house so much, she isn't one to be part of the outside world much?

Hotaru:

You mean how she likes to stay shut away from the world.

Michiru:

Yeah any idea on what is so important. I was kind of hoping it was a date. I would so like to see her be more a part of this world.

Hotaru:

She said something about an important meeting of minds.

Michiru:

Minds huh? Well I guess it can't be helped so I guess I should fix dinner what does she have on hand huh?

Hotaru:

Cup Ramen

(Michiru gets a shocked look on her face.)

Michiru:

Uh okay so let's say we go to the store Hotaru, okay?

Hotaru:

Can we get pastries?

Michiru:

Uh yeah

(The Scene changes to the market district with the setting sun, Lita and Mina run into Amy and Rei.)

Lita:

Anything?

Rei:

We found a report of a crime of some parts form a hardware store a few days ago but nothing today, and defiantly no kidnappings. How bout you guys?

Mina:

Only thing we found was a lost dog.

(Suddenly a scream is heard nearby)

Amy:

That was a block from here.

Lita:

Look

(The group sees a monster that looks like a combo of an old man and a rat. Along side floating in the air with her Parasol is Iris.)

Mina:

The Negaverse... You know what that means guys

Rei:

Time to step things up

Amy:

Mercury Crystal Power Makeup

Mina:

Venus Crystal Power Makeup

Rei:

Mars Crystal Power Makeup

Lita:

Jupiter Crystal Power Makeup

(The Girls all go through their transformation sequence and stand in formation)

Mercury:

In the Name of Mercury

Venus:

Venus

Mars:

Mars

Jupiter:

And Jupiter

All four:

We will punish you

Monster [Hordrat]:

Ooh gotta collect em too

Iris:

What do we have here Hordrat looks like worthless insects out to play?

Jupiter:

Shove it dye job tell us where you took the girl

(Iris looks surprised)

Iris:

Girl? We didn't take a girl. Hordrat did you collect anyone.

(Hordrat shakes its head no)

Mars:

Like we would believe you Negacreeps

Iris:

How brash they are accusing us of such crimes.

Hordrat:

Yeah we too busy stealing to kidnap girl

Iris:

Shut up do you want to end up like your forefathers as moon dust.

(Hordrat again shakes its head no)

Mercury:

Careful guys the readings I'm getting is that monster has his power dispersed all around.

Venus:

What do you mean he's right there Mercury

Iris:

Oh well Hordrat eliminate the pests I will take back today's haul to Geo.

(Hordrat shakes his head in agreement, and Iris starts to float away with a large sack only to have the sack tear from a rose thrown at it, and several electronic devices come falling to the ground)

Tuxedo Mask:

Not so fast

Iris:

Why if it isn't the useless leftovers of Queen Beryl.

Mars:

Wait she knows about Beryl?

Tuxedo Mask:

What do you mean leftovers?

Iris:

Please don't act as if you don't know. Geo hasn't spent the last few years since he woke just letting you have your way. We aren't your average run of the mill villains we study our prey and know when to strike. NOW Hordrat (Suddenly the girls and Tuxedo Mask are swarmed with rats) We know your past Sailors and we really know yours Prince Endymond, as Dark Sanctum force's where the very ones to take down your home for Beryl to attack the Moon kingdom.

Jupiter:

I can't get all these guys off of me.

Venus:

We gotta hold it together

Mercury:

There has to be a weakness

Mars:

Hang in there guys

Tuxedo Mask:

What do you want?

Iris:

Like I am dumb enough to tell a worm like you Lord Geo's plans. Ha dream on pretty boy. (Waves her hand and the electronics float up to her) I have to report back, Hordrat kill them. (Iris floats off in the air)

Tuxedo Mask:

Damn it she got away and that was the best link to where Serena is. Now we are all trapped.

Hordrat:

Mmmm gonna eat well tonight children. Munch away.

(the girls all scream in pain, but suddenly a shout from nearby launches an attack at mars and Jupiter)

Neptune:

Neptune Deep Submerge (Neptune's attacks slams the rats off the two freeing them)
So you guys needed some help (Neptune and Saturn stand at the ready to fight)

Jupiter:

Sailor Neptune

Mars:

Sailor Saturn

Neptune:

Free your friends I will get the prince. Saturn hold back the rat guy.

