red = Voice over or character in thought

(The scene opens as Moyria sits in the woods next to a young girl named Ukio who has just claimed that Moyria is her mother)

Moyria:

This is getting me no where fast. Ummm tell me Ukio where is your mommy or daddy huh? I'm sure their very worried about being out this late.

(The young Ukio hugs Moyria and begins to cry again)

Ukio:

I finally found you mommy.

Moyria:

Mommy?? Now just wait one minute here I don't have any daughter and I sure haven't ever seen you before in my life.

Ukio:

But you gotta be my mommy you just gotta.

Moyria:

Ummmmm

(Ukio starts to cry)

Ukio:

I know you my momma you gotta be

Moyria:

Umm could you please calm down

(a light begins to glow from Ukio)

Moyria:

What the

(back at the temple the scouts watch as a massive light is blown out of the near by woods where Moyria ran off into)

Rei:

What was that?

Lita:

My guess Moyria

Mina:

You think she's okay

Lita:

Trust me she can handle it.

(A man in a long overcoat walks by posting a banner on a lamppost)

Mina:

Wonder what he's posting up

Serena:

Who cares

Rie:

You know I saw a banner today that had a fifty percent coupon for ice cream.

(Suddenly Serena's eye bulge and she dashes to check out the flyer)

Serena:

What !!!!

Amy:

What does it say Serena.

Serena:

Check it out guys.

(Serena shows the others the banner with a crudely drawn Moyria on it. Amy reads it out loud.)

Amy:

People of Tokyo I will give you two days to turn over this woman better known as the criminal Andromita. The one who turns her over will be rewarded with 50 million yen.

Serena:

For that much I'll turn her over myself.

Rie:

Will you shut up and let Amy Finnish.

Amy:

If you fail to turn her over in two days I will start to take lives. Signed Cosair.

Serena:

Hey I know that name from somewhere.

Rei:

Man I always knew you where a ditz Serena but this is amazing. She just told us that he's the guy after him. He's the one with that planet floating above us.

Serena:

Hey I'm not stupid Rei.

Rei:

I don't know you sure can fool me sometimes Serena.

(Serena carries a extremely angry look on her face as the scene changes back to the woods.)

Moyria:

How did you do that.

Ukio:

Do what?

Moyria:

That burst of light that just shot from your body.

Ukio:

It's my magic beam.

(Moyria thinks to herself)

Moyria:

[She may not be my daughter but if she has magical powers then she can only be a child of only three other people I know. So I guess I should just play along with her.] Ukio I'm getting a little sleepy you lets head home.

Ukio:

Yeah I'm going home with mommy.

(Moyria places Ukio on her shoulders and give her a piggyback ride back to the temple.)

Lita:

Moyria's back

Amy:

Hey who is this.

Ukio:

Hi I'm Ukio and this is my mommy.

All:

WHAT

Moyria:

It's a long story. Listen I'm headed home I'll talk to you guys later.

Serena:

Hey wait up Moyria. I'm going with you in a minute.

(A quite Rennie sit on the temple stair)

Serena:

Come on Rennie we gotta go home.

Rennie:

Hey she said she was going home. I don't see why I gotta.

Serena:

Listen here you little spore If you want to have a place to stay your going to come home now got it

Rennie:

All right All right. I'm going.

(Serena and Rennie walk off with Moyria headed back to the apartment)

Amy:

you think she will remember to tell Moyria about Cosair.

Rei:

She's probity all ready forgotten it.

(A loud crash is heard and the scream of Serena as she falls down the stairs. Mean behind the shadow of the moon The Garnon ship sits in silence. All is quiet on the vessel that has destroyed several worlds in the name of conquest. All is quiet that is until a signal is received.)

Samin:

Well what is it we have here

Roniskie:

I'm detecting three objects of spatial origin

Samin:

The three keys. We may not need the princess at all.

Roniskie:

The three keys, sir?

Samin:

A long time ago there was a great blacksmith who crafted nine keys. Three of these keys had the power to control nature. Three to control the body. and three to control time. The keys of nature where destroyed in a massive battle years ago. The keys of the body where planted in three different souls their power later created magic users. But alas almost all of them excluding the four we found here survive. And finally the three keys of time where lost along with their guardians. It seems the one in charge of their keep brought them here and with the help of the keys the Garnon will rule the universe.

