Sailor Moon: Heres the buzz Sailor Moon fans. We where fighting a survivor of queen Beryl's Negaforce when an TV reporter burst in and starts ask a bazillion and one questions, Only to be captured by the monsters then this mysterious woman appeared and beat the monsters single handily. After the monsters disappeared she came after yours truly and now I have a laser cannon aimed strait at my head. this just isn't my day. oh well on with the show.

Andromita: Well, well if it isn't the traitor herself.

Sailor Moon: Hey just hold it. Who's side are you on any way?

Andromita: My Father is dead because of you

Sailor Moon: Your father, just what are you talking about?

Sailor Mars: Just who are you?

S. Mercury: She saved us? Luna could she be a Sailor Scout?

Luna: I'm not sure Mercury.

Sailor Moon: Excuse me but she's only trying to kill me!

Andromita: If you must know I am a mercenary of the war against the Negaverse. Our mission was to capture and extract information from the warrior Geo. The mission was a trap for the Negaverse to weaken our defenses. Geo used this as a chance to escape. He got to my Father and shot him down. I tried to stop him but I was trapped by the power of the Silver Millennium Crystal. The vary crystal from which the queen or princess carry, and since the queen is no where around that means you used the crystal and my fathers death is your fault. Because of you I couldn't save him. Now that you know why I am here it is time for you to die

Sailor Moon: What? Hey wait just a darn minute. I didn't.....

Andromita: Shut up! Starlight Laser Cannon!

(Energy builds up in the blaster but it quickly is knocked out of her hand and goes off missing the target when Andromita looks to see what had happened she sees the metallic figure of Curcit standing at her feet.)

Curcit: Sorry mistress but I am programmed to protect the princess. I can not allow you to destroy her.

Andromita: Out of my way Curcit or I'll make you into scrap metal

Curcit: I will have to deactivate your powers if you continue to threaten her. She is on our side of this war Andromita

Andromita: I guess I have no choice

Curcit: Good now kiss and makeup

Andromita: I will let her live for now but you better hope our paths don't cross again Cause if they do you wouldn't live to see the battles end.

(she leaps out of the building through a window on the roof and disappears)

Sailor Venus: Just what was that about?

S. Jupiter: Yeah what was she talking about Luna?

Luna: I have no idea on what that was all about. But I think I know someone who can tell us.

Sailor Mars: Who Luna?

Luna: The thing that stopped her was a Curcit unit a robotic guardian. He could tell us all we need to know.

(Outside Moyria is yelling at Curcit)

Moyria: Listen here you tin can I am here for one reason, revenge if your going to get in my way I will personally make you into a four speed blender. Any ways I told you to stay behind.

Curcit: Yes, mistress but my programming.....

Moyria: Shut up about your programming you heap of worthless bolts.

Curcit: Um.....mistress

Moyria: What is it Curcit?

Curcit: Did you not enter the building with another human?

Moyria: Ms. Calvin! She was taken by that monster I almost forgot.

(Moyria and Curcit run back into the warehouse looking for Sayrun then spies a human like form suspended from the ceiling draped in toilet paper with a little demon tossing a roll back and forth high pitch screams are coming from the figure.)

Sayrun: Help! Anyone get me down!

Moyria: Ms. Calvin?

Sayrun: Moyria, at last get me down from here will you please!

Moyria: All right hold on a second...

(We see Curcit pounce the monster and it leaves in a puff of smoke)

Moyria: Well do it quietly.

Curcit: Yes, Mistress.

(Moyria take the bag Then heads out to the van)

(Mean while at the base of the Negaverse)

Geo: Damn how could she have survived the destruction of the ship let alone how could she live after a thousand years

Iris: Sri the chances that Andromita survived the power blast of unknown origin is very unlikely

Geo: Are you saying I imagined that mercenary pain in the ass

Iris: Well sir even if she did escape she couldn't possibly lived the past 1000 years unless she was in some kind of suspended animation.

Geo: It doesn't matter. What matters is for us to get rid of and the Sailor Scouts.

Iris: May I suggest you set up a trap for them

Geo: No, not yet let them put their guard down for us. Then when they don't suspect a thing we take them

Iris: Yes sir
