

Sailor Moon Andromita Factor: Episode 14 "A Friend In Need"

Sailor Moon In the Last episode Of Sailor Moon Andromita Factor. Moyria was take prisoner by the Yarmoto Clan. And the scouts Faced the new transformed Iris with the end of the battle Having me leave the scouts temporarily. I ended up talking to Darien who was totally bummed from hear about Moyria's kidnapping. I was determined to help Moyria Out so now Curcit and I are off to bring Moyria back home.

(Inside a dark cell Moyria sits staring at her crystal pendent , the other prisoner Tanaka is trying to get her attention)

Tanaka: Don't Worry when my brother gets here they'll all be sorry. Are you even listening.

Moyria: Yes

Tanaka: Yeah when he arrives he'll have a million, No billion cops with him, dont you think.

Moyria: Sure what ever.

Tanaka: Are you even paying any attention to what I just said now.

(She gets only a sigh from Moyria who contiues to stare at her crystal)

Tanaka: HEY IM TALKING HERE

(Moyria falls back on the floor)

Moyria: Sorry just thinking of a way out here thats all. (thinking to herself) yeah right if she wasn't here I would just transform and use the Nova Smash technique to bust out of here but I doubt that I could make it all the way they may gas the halls to keep me from escaping. Our only hope lies out side

(Little does Moyria notice but her wrist computer is sending a small flashing signal a signal being picked up by her guardian and companion, Curcit. The scene changes to show Curcit and Sailor Moon jumping from rooftop to rooftop)

Sailor Moon: Got her signal yet Curcit

Curcit: yes but its fairly weak but close

Sailor Moon: How can the signal be weak

Curcit: I have no idea princess the weather conditions are suitable for the signal Its almost as if the signal was under our noses

Sailor Moon: underground?

Curcit : Yes theres only one way to find out there is an entrance underground nearby

Sailor Moon: You mean you want me to go in the sewer ew

Curcit: Please Princess I fear she may be in grave danger

Sailor Moon: All right but Im not going to like it

(Sailor Moon Jumps down onto the street and opens a manhole cover and jumps in the hole with Curcit in her arms. Meanwhile at Darien's apartment there is a knock on the door)

Darien: coming

(Darien opens the door to reveal Amy, Rei, Mina and Lita)

Darien: Hey Girls how can I help you

Lita: Well Serena's mom called us all she hasn't been home all night do you know where she is

Darien: After she left here she was going to check on Curcit for me then head home I think

Mina: Ill check to see if, Curcit knows where she is

Darien: Um So why are all of you here to look for Serena

Lita: Well actually Rei has something to say to her

Rei: Hey Lita its none of your bossiness she dismembered it

Lita: and your being as stuck up as always Rei

(Mina comes running out of Moyria's apartment)

Mina: Curcit is missing.

Darien: I dont like the looks of this Serena may be in trouble and non of us know where she has gone to

Amy: It may be a wild guess but maybe they went to find Moyria.

Rei: Yeah I guess Curcit could home in on her but how does that help us even if we used your computer we may not find them

Lita: We still have to try Rei

Amy: Ill start trying to locate their position

Darien: (To self) I swear Serena I wouldn't lose you like I did with Moyria and Sayrun

Geo: There must be a way to use the magic of Makai on the scouts but only a decedent of her blood can gain the powers and the only one we that is alive is that pain in my side Andromita

Centurous: My magic could search for another user of magic in this world but magic alone cant defeat the scouts.

You need to weaken their forces by dividing them.

Geo: I'm well ahead of you on that one, Centurus, as we speak Iris and his two lackeys are hunting them out and when they are found they will receive a major surprise. All I need you to do is find me a powerful magic user

Centurus: Well I know of two already, One is weak in powers and is of little concern his name is Minakita Yarmoto, the other is very interesting I think I've sensed it before it is a very strong power on the east mountain side of Mt. Fuji.

Geo: Then hunt out this individual and bring him here

(Along the streets of Tokyo a lone figure walks a piece of crumpled paper in his hand He was brought here by the message of his sister's kidnapping and now he waits for the kidnapper to show)

Sukura: I've come as you ask, Misto show yourself murderer.

Misto: I see, Grandfather taught you to face your fights unlike all the times you ran from me in the past, Suke.

Sukura: You have no right to address me like that, Misto. You have my sister I want her let go now.

