(The scene opens with Moyria and Serena standing before the spirit of Raydon)

Moyria: Father your alive

Raydon: Im sorry Andromita

Moyria: What ever for?

Raydon: I have kept you in the dark all these years

Moyria: What do you .....

Raydon: It was so hard I never could get around to telling you that Moyria: .....

Raydon: I’m not your Father .

(The three remain silent as Moyria eyes grow sad and she runs off)

Raydon: Andromita wait don’t go

Serena: I don’t understand if your not her father then who are you

Raydon: My story Involves both of you I had given my othe to raise Andromita I never had the guts to tell her that I wasn’t her father Her mother went on many missions to help keep peace in the Galaxy and both her mother and sister die for that cause That is Andromita’s destiny as well to return peace to the world Once her mother died my wife and I choose to raise her but see stayed with her sister Karna who now had to keep the peace As admiral of the Moon Kingdoms forces it was my responsibility to see that they have a safe trip but it took me away from my own home and my own family.

Serena: Family.

Raydon: Yes the duty as the king was a heavy burden my daughter one of which the more I think of it I wish hadn’t taken the throne

Serena: King but that would make you ....

Raydon: You true father yes

Serena: It all make sense now...

Raydon: Please understand the love I have for you Serena

Serena: Do you think saying this changes anything you had to tell her this she trusted you and you let her down what kind of father are you I ashamed to even know your my father

(Serena Runs after Moyria and Raydon disappears mean while with Rei, Lita and Amy are just discovering their path as they stand upon a cliff face overlooking a swarm of monsters)

Lita: Where are we?

Rei: I don't know but that doesn't look like a friendly crowd below

Amy: This place is definitely not Earth or even the Moon

Rei: So where are we

Voice: you are at the original home of the Negaverse before it started its conquest to conquer the universe

Lita: The Negaverse but how are we support to learn from this

Amy: Well unlike Jedite, Nephlyte, Zoecite or Malcite, Geo is more like Beryl

Voice: Yes All of Queen Beryls Generals where once humans changed by the Negaforce all that is except Geo he and Beryl are from the same planet it is the Negaforce it self that ruled the armies not Beryl

Lita: Yeah but when we killed Beryl she had absorbed the Negaforce

Rei: True but how do we know we truly destroyed the Negaforce

Lita: What do you mean it was destroyed by the crystal we all saw it didn't we

Amy: Look down there whats going on

Lita: It looks like a sacrifice.

Rei: Yeah they probably had to take the energy from their own kind to save the Negaforce

Amy: Strange but I don't think its a sacrifice look

Lita: Thats Beryl and the one their bringing out is Geo but why

Beryl: Ah so this is the warrior chosen by the Negaforce to aid us in the battle to conquer the universe

Geo: Priestess what has happened to you why have you brought me here!

Beryl: You have been chosen, Geo. From here on in you will carry this the dark flame of the Negaforce's energy with it you ill have great power and should our glorious leader ever be destroyed your flame will return life to the Negaforce Now rise and be one with our ruler

Geo: You have changed Priestess The Negaforce is nothing more than a myth passed down by the elders

Beryl: The Negaforce has shown its power to its believers but it can only be placed into the vessel of a non believer so it has chosen you

Geo: And what if I refuse to be the living vessel for the Negaforce

Beryl : Then You will be destroyed Power of the Negaverse join with this soul sacrifice

(a dark flame flies and hits Geo as he lets out a deep scream of pain the scene fades meanwhile Mina and Artemis look on the times when they first meet)

Artemis: You remember when we first where joined but do you remember when I first talked to you

Mina: How could I forget I was sitting in my room I had just watched as a monster killed some people out at the park I had take you out for some air and then you told me that I could stop all this if I wanted and you gave me my power stick and told me what to do so I transformed and Tied my hair back and put on the mask thats when I first fought a Negaverse monster.