Saturn:

Okay

(Saturn swings her glaive at Hordrat who goes about dodging it, While Neptune repeats her attack this time on freeing Tuxedo Mask)

Jupiter:

Jupiter Coconut Cyclone

Mars:

Burning Mandala

(The two attacks drop the rats from Mercury and Venus)

Tuxedo Mask:

Everyone okay

Mercury, Mars, Venus and Jupiter:

Yeah

Tuxedo Mask:

Good then lets waste this freak

Hordrat:

Not just yet (He jumps in the air then bursts through the ground in a quick dig, Suddenly he bursts out at Neptune and decks her sending her flying then he returns under ground.)

Jupiter:

No way come up here and fight like a ...

(Before Jupiter can finish Hordrat pops out behind her and kicks then returns underground)

Venus:

It's like a giant game of wack a mole. (Hordrat then pops up behind Venus and swings missing her) HAHa you missed me.

Mars:

Uh Venus you might want to cover your back

(Hordrat shows a small piece of cloth from where he ripped the back of Venus's costume exposing a bit of her back side to the world. Hordrat's nose bleeds a bit while Tuxedo mask's face turns red)

Venus:

Why you perverted little freak.

(Hordrat pops back down in the ground)

Mercury:

If my calculations are correct we should be able to get him by filling the holes he makes with our attacks. But we need to work together.

Jupiter, Mars, Neptune:

Right

(Each line up at one of the holes Tuxedo mask lends Venus his cape to cover her shame.)

Mercury:

Shine Aqua Illusion

Jupiter:

Supreme Thunder Dragon

Mars:

Mars Fire Snake

Neptune:

Submarine Violin Tide

(All four blast their attacks into the holes and suddenly nearby Hordrat come bursting through being blasted by the attacks)

Mercury:

Venus, Saturn, Tuxedo now's your shot.

(Tuxedo mask tosses a rose which as it flies meeting Venus's attack)

Venus:

Venus Love-me chain

(The rose and chain attach to Saturn's glaive and she swings it wrapping up Hordrat and slicing through him turning him to dust)

Mars:

Well that was eventful

Neptune:

You were lucky we were near by at the time

Tuxedo:

Any sign of Serena

Neptune:

No but calm down, if you asked nicer next time maybe we would have come earlier.

Tuxedo Mask:

Look I'm sorry it's just I'm worried someone took her and ...

(Suddenly a door appears and out steps Serena and Setsuna)

Mercury:

Pluto you took Serena?

Setsuna:

It was personal business for her eyes and ears only

Serena:

Sorry guys for getting you all to worry. (Tuxedo Mask grabs Serena and hugs her close to his chest) If I knew this would be your reaction I would have to disappear more often.

Tuxedo Mask:

Don't you dare even try!

(Sailor Moon replies with a loving hum of agreement)

Jupiter:

But wait what happened to you.

Serena:

It's kind of complicated.

(The scene changes to outside the Museum as Moyria and Haruka are walking. Suddenly the two jump away from each other)

Both:

Show your true form Negaverse scum...Huh

Haru:

Well it looks like I was wrong you must be this Andromita causing the others trouble. Well then I promised them I owed you one. Uranus Crystal Power Makeup.

Moyria:

Sailor Uranus figures, one of the royal courts guard dogs. Stardust Illumination Activate.

(Both transform into their battle moods then instantly start taking swings at each other.)

Uranus:

I can't believe you tried to convince me that crystal was fake, your planning to take it for yourself, you tried to fool me into believing you knew about it.

Andromita:

I do know about it. I know once Geo finds out about it he will come after it and harm any in his way, even if it is a useless piece of rubble. Besides you want to talk about lies how about you hitting on me to get me away from the crystal.

(While Uranus continues basic punches, Andromita starts flipping and throwing kicks at Uranus both blocking the others attacks)

Uranus:

Jupiter was right, you are a skilled fighter.

Andromita:

You should know as dad taught all of you how to fight. Of course he kept you all on the basics. While I learned a bit more Solar Flare. (Andromita's fist bursts in speed creating an explosion on the ground sending chunks of earth flying at Uranus who get pelted.)