Misto: You really think. I would just hand her over to you, don't make me laugh.

Sukura: I'm not here to make any deals.

Misto: Well then I hope you enjoyed your sister, while you had one.

Sukura: Monster.

Misto: If you will quietly come with me you will see her.

(Sukura realized he had no choice but to follow his orders for his sister's safety)

Sukura: You win I'll go with you.

Misto: I knew you would

(The scene fades to Darien's apartment where Amy is working on her computer meanwhile Lita and Rei are watching some TV show. When suddenly a news report comes in on the TV)

TV Reporter: As you can see behind me these monsters have come out of nowhere and started to tear up the shopping mall (Pictures of Iris, Magma, and Pumice [the transformed Sayrun Calvin])

Lita: That's the Negaverse

Rei: Their attacking a mall hundreds of innocent people may be stuck in the middle of their path of destruction.

Darien: But if we go there what about Moyria and Serena

Amy: As far as we know Darien they are fine the people at the mall need us now

Amy: Mercury Power Transform

Rei: Mars Power Transform

Lita: Jupiter Power Transform

Mina: Venus Power Transform

(the four young girls change into their alter egos. Amy into Sailor Mercury. Rei into Sailor Mars. Lita into Sailor Jupiter. And finally Mina into Sailor Venus.)

Darien: I dont know maybe one of us should look for Serena

Amy: Sailor Moon knows how to take care of herself. And I have no doubt Moyria could defeat who ever kidnapped her.

Darien: I hope your right (Darien reaches in his jacket pocket and pulls out his golden rose. once the first light hits it the golden light takes form around Darien forming his costume as the super hero Tuxedo Mask.)

Tuxedo Mask: Lets go help those people

(Meanwhile as Tanaka sleeps Moyria prepares her attempt at Escape by calling on her powers)

Moyria: Galactic Prismic Transformation

(Moyria changes into the super heroine Andromita and quickly studies the wall)

Andromita: Hmm if I use my nova smash here it could break a door open and cause enough rubble to slow the guards. So here goes nothing . SUPER NOVA SMASH

(Andromita's fist go flying at the wall with no reaction except a few cracks here and there Then With a loud explosion the wall is blown clear and a massive hole is all that remains. The Noise has awoken Tanaka and has also attracted many guard which a re now shooting in direction of the hole)

Andromita: Damn I was hoping they would take a little longer to get here

(Grabbing her laser gun she reaches her arm around the hole and fires down the hallway)

Andromita: Only chance is to blind them "Light Prismic Blast"

(The hall fills with light and the guards a re screaming and shooting all around the hall but it does little good as Andromita jumps out and knocks the guards down with single blows. Meanwhile Tanaka has also left the prison and has headed off the other direction of the hall. And soon lights are flashing on as an alarm goes off)

Andromita: Looks like its going to be complicated the rest of the way.

(We see several Lasers fire near Andromita all are missing her as she continues down the hall She finally reaches a dead end where she starts to turn around only to face twenty guards and Minakita who has some odd looking device in his hands)

Minakita: I must say Ms.Gatent you do have great skill but even with a your power you cant escape this fortress.

Andromita: I could destroy you in s matter of seconds Minakita

Minakita: Ah but even if you could get me you still had to deal with my guards here and their toys I hear are quiet displeasing now be a good girl and do as I say

(Andromita exchanges a look of disgust at him)

Minakita: Guards put this on her.

(A guard takes the device from Minakita and walks toward Andormita)

Minakita: Power down

Andromita: POWER WITHDRAW

(Andromita changes back toward Moyria. And the guard places the device tightly on her neck)

Minakita: This will keep you from causing any more problems for me till tomorrow. Try to get some rest it would be a shame for a beautiful thing like you to lose beauty sleep.