Artemis: Do you remember how your where so unskilled at it

Mina: Know that you mention it I do remember it was hard form me at first but something happened that helped me win something or someone but I don't remember what it was

Artemis: It is this you must discover on your own Farewell Sailor Venus

Mina: Wait where are you going

Artemis: Oh Im not the real Artemis you will see me again when you return (Artemis Vanishes and Mina soon notices thats she is back at the temple)

(Meanwhile Moyria has run strait to a time she has tried to run from for years)

Moyria: No it can't be why must I see it again why do I have to watch my sister die again

Voice: You need to face the past to grow child

Moyria: You again. Who are you? Why do you haunt me?

Voice: All will be answered soon but now you must learn.

Moyria: No I beg you anything but this I cant stand to see that monster again he nearly killed me and Centurus if it weren't for Karna using the power of life to trap the monster in the ice mountain

Voice: So you do remember it

Moyria: How could I forget that demon I watched it destroy over three planets and that was our last line of defense we where to protect the Moon Kingdom or die truing But what am I to learn from this

Voice: You must discover what was once lost but first you must tell me the name of the Demon

Moyria: The Name ??

Voice Yes the name you so gave the creature that took you sister that nearly killed you what was its name

Moyria: I don't remember.

Voice: You Lie Girl You Know The Name Now What Is It?

Moyria: Gollum

Voice: This is a warning child Gollum will return and when he does you must face him alone with you power

Moyria: But who are you

Voice: I am the darkest figure of your hatred but you will not return till you face you past

(the voice fades)

Moyria: No come back answer me you jerk who are you

(meanwhile Darien watches as the scene fades from his fight with Jedin to a dark forest later that night)

Darien: If I recall I chased Him into this forest and thats where something happened

Voice: HAHAAHa poor prince doesn't remember what happened here

Darien: You who are you

Voice: Oh come now you should know the person you stole the power from

Darien: Stole

Voice: That was my power and you took it from me I want it back give to me

Darien: No way your not getting the power I must use it to protect Serena

Voice: Your here to return what is rightfully mine now hand it over

(the voice appears from the shadows as a scraggly old man with claw like hands)

Old Man: the ring reflects different abilities of its wearer you took when I let stay with for the night

Darien: But the power has been weakened

Old Man: No you mean you exhausted its power how could you give me the ring you fool

Darien: As I recall it wasn't yours to begin with

Old Man: Guess I can't fool you boy

(in puff of smoke the old man changes into a beautiful Temptress)

Darien: Now I remember you your the one to give me the power

Temptress: Yes but now my own power weakens without the ring I can not exist and without me the ring can not exist will return it to me

Darien: But in order to help Serena and the others I need it

Temptress: Yes but without it his world could die before your life begins again My name is Ceris

Darien: Ceris isn't that the Greek name for

Ceris: For Mother Nature yes the ring helps me keep the forest alive the animals alive and bring life to all things here on earth

Darien: If you knew that you would die without the ring than why did you give it to me in the first place

Ceris: Knew that I could not stop the Evil that started to gather people so I interested you to help save earth by giving you that ring but now its power is fading and if it does come into my possession earth will die

Darien: But if I give it back how can I protect Serena

Ceris: Here with this golden rose you can protect your love and call on powers you have yet to discover but if I give you this power you must promise to be at my call when I need you again now please return the ring

Darien: I have no choice here the ring

(Darien hands her the ring and she gives him the golden rose)

Ceris: Remember prince Darien I may call on your services later understand

Darien: Fully

( Ceris and the scene vanish as Darien soon finds himself back with Mina at the temple Meanwhile Rei, Amy and Lita are also learning who their mysterious voice is)

Lita: Geo he was forced to become a warrior and the leader

Amy: History has many cases of that happening

Rei: He is also the vessel of the Negaforce

Lita: Yeah but the Negaforce was destroyed with Beryl wasn't it

Rei: Im not sure it was completely destroyed I wouldn't be surprised if they left a little of the NegaForce in Geo or else he probably wouldn't even be the way he is

Voice: Yes and you must learn how to use your powers to stop him before the Negaforce is reborn

Amy: I don't understand just who are you?