Uranus:

I know enough to deal with you (Uranus grabs one of the stones flung at her from her attack and throws it back and follows through with a punch in the opposite side in an attempt to throw Andromita into her attack. Andromita flips and avoids both attacks but crashes back against a near by wall.) You're out of options deal with it.

Andromita:

Like I said you haven't learned a thing yet, Solar Flare (Andromita hits the wall behind her and launches herself off the wall past Uranus who is pelted again by the attack. As she moves by Andromita trips Uranus causing her to crash to the ground. Uranus turns and faces with gritted teeth at Andromita)

Uranus:

Impressive but I'm gonna enjoy pounding your face in for that.

Andromita:

Sure thing but I can't keep playing around with you have fun. (Andromita runs off as Uranus gets to her feet and tries to follow. But as she goes to face the direction Andromita ran she finds she fled.)

Uranus:

Damn she got away (looks back at the museum in the distance) I wonder if she was telling me the truth though. Guess I will have her to ask next time.

(The scene changes as Uranus walks to the museum, the scene opens to Geo's hide out as Iris postures herself before a relaxed Geo in his throne)

Iris:

I have gathered the materials you requested my Lord.

Geo:

Yet you fail to destroy any Sailors

Iris:

My Lord it was Hordrat's fault he was given instructions to destroy the pests but failed.

(Geo stands from his throne and pats Iris on the head)

Geo:

Yes he was a worthless fool of a warrior, and with the supplies phase 1 of the plan nears completion.

Iris:

(Smugly) Thank you my...

(Iris's words are halted as she is quickly lifted off the floor by the neck by Geo who face is full of fury)

Geo:

(Yelling) You have no place to speak. We lack in minions Iris, the Sailors almost match our numbers. Yet you feel like you have no place in battle, If you flee without helping the forces I provide you from now on you will find I won't be so pleasant as I am now.

(Geo Drops Iris down as she chokes for air. Meanwhile Spectral steps out of the shadows and speaks to Geo)

Spectral:

Master news on the info you wished for.

Geo:

Report

Spectral:

Phase two will require a gathering of raw elemental power, There currently stand many places we can tap into this source.

Geo:

Is that all you have for me Spectral

Spectral:

At this time for the power yes, But I have devised a plan that may aid you in our forces powers.

Geo:

Go on.

Spectral:

I have recovered some items from the former vessel's lair. Inside I found a crystal shard that seems to hold power to unlock power from targets, while humans would make a good source of fodder. I find using the shards may hold greater power on the elements we need to create a greater force.

Geo:

I don't want to risk our plans on creating new warriors...

Spectral:

(Interrupting Geo) My lord, my calculations state that we don't need the element itself for a warrior; just someone close to it. For this, I am working on a system to detect the perfect targets. Then it's just a matter of getting the target to digest the shard; they will then join our forces and aid us in gathering our targets.

Geo:

Hmm, very well. Iris will work under your guidance.

Iris:

You must be joking. Master Spectral is a useless data muncher.

Geo:

(Anger rising in his voice) And you're a useless coward, Iris. You will follow Spectral's orders and aid the warriors in collecting the elements. How many are there we need?

Spectral:

My records indicate ten total elements and they must be pure. To capture them, you will use these crystal gems. Spectral tosses a grey gem at Iris, who captures it.

Geo:

I will not accept any more cowardice, Iris. If the sailors or the girl Andromita get in the way, destroy them and bring the element to me.

Iris:

Yes, Master.

Geo:

I will be watching you two do not fail me.

(Geo walks off in the darkness)

Iris:

You foul jerk you're the one designing these weak warriors and I'm the one taking blame for their failures.

Spectral:

(Pushing up his glasses) Your words wound me witch do as your commanded the boss can always replace you but I'm not as easily replaced.

Iris:

Watch your back Data muncher one day you may just find someone stabbed you in your sleep.

(The Scene changes to Moyria walking into the apartments front door as Darien and Serena come walking by)

Moyria:

Busy day off for you Darien?

Darien:

Yeah had to search for something I though I lost but, before long I found it again.
(Serena squeezes Darien's arm closer to her) How about you?

Moyria:

Took in some sights and shopping. Is Serena okay?

Darien:

She is now. I think.

Serena:

Awe Darien.