(Moyria's face grows with great disgust)

Minakita: And this for you as well

(Minakita grabs Moyria's head and kisses her on the kiss Moyria struggles to be set free. Once he lets go for her she spits in his face The scene Fades as Minakita gains a devilish grin on his face as Moyria is carried away)

(At the Mall a different scene is evolving as the Scouts arrive to help the civilians)

Mina: Looks Bad scouts

Rei: We can take them

Iris: Thats what you think Mars

(Iris grabs a nearby store dummy and chucks it at Mars but with a crack of her whip and sends the dummy flying out of the way of people meanwhile Tuxedo Mask is facing off with the warrior Pumice)

Pumice: Once Im finished with you Ill go after that girlfriend of yours Sailor Moon

Tuxedo Mask: Leave her alone you freak

(Tuxedo Mask Tosses a rose cutting the side of the mask covering the warriors mask)

Pumice: You cut my favorite mask you jerk

Tuxedo Mask: That's the least of your concerns Lady

Pumice: Lava bomb

(Pumice tosses a wave of rocks that explode in a wave of flames around Tux. At the same time Mercury fights Magma as he tries to bite at her and Jupiter tries to help Mars with Iris. But Venus is interrupted as she gets ready to fight when a iron rod smashes the ground next to her.)

Venus: Huh where did that come from

(A masked figure appears out of the shadows)

Mask Man: It's been a while hasn't it

Venus: You can't be real?

Masked Man : And why not?

Venus: Because He died

Mask Man: Did I now, or did you simply see what I wanted you to.

Venus: But if you are him then why are you fighting against us.

Masked Man: You left me for dead you didn't even care to look back did you. You never care about the lives you destroy.

(Venus's look changes to a cold stare Meanwhile in the office of Minakita. Misto has returned accompanied with Sukura)

Minakita: Well well if it isn't the young fighter young Suke Yama , Legend of the local kempo tournaments. Well it's been awhile since I've last seen you.

Sukura: I have No business to settle with you Minakita.

Minakita: Oh but you do Suke you do. One that has lasted in our families for many years.

Sukura: Where's my sister you pig.

Minakita: She is under our protection right now. But there is someone else I would like you to meet.

(Minakita reaches to push on an intercom system)

Minakita: Bring in our prisoner

Sukura: the only person I want to see is Tanaka here now

Minakita: In due time Suke , but first this prisoner was personally taken for you to see each other.

Sukura : What are you blabbering on about Where's my sister.

(the door opens as Moyria is escorted by two guards)

Minakita: Ah here she is Sukura Yama I would like you to meet your future bride Moyria Gatent.

Moyria and Sukura: Bride!

Minakita: Guards take these two to their private cells

Guards: Yes sir

(the guards accompany Moyria and Sukura out of the room and down the hall meanwhile Minakita talks with his partner Misto)

Minakita: You did well in getting him here Misto Im proud.

Misto: What about the young girl

Minakita: She had escaped when our guest attempted to free them both. But she is of no worry to me the tunnels under here are like mazes it will take her days to find away out and not to many people hang out in the sewers that can help her

(Boy is Minakita wrong because at that very moment somewhere in the maze of tunnels Sailor Moon and Curcit are trying to make a difficult choice as there are four tunnels leading down a different direction)

Sailor Moon: This is hopeless its like a huge maze Which way Curcit?

Curcit: Im not sure the signal is still really weak

(Just the A tiered Tanaka runs from one of the tunnels and collapses in the middle of the divided path Sailor Moon sees her and goes to help her)

Tanaka:: Uhhhhh

Sailor Moon: Are you all right

(Tanaka begins to come to and sees Sailor Moon holding her head up in her arms)

Tanaka: You your Sailor Moon aren't

Sailor Moon: Thats right. UM what esscaxtly are you doing in the sewer

Tanaka: Please help the Yarmoto are after me and my brother and some other girl named Moyria Gatent. You've got to help us.

Sailor Moon: Moyria you know where she is

Tanaka: If you will help me I ll take you to her

Sailor Moon: No way I work alone I cant protect you and save Moyria at the same time

Tanaka: Don't worry my Brother can protect me.

Sailor Moon: Huh am I the only one here totally lost.

Tanaka: Hurry the hideout is this way

(Tanaka gets up and leads Sailor Moon and Curcit down the tunnel. Back at the mall two secrets are now being answered to the sailor scouts)

Sailor Venus: I never did any thing to hurt you why do you say such things

Masked Man: You scouts are so stupid. Die Venus. Mercy Force.

(Venus lets out ear perching screams as a massive light burn at sides crushing her breath from her lungs. She is spared as a dirk tossed by Mercury hits the tip of the mask sending it off to reveal the true face of Venus's opponent to be another face of the past but this one isn't one of freindship but of anger)

Sailor Venus: YOU I should have gue...s..s..e.....d.....ahhhhhh.....