Voice: Amy you of all should have noticed me first

(Luna appears out of the shadows)

Rei: Luna but you weren't with us when we went back in time

Luna: No I am a guide if you will all the paths have one and I am yours. Listen each of you have the ability hidden to stop Geo you must find it on your own when you gain that power you can stop the Negaforce from ever returning

Lita: What about Sailor Moon and Venus

Luna: They each have their own paths you three must learn how to use your powers like never before

Amy: So this is what we came to learn

Luna: Yes farewell scouts let your destiny be as pure as your hearts

(the scene fades and the three find that they too have returned to the temple)

Mina: So you three got through together

Darien: Wonder how Serena and Moyria are doing

Lita: So what did you guys see

(Mina and Darien Remain silent Meanwhile Serena has arrived to a time firmallar to Moyria's past as she arrive at the last moments of the Stardust)

Serena: Oh great Im lost hey this is the ship again

Raydon: What was that

Computer: minor Damage to Brig

Raydon: My God Andromita

Andromita: Im ok Father but Geo has escaped its my fault sorry

Geo: HAHAHAHa what a touching moment to bad its all about to end

Raydon: Theres no escape Geo

Geo: Oh That's what you think Raydon think of this as my farewell gift to you "Dark Shot"

( the blast heads toward Andromita but is blocked by Raydon who falls to the ground )

Andromita: No Father You Monster I'll chase you cross the universe till your carcass lines my father's coffin

Geo: No Chance little one (Geo vanishes)

Raydon: Andromita, child, let him go

Andromita: Father

Raydon: Don't waste your time feeling sorry for me instead I need you to promise me you will defeat the Negaverse for me understand you must not let them win

Andromita : But Father how can I

Raydon: You have a future where in time you will gain your chance to get your revenge child

Andromita: But how do you know all this

Raydon: I can hear your mother tell me it

Andromita: My mother but she's dead

Raydon: No we kept that from you because you were different Now good bye child

Andromita: Goodbye father I will never forget you (Andromita is surrounded by light and heads toward earth and Serena looks on as Raydon passes away listening to his last words)

Raydon: Poor child how could I have kept this secret from you for so long How you call me father makes me wish you truly were my daughter. Serena how we have grown apart so much do you even remember that I am your father and the love I have for you. Love you will never know Oh how I wish I could have watched you grow up. Andromita how I wished to have kept you from the bloodshed you saw all the battles you faced how can you ever learn what true love is in this endless field of blood I wish That some day your heart may touch again as it did so long ago child for that is the true power it is simply Love

Serena: So that's what has happened

Moyria: Guess he's right

Serena: How long have you been standing there

Moyria: Long enough Serena long enough

Serena: So guess I can't blame you for being so cold when we first meet

Moyria: And I guess that I not as alone in this war as I thought

Voice: AH then you are ready to go home

Serena; Yes lets go home

Moyria: No not just yet theres something I must do first

Serena; What

Moyria: Raydon I know you can't hear me but I think I understand and I wish I could forgive you but you raised me as your daughter more than your real daughter and for that you will always be my father Thank you.

Serena: ready

Moyria: Yes Serena lets go home

(the two fade and the voice that has originally called Moyria into the path of her memories shows his face to be Raydon and he smiles as he says)

Raydon: Farewell both the daughter I so wanted and the daughter I had Farewell children

(The scene fades as Serena and Moyria return to Cherry Hill temple)

Mina: Their back

Darien : Serena you ok

(Serena ignores the others and looks at Moyria who is staring at the night sky)

Serena: Im sure he heard you

Moyria: He did Serena He did.

(The scene switches to the night sky as the moon light falls on to a pond of water )

Voice: Normally this would have been a peaceful scene but if it was peaceful I wouldn't have been called in now would I

( flashing red lights reveal the voice to be that of Detective Kenny Cennada of the Tokyo Police)

Officer: No I guess not

Kenny: Its a shame they got to her she was our only chance on stopping them now we have a real problem and it is just started