(The scene changes to Haru walking up the road as Setsuna, Hotaru and Michiru all stand outside Setsuna's apartment)

Michiru:

How can you and Hotaru eat that stuff all the time?

Setsuna:

Something wrong with eating cup ramen, Michiru?

Michiru:

It's not healthy

Setsuna:

It's good and cheap and goes well with green Tea.

Michiru:

I will never understand why you two had to move out in the first place.

(Setsuna and Hotaru's faces turn red)

Setsuna:

I just thought maybe you and Haru wanted to be more on your own. Besides we are having fun aren't we (looking at Hotaru)

Hotaru:

It be more fun if we ate Michiru's food more. (Haru walks up pats Hotaru on the head)
Hey Haru you know how I don't like when you do that.

Haru:

Sorry Squirt.

(Michiru looks at Haru and notices the bruises and scratches)

Michiru:

Oh Haru what on earth happened to you.

Haru:

The mission was a little troubling, didn't I tell you I hated museums. Anyway ...
(Tosses the crystal at Michiru) I got it so you could say mission accomplished.

Michiru:

So the Negaverse...(Haru shakes her head no)

Haru:

Andromita

Setsuna:

She was after the crystal too?

Haru:

At first I thought so but, she left it there. Looked like she was setting a trap for the Negaverse guys but I got in the way.

(Michiru grabs on Haru's arm, Haru smiles yet winces a bit in pain)

Michiru:

Well we can't just let you look like this, Setsuna I need you to get me your first aid kit.

Setsuna:

(Looking at Hotaru) Do we have one?

Hotaru:

Um sort of but I think we only have some small Band-Aids left.

Haru:

I'm fine. Don't worry.

Michiru:

Not at all you could get sick if those wounds get infected.

Haru:

My problems are small if the person that gave me them is struggling with the forces we all have to face.

Hotaru:

Yeah we faced one of them the guardians, myself and Michiru that is.

Haru:

I missed all the fun.

Michiru:

We will talk about everything indoors where you can get some treatment and where we all will have a healthy meal.

(The scene changes as the four moves on up to the apartment. To Moyria's apartment where circuit sits batting at a pen on the floor as Moyria walks in, closes the door and throws her shoes off)

Circuit:

Mistress you look rather upset at something

Moyria:

I'm failing at keeping my cover. Uranus discovered me today.

Circuit:

Perhaps it's not a bad thing with the help of the Sailors we could easily defeat Geo's forces.

Moyria:

No. I won't work with the traitors Circuit. Geo is my prey and I will stop the sailors if they get in the way.

Circuit:

But the princess is you're ...

Moyria:

I told you I don't want to speak of the past any more Circuit. What ever stood between us in the past is gone with her actions

Circuit:

(looking sad and shamed) Yes Mistress.

Moyria:

I can't help feeling Geo is up to something I can't quite see yet and no matter what it is. It can't be good for the world; we need to make sure we have the advantage on our side.

(The scene changes to Serena looking out her bedroom window at the moon the Silver crystal on the window sill as she reflects on the words of her future self earlier in the day)

Neo Queen Serenity:

But in time you two will become good friends once again.

Serena:

Let us hope so cause right now we could use a friend.

(The scene fades to black)

Preview of Next Episode:

Serena:

All I want is a peaceful date with my boyfriend and you freaks just have to get in the way.

Sailor Moon:

Things turn from bad to worse when a date for yours truly is wrecked by Iris and some plant monster attacking the park. But that's not half as bad as having that woman also around distracting Darien from our date.

Darien:

Serena we are here on a job not a date.

Sailor Moon:

To make matters worse I still can't transform, man here I thought things were going to start looking up for me.

Andromita:

Next Time Blooming Danger...Royal Crisis is born.

Sailor Moon Says:

Luna:

Kidnapping can be a serious issue

Mina:

It's important to avoid becoming a victim by knowing your surroundings.

Amy:

It also helps to be able to signal others when danger is upon you.

Rei:

Never get in a vehicle without knowing who or why they want you in it.

Lita:

If you need to fight back then aim for weak areas of the body.

Serena:

Always shout of help.

Moyria:

Do you best to stay in areas where you can clearly be seen by many others, and keep your guard up.

Sailor Moon:

The only way to avoid a kidnapping is to do you best to not let yourself become a victim.
Sailor Moon Sez!