(Venus collapses from the attack into a state of unconsciousness. Across the mall another fight continuous as Tuxedo Mask fights the warrior Pumice. His cape carries many burns on it as well as burns on his face)

Tuxedo Mask: I See your pretty good. But I still have a trick or two up my sleeve

(Tossing a rose it pins down the face mask uncovering the friendly face of Sayrun Calvin to Tuxedo Mask)

Tuxedo Mask: Sayrun!!

Pumice: Now your going to die cape boy

Tuxedo Mask: (To self) I can't attack her and without Serena here we cant change her back to normal. Damn what am I suppose to do

(Darien Thinks back to the time Mother Nature gave him the golden rose)

Mother Nature : With this rose you can call forth what ever power you need to save those you care for.

Tuxedo Mask: What I need is something that can heal her (a yellow rose appears in his hand covered in fresh dew) Thats it Golden Power Heal

Pumice: AHAHAHHAHAHH

(Pumice changes back to Sayrun and collapses on the ground Iris notices that suddenly he is surround and He, Magma, and the mysterious figure vanish. But their getting away is the least of there worries as Venus continues to fight for her life in an unconscious state. Meanwhile in a well decorated room Moyria and Sukura are getting to know each other a little better.)

Moyria: your sister was really worried about

Sukura: So you saw her

Moyria: Yeah but I dont think she hurt or anything in case your worried

Sukura: I hope not, I mean she is all I have besides my grandparents. My parents died in a fire a few years ago they sacrificed their lives to wake up the rest of the family and get us out to safety but they both suffered serious burns and breathing problems after saving Tanaka. I never bothered to ask her on how she felt about it I mean she was only five at the time. I dont even think she can remember it all.

Moyria: So you lost your parents too

Sukura: You mean you lost yours too

Moyria: Yeah well my mother was killed by someone when I was very young. For a time I grew up with my father or at least the man I thought was my father. It only makes me think who was my father and did he ever really care for me.

Sukura: Your lucky you dont hafta live in the shadow of your father.

Moyria: What do you mean?

Sukura: Before my father died he was a great master of Kempo as was his father and now grandfather is forcing the training of Kempo on me.

Moyria: Did you ever want to become a master of Kempo

Sukura: I just dont know I ve been learning it all my life yet I never questioned myself as to if I wanted to be

Moyria: You know we may have just meet but it does seem like Ive known you all my life

Sukura: Yeah well maybe its just our imprisonment getting to you

Moyria: Yeah well I wouldn't let these walls keep me in not even Misto can stop me when I get free

Sukura: Don't get cocky hes better then he looks Misto used to be my cousin but that was until he started to kill people for money

Moyria: You think we ever will get free

Sukura: Don't worry Moyria Some how we will get out I promise you

(Sukura places his hand down upon her shoulder and the two gaze into each others eyes and exchange a kiss as the scene changes. To Sailor Moon following Tanaka down the tunnel)

Curcit: Princess I suggest we be on our guard for now on the signal is getting stronger

Sailor Moon: Right. Um Tanaka you have any idea on why these people are after Moyria and your brother.

Tanaka: Im not completely sure but Ive heard from my grandfather that when a great warrior and the first born

male of Yama meet a great power will be released in the world

Sailor Moon: But why exactly would they take Moyria?

Curcit: Perhaps its requires a certain warrior but to my knowledge Moyria's power is in its weakest when she is in her normal state. Maybe the real warrior they want is someone else

Sailor Moon: For her sake lets hope your right Curcit

(Meanwhile a scene your would rarely find a hero laying on a stretcher unconscious is the very situation Venus is currently facing)

Medic 1: No visible blood loss or even a scratch I don't understand why is she like this

Medic 2: What about these two marks on the sides of her

(The medic points at these two marks forming two curved diamond shapes)

Sailor Mercury: Maybe that is where the monster drain her life force

Sailor Mars: I doubt it Mercury until now none of the monsters we faced have left markings before

(A moan comes from Venus's lips)

Sailor Venus: Uhhmm

Sailor Jupiter: Venus are you OK

Sailor Venus: What happened where am I

Medic 1: Calm down miss your still very weak

Sailor Jupiter: You've been out of it for a while now, You where knocked unconscious from the attack by that monster you faced

(Venus flashes back to her fight)

Sailor Venus: The monster?

Medic 1: All right enough excitement you need your rest and will spend sometime in the hospital until you check out in perfect health OK Ms. Venus

All Scouts: The hospital ?