(Samin Walks down the hall of the ship and vanishes as he leaves.)

Roniskie:

Everyday he seems to demand himself leader more and more I'm not even sure he wants to free the Emperor.

(A sudden dark flash as Savor The director Of Space Travel And a Gambling woman at heart)

Savor:

You seem to forget why no of us bothered to challenge him when he took power.

Roniskie:

Savor is, Samin's power that strong?

Savor:

Well lets just say I haven't seen one opponent he ever faced survive to tell how painful it was so I suggest you follow his orders got it. Now He wants to look in on the one of the spies I suggest you find some way soon to be able to tune in. Samin wants to find out just how powerful these humans are.

(Meanwhile Rei and Mina are outside looking at the stars while Lita and Amy are watching the news on the TV set.)

Mina:

Well no doubt with a new planet orbiting our own it will just be a matter of time before Earth finds out about all this.

Rie:

Your right but I mean do we really have anything to say about all mankind wishes to contact aliens. I mean many people would be proud to know we aren't alone out there. Even if the aliens are like the Negaverse it all a matter of hope.

(suddenly Lita yells for Rei and Mina to join them)

Lita:

You guys you gotta check out this story on the news

(they all gather in front of the television)

Reporter:

That's right Ted in just a few minutes an alien of some kind is about to talk with leaders of over 50 countries.

Due to security reasons the alien has agreed to give the conversation through televised means only. And of course we will be right here to --- Oh wait a minute I have just been informed that the alien leader is about to speak.

Cosair:

I give greets to you the people of earth. I must apologize for frightening you with my world appearing before your own. I wish only peace to you and your people but first. The only reason I have traveled here was to capture a criminal of my world. For a while now she has been living among your people in disguise. I warn you she is extremely powerful and dangerous. I'm sure if you succeed in finding her I could find some way to reward your planet. Remember I mean no one harm all I wish is the return of this criminal.

(A picture of Andromita is placed on the screen as the scouts gasp)

Mina:

There will be an all out manhunt for Andromita by tomorrow.

Rie:

I sure hope Serena told Moyria about the wanted poster.

(meanwhile at the apartment Moyria walks into her apartment caring a fast asleep, Ukio.)

Grandfather:

Well well You come home late and bring in another mouth to feed.

Moyria:

What are you complaining about you don't pay the bills no do you.

Grandfather:

You know you sure have been talked about lately.

Moyria:

What are you talking about. I didn't do anything today.

Grandfather:

It's not what you did child, but what you didn't.

Moyria:

What are you talking about.

(Moyria turns on the TV and tunes into the end of the latest report)

Reporter:

So there you have it earth's first contact with aliens is in a way a ransom for this woman. Answering to the name Andromita.

Grandfather:

Who would do this.

Moyria:

Only one person would. Cosair.

Grandfather:

You know there is an old saying "The only way to kill a snake is to strike it's head.

Moyria:

And that's just what I'm going to do. Curcit Come on we've got a job to do.

(Meanwhile Cosair is enjoying his talk to the planet.)

Cosair:

Atlast by tomorrow morning they will flush her out and I will finally get my revenge on that witch.

Jaspin:

Are you sure we should be doing this brother. I mean she did keep her promises and saved us from Golum.

Cosair:

But she was the reason our ancestors died. She is to face her fate before our people.

Jaspin:

Our people? Our people. There are only a handful of us left. I beg you stop this before you destroy us all Cosair.

Cosair:

Not until she lies dead on the ground. her blood running through my hands.

Jaspin:

So that's it you don't want justice. You just want vengeance. Well you can count me out.

(Jaspin walks out of the room in a furious mood)

Cosair:

Who needs you the people of earth will hand me Andromita personally.

(The scene changes to the tip of the Tokyo tower Moyria stands looking up at the planet in the night sky)

Moyria:

With the help of this transmitter I will be able to teleport to the surface no problem. But before I start I guess there's only one thing to do.

(Moyria raises her gauntlet to the sky Having the light of the moon bounce off the gauntlet changing her once again into the warrior Andromita.)

Andromita:

All right Cosair. You wanted me well here I come and this time I wouldn't forget to let you survive.

(Light surrounds the top of the tower sending Andromita toward the planet but she fails to take notice of a dark figure that slipped in the teleportation spell with her. Meanwhile on the Garnon's ship Sabin watches along with a few other members of the council.)