Medic 2: Yes where do you think we are going to take her the movies

Sailor Venus: Im fine I assure you

Medic 1: It doesn't matter we still need you to see the doctor.

Medic 2: Don't worry we understand the popularity of the scouts and will put constant guards on your room for you but its best if you come with us

Sailor Venus: I guess I have no choice. You guys go ahead and find Sailor Moon and help here out Ill be fine

Sailor Jupiter: No way Im going to stay with you Venus. Mercury, Mars, and Tuxedo Mask can go help her but your going to need someone by your side throughout this so Im going with you.

Sailor Venus: All right

(The scene changes as Moyria is a room by her self with the exception of the guards at the door in the middle of the room lies a white dress and veil. She picks it up in her hand and just stares at it for a little while. The scene changes again to a large hall where Minakita stands talking to Misto as Sukura stands in chains and a white tuxedo. Light falls down into the hall way from a large window which leads up a tunnel with several other holes but the main one leads strait up)

Minakita: Misto come here I have some business to discuss with you before we begin

(the two walk a little distance away form Sukura)

Misto: what you want of me?

Minakita: once the ceremony is finished and I have gained the power of our ancestors. I want you to kill Sukura.

Misto: Kill Sukura. But he's family.

Minatiki: And he will be a threat as he too will gain the power. Plus I wish to gain Ms. Gatent to the many things I control

Misto: You know my rule about family

Minakita: You will do it or you will be added to his dead body do I make myself clear Misto.

Misto: Yes sir.

(Minakita turns his head as two guards lead Moyria dressed in her gown and veil down the hall way as a priest comes out of a door way off to the side of the hall)

Rev. Are we ready to begin

Minakita: Yes Reverend.

Rev: Then let us thank god for bringing us here today

(as the wedding begins Sailor Moon makes her way around the tunnels but with a quizzical look on her face as she notices that obviously Curcit is confused as to where the signal from Moyria's Wrist computer.)

Sailor Moon: You know this place looks alot like where weve been before.

Curcit: I don't understand it the signal was over there now its gone that way

(Sailor Moon looks down that way and sees a giant pit in the path way)

Sailor Moon: Um Curcit I have a feeling if go any further we re going to run out of room

(Curcit: now almost over the pit he still continues to walk not taking notice of the edge and drops strait down)

Sailor Moon: Curcit you all right

Curcit: Yes your highness Im in perfect shape

Sailor Moon: Guess we better find another way around huh

Curcit: On the contrary this is the way she is directly below

Sailor Moon: Huh

(She looks down and sees Moyria standing next to Sukura through the giant window directly above them)

Sailor Moon: Well Curcit only one way down form here.

Curcit: And That would be

Sailor Moon THIS

(Sailor Moon Hops down into the pit crashing through the glass startling everyone)

Minakita: What who disturbs my ceremony

Moyria: Curcit! Sailor Moon! you came.

Minakita: Guards capture these heroes

Curcit: Mistress are you all right.

Moyria: Yes Curcit

Curcit: What strange grab are you some how being scarified to some powerful god

Moyria: No it my wedding

Sailor Moon: You mean we where all worried about you and your here getting married

Moyria: Hey its not like I had a choice

Minakita: Shoot them

(The guards fire the guns but successfully miss their targets Sailor Moon and Moyria easily dodge the fire while Curcit shoots sparks at a few of them and Sukura attacks them using his chains as a weapon. All goes well until one guard gets lucky and hits the sliver of darkness escaping the white gown As Moyria's Dark crystal shatters she collapses to the ground without a scratch her body lies lifeless on the floor of the hall.)

Curcit: Mistress No

Sailor Moon: Her crystal

Curcit: The very thing that has kept her alive all these years is now gone

Minakita: You fools you destroyed our chance at the power.

Misto: Whats that

(A dark light fills the room forming a figure next to Moyria's body)

Minakita: It can't be

Misto: Sukarna the warrior of Fate

Sukura: Moyria really was Sukarna

Sukarna: No child of Yama I was Moyria and I are not the same but a powerful being formed by the crystal years ago. A thousand and twenty five years ago I was imprisoned by the mage Garon Yarmoto for falling in love with his son Yama. Your ancestor. His imprisonment sent me into the power of the Dark crystal held by the magistrate of the Moon Kingdom. Moyria's Mother Lady Makai, she used the crystal to heal and Ganor used it to imprison me. But when the young girl defied her mothers warnings. She and the crystal combined and depended on one another to simply remain part of this world. But now my prison is destroyed and Moyria's life as well.

Sailor Moon: Is there any way to bring her back

Sukarna: Im afraid that is not within my power. It is was her destiny to bring me to this place.

Sukura: I don't believe you.

Sukarna: The only people that could ever bring her back to life are all gone Im afraid she is lost

(No one notices as Minakita and Misto escape)

Sukura: In order to have the legend become true she had to give her life Oh Moyria why did you have to leave me when we just meet. I never even got to tell you how I cared

Sailor Moon: If only someone could bring her back

Sukarna: The last one to hold that power was Ganor and Makai

Sukura: Ganor had the power to return life to someone

Sukanra: Yes he did

Sukura: Then there may still be a chance for Moyria

Sailor Moon: What do you mean?

Sukura; I am a descendent of Yama son of Ganor His power also flows through my blood.

Sukarna: Yes you do have his power but I have no idea if it will be enough.

Sukura: I must try

(Sukura places his hands over Moyria as a blue light lets out around her body but this light fades and nothing happens)

Sukura: I failed

Sukarna: No your power was strong enough but her wounds are deep and the only way to heal them is to magnify you power

Sailor Moon: Magnify ?

Sukarna: Enhancing the power through a mystic talisman

Sailor Moon: talisman! Sukura Here use you power with this

(Sailor Moon reaches inside her staff and pulls out her brooch handing it to him)

Sailor Moon: It Gives me all my powers with it you And I can put our power together and try to save her

Sukura: Its worth a try

(Sukura places his hands holding the brooch as Moyria's body is covered with blue light and as the light fade Moyria wakes up)

Curcit: Mistress

Sukura: Your back

Moyria: Promise me something

Sukura: What

Moyria: Now that we are free we will stay friends

Sukura: Of course

Sailor Moon: You've been through alot haven't you

Moyria: Thank you Sailor Moon

Sailor Moon: What for ?

Moyria: For saving me when I thought I could handle things by myself.

Sukarna: I wish to thank you Moyria, warrior Andromita , Because of you I am free. In thanks for you service I will answer you three questions you may have before I leave to join my Love in the other realm.

Moyria: What will happen to my powers now that the crystal is destroyed?

Sukarna: With the destruction of the crystal your powers were lost, you may never be able to call upon them again

Moyria: How can I help my friends if someone like Golum is freed?

Sukarna: The threat of the demon Golum's freedom is drawing near. The answer to his death lies in your father hands

Moyria: My father but who is he?

Sukarna: You will be reunited with him soon and your new quest will show its path to you when you face him. Now I must go as I feel my powers weaken. Take care of each other and love each other with what little time you have cause before you know it one of you may no longer be.

Moyria: Farewell Lady

Sukura: Tanaka I almost forgot about her.

Sailor Moon; Dont worry shes safe

Tanaka : Suke There you are

(Tanaka is peering down from the smash window above them)

Sukura: Well all is back to normal

Sailor Moon: Yeah but Minakita and Misto escaped

Sukura: They will crawl out of their cracks soon enough

Moyria: Suke

Sukura: Yes

Moyria: You wanna have dinner tomorrow night

Sukura: Sure

(Later that night Serena is sharing her story with Darien as across the hall Moyria stares out her window at the stars in the sky Curcit watches her puzzled on what she is thinking about)

Curcit: Mistress what are you thinking about?

Moyria : Well Curcit Im think of many things I mean for the first time in my life. Im just a normal human.

Curcit: This bothers you

Moyria: Well yes and no

Curcit: Explain

Moyria: All right I enjoy the fact that now when I walk down the road and see a crime I don't hafta get involved. But on the other hand there no way for me to stop Geo and Centurous or any other threat out there.

Curcit:: I see your worried he will be set free don't you

Moyria: Yeah but how can I not ever since Centurous and I have been against each other I had nightmare of him breaking free, then when we traveled to the Moon Kingdom I was warned that the threat would grow soon and he would be set free and now Lady Sukarna said the threat draws near I just hope I can find a way to stop him before he destroys this world as he did before to other worlds

Curcit: You mustn't worry so much mistress. You will face that road when you come to it but for now I suggest you enjoy your time of peace.

Moyria: Yes Its something I intend to get the most of.