Rinoskie:

I set a spy to the top of this tower in the city they call Tokyo. But it seems to have been attracted to an extremely powerful energy.

Samin:

One of the keys

Rinoskie:

No I believe that it is one of those energy sources I discovered earlier. but some how both the spy and the source of power are both on that small orbiting planet.

Samin:

I thought I told you I wanted you to find those keys. Not go chasing power sources As soon as the coast is clear you will teleport the spy back to earth got it.

Rinoskie:

Yes sir.

Samin:

But until then lets see how powerful this energy source is. switch to visual.

(The monitor shows Moyria fighting a few guards)

Samin:

Hmm quiet interesting I thought these humans where weak but to see that such an energy force is begin emitted form this soul. We must study her more.

(Mean while inside Cosair's fortress Moyria finishes her fight with the last guard whom falls to the ground after she smashes his face with her forearm)

Andromita:

Well That was easy

(Suddenly a laser blast hits the ground just barely hitting Andromita.)

Andromita:

Curcit, why didn't you warn me of that.

Curcit:

Because the blast was from a gun registered to you.

Andomita:

My gun !

Cosair:

It was your own wish to die by this gun was it not.

Moyria:

Cosair. I kept my promises and saved you from Golum.

Cosair:

Ah but I would have never had to be threatened by him if it weren't for you.

Moyria:

So what are you going to do kill me please go ahead and try.

Cosair:

Gladly.

(Cosair aims and shoots Moyria dead on but a second before the laser hits the blast explodes and the force is absorbed by Andromita.)

Andromita:

You can't kill me with that gun Cosair. Not anymore you can't.

Cosair:

Why did you come here. Why when the whole planet earth is after you did you risk coming here.

Andromita:

Simple because if I'm going to live a peaceful life the only way is to put you on air and show you for what you really are Cosair. A crazy scared fool with hopes of vengeance on what was accident. Last time I was here you projected my memories and stored in your computers. Thanks to a little hacking the people of earth will soon have their shows interrupted with those files and one thing more. This.

Cosair:

What is that.

Andromita:

Last time I was here I knew you would betray me so I set up a surveillance bug of Raydons to watch you. And in any minute the world will see the true purpose of the man. Who gave them promises of peaceful wishes. Curcit switch to holographic mood.

(Curcit's eyes glow as a holographic of Cosair giving orders to his men.)

Cosair tape:

As soon as the sims of this world hand over her we will threaten them to give us their resources we will take several of there young so that this world will be prosperous once again. And all these fools will be so blind because they will be looking for the dangerous Andromita. HAHAHAaaa, she's as Dangerous as a wasp.

Andromita:

As dangerous as a wasp huh. well let me tell you something Cosair. Not matter who your are the sting of a wasp is poison. It just depends on where I place the sting.

(Andromita raises her hand as a orb of light fills it)

Andromita:

I can't say I've been merciful Cosair. But I can't have you hovering over earth causing me trouble every now and then.

Cosair:

Your going to kill me.

Andromita:

Why I wouldn't do that. I'm going to destroy you.

Curcit:

Mistress what are you doing.

Andromita:

You know I've killed so many people in my life but never have a I killed in cold blood. I wonder If it makes any difference.

Cosair:

Dear God

Curcit:

Mistress No you can't kill him.

Andromita:

Watch me.

(suddenly The Jaspin enters and runs placing herself before her brother)

Jaspin:

No Andromita stop please I beg you. I will call off the manhunt for you if you just let him live. I will even go and offer my services to you. But spare my brother.

Cosair:

Jaspin

Andromita:

Very well I will not harm him if you follow my direction to the letter. Cosair will go on the air and call off the hunt. You will come with me Jaspin and Cosair if you so much as threaten an ant on Earth so help me I will kill her.

Cosair:

This isn't over between us.

Andromita:

I don't care how many times you threaten me but don't you dare involve nay one else got it. Now lets go Jaspin and Curcit.

(In a massive beam of light Andromita, Jaspin and Curcit disappear as Cosair tosses the gun against a wall smashing it to pieces. Meanwhile back on earth)

Jaspin:

I'm ready to server you in any way Mistress.

Andromita:

Drop it Jaspin I'm not holding you to anything.

Jaspin:

But back there a moment ago.

Andormita:

An act I promises you that I will make a good and honorable man out off your brother.

Jaspin:

But why

Andromita:

I just feel as if I owe it to you and all those on your planet. But in order for me to help your brother. I need you. Only you can tell me how he thinks so will you be willing to help me.

Jaspin:

How can I when you just about to kill him.

Andromita:

Oh you mean this

(Moyria holds up her hand as another ball of light forms in it)

Andromita:

It's harmless, Doesn't last as long as a light bulb but its still a good light spell.

Jaspin:

You mean all it was a light spell.

Andromita:

Yeah, listen I haven't ever taken a life that hasn't physically endangered others. to gain power.

Jaspin:

So what would you have done if I didn't show.

Curcit:

Well we didn't plan that one out.

Andromita:

Well I guess this is good bye if your not going to help us.

Jaspin:

Ummmm.. Andromita if I help you could you teach me how to be a better person

Andromita:

Jaspin You don't need me to teach you that because you already showed that when you risked you're life to saved your brother. Come on if you help me out I'll show you what your ancestors taught me.

Jaspin:

It's a deal.

(Meanwhile back at the apartment)

Grandfather:

So your my Moyria's daughter hmmm Ukio.

Ukio:

Yes sir. I'm thirteen and my favorite color is blue and uummm my birthday is in May and ummm

Grandfather:

Oh my you very talkative nothing like Moyria guess you must get it from your father.

(Just then Moyria and Jaspin enter)

Moyria:

I don't know grandpa she sound more like you.

Grandfather:

Ah I take things went well because the news is calling the earlier announcement a hoax.

Moyria:

Every things fine. In fact I would like you to meet my friend Jaspin. She's going to stay here for awhile and help us out with some of our problems.

Grandfather:

Hmm it's getting crowed in here, Moyria and now we have two more mouths to feed

Moyria:

It's all right I talked to Miriam and She told me that We can move in upon the fourth floor, but there one problem.

Grandfather:

what?

Moyria:

It hasn't been used since a fire two years ago. and If we move up there we have fix it up ourselves.

Grandfather:

I guess I'll work on some plans while you girls get to work.

Moyria:

Thanks But Curcit all ready has the plans set so go get some rest cause tomorrow we start working.

(Moyria's Grandfather walks off grumbling complaints to himself. When suddenly there's a knock on the door. Jaspin opens it to reveal Serena.)

Serena:

Umm Hello is uh Moyria in.

Jaspin:

Yes she is. Hold on a minute

Moyria:

What do you want Serena.

Serena:

Um here I forgot the girls wanted me to give this to you.

(Serena hands Moyria the wanted poster)

Moyria:

um Serena this would have been helpful three hours ago.

Serena:

Well excuse me at least I gave it to you.

Moyria:

Yeah late as always.

Serena:

Oh you are so ungrateful

Jaspin :

Oh you two really good friends

Serena :

Me and her no way. Friends don't steal other friends boyfriends.

Moyria:

Are you still going on with that.

(Moments later)

Jaspin:

You told me earlier that you lived with your grandfather but who is the young girl.

Moyria:

I'm not sure but right now she's claiming to be my daughter.

Grandfather:

And she has to be yours Moyria.

Moyria:

And why's that old man.

Grandfather:

Because she gives off an aura of magic much like your own. So like it our not she in some way is directly related to you.

Moyria:

Great just what I need oh well only one thing left to do.

Jaspin:

And what's that?

Moyria:

I'm gonna hafta ask my boss for a raise.

(Samin sits watching the tape of Andromita, as Rinoskie interrupts his viewing)

Rinoskie:

Sir I have just detected a small break in the time barrier

Samin:

Good follow it. At last the keys have appeared and soon their power will be in my hands

(that next day)

Reyhard:

A raise?

Moyria:

Yes sir I know I'm still pretty new around here and with the recent recession.

Reyhard:

You think the recession effect us. We make so much money on export it's ridicules. Sure I'll give you a raise but it means new responsibility. So here's what you need to do.

Moyria:

Yes sir.

Reyhard:

Here you may need a pad of paper and pen for this.

Moyria:

Right.

Reyhard:

All right I have sixteen orders or coffee, thirteen orders of green tea.....

(Moyria Face faults)
