

Sailor Moon: Andromita Factor: Shadows Of the Past part 1 “Shadow Cast”

Purple = Character

Green = Action

black = Spoken

(The scene Opens to the year 790 AD. A man about 40 something stands battered and broke His staff is all that keeps him standing. His wounds are obviously cause by the mountainous creature before him.)

Man:

I....c..c..can't lose ...I mustn'tgive...up

Monster:

you power is useless old man its only serves my hunger and soon this world will be weak as I drained it of all its power.

Man:

heehee

(A glow hits the monsters eye as the man laughs.)

Man:

You say my power can't defeat you and that is true but I will stop you will never again harm the people of Earth

Monster:

Your fooling yourself

Man:

Am I.

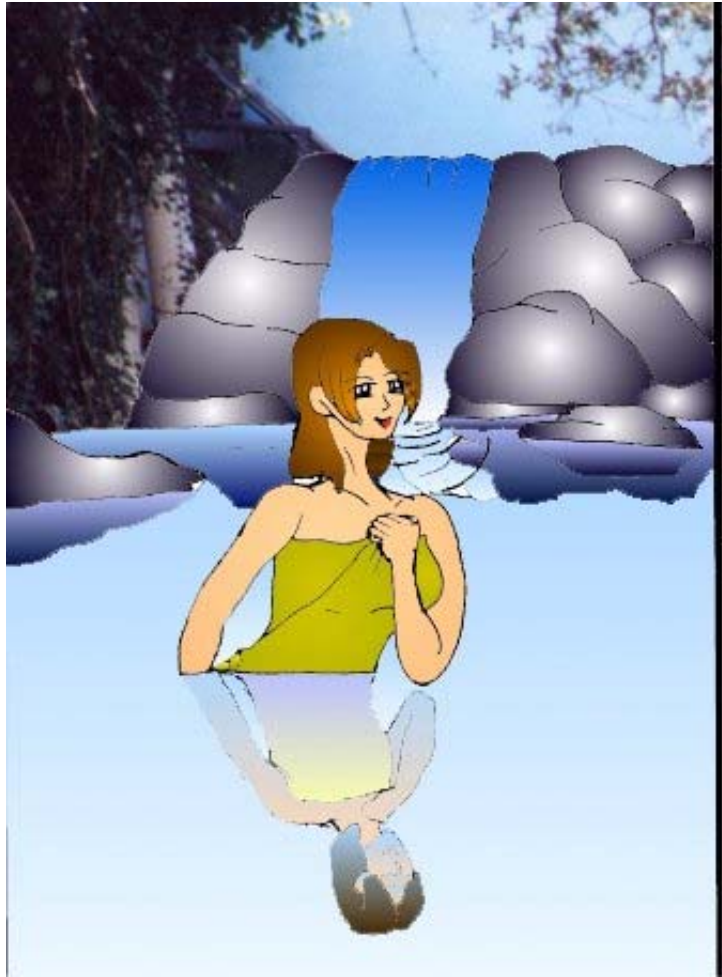

(A wave of magic surrounds the man growing into a giant ball claming both the man and the monster.)

Man:

You will never harm them because I will see to it you will never live again.

(The ball of magic fades from earth the scene cuts to space billions of miles away form Earth as The magical ball appears in the darkness it shines as if it was a star being reborn in the night sky. The body of both the monster and the man are frozen in a cube of ice. The scene quickly cuts to a splash of cold water on the head of one Moyria Gatent. she is sitting in a pool under a waterfall . Over in the shade of a tree on shore Moyria's Grandfather sits playing Shoji with her companion Curcit.)

Moyria:

Brrrr.... It's so cold.

Grandfather:

True but to endure the training of magic is a hard one. You must not let you mind wander child you must be able to adapt you body with the water and its cold tempter.

Moyria:

I know Grandfather its just I had something on my mind that's all.

Grandfather:

You worry about your sister.

Moyria:

A little but I'm more worried about Golum if he' s set free can I really defeat him this time.

Grandfather:

You needn't both yourself with that now child it will come when it does, it more important that you be ready to face him when he does strike and (Curcit who has been studying the board until now makes a move)

Curcit:

I win.

Grandfather:

WHAT? This can't be.

Moyria:

Looks like I'm not the only one that needs to concentrate on what I'm doing.

Grandfather:

He got lucky that's all.

Curcit:

That's 53 to nothing

Grandfather:

One these days I'm going to program you to lose.

Moyria:

Oh cool off Grandpa

(Moyria splashes a bucket of cold water at her grandfather)

Grandfather:

Hey.

Moyria:

HAAAaaaaaa.....

Grandfather:

Ill teach you to splash me.

(Moyria's Grandfather walks to the edge of the pool and grabs Moyria's cloths and walks off)

Moyria:

Hey come back here with my cloths

Grandfather:

No chance Heehehehe

(Curcit is watching as Moyria runs out with a towel warped around her as she heads after her grandfather and thinks to himself)

Curcit:

Its almost hard to believe that she was once one of the most powerful warriors of the Moon Kingdom. Raydon how you would have loved to see how she grew up.

(His sensors pick up a distress signal from somewhere but it is quickly cut off but the guardian knew exactly who had sent that message. And he is worried Moyria may not be ready for the battle she is about to face)

(The scene opens out side the door to Moryia's apartment Her grandfather walks into the apartment caring a basket holding Curcit. While Moyria stands in the hall staring at the door to Darien's apartment)

Moyria:

Darien I truly hope You come back safely

(The scene fades to Darien's apartment a few days earlier Serena is leaning against a nearby wall as Moyria is sitting on the coach drink a cup of tea Darien has a bag on his back)

Moyria:

Do you have to go

Darien:

Yes I need to go to figure things out.

Serena:

This is all your fault you know.

Moyria:

Excuse me!

Darien:

Calm down both of you.

Serena:

Why do you have to go.

Darien:

Because I need sometime to think

Moyria:

So when you be back

Darien:

I have no idea

Moyria:

I see

Serena:

Darien I still don't understand why you gotta leave.

Darien:

(angrily) Because I need to know where to go from here.

Moyria:

So this is goodbye (Moyria sets her cup on the table and heads out toward the door)

Darien:

I guess so

Moyria:

Please return safely.

(As Moyria leaves his apartment no one speaks or sheds a tears all is quiet as she makes her way to her own apartment)

Serena:

Darien Why do you need to sort things out when you already now how things are going to be.

Darien:

There you go.

Serena:

What?

Darien:

How do we know what we saw was our future. There several destinies several different paths to different futures. I can't stand by here and just be told how to live my life I must find out where my future truly leads.

(There is a little pause as tears grow in Serena's eyes)

Serena:

Darien you must tell me who do you love.

(nothing is said as Darien walks toward the glass door of his balcony)

Darien:

I love you , but I will not doubt my feelings for Moyria.

Serena:

Take care.

(as Serena leaves Darien's apartments tears run down her face. The scene changes back to outside in the hallway where a figure of the youngest tenant Toy stands looking at Moyria)

Toy:

You miss him don't you

(Moyria is startled as she was lost in thought she didn't hear her come up)

Moyria:

Huh . Oh hi. What did you say.

Toy:

You miss him

Moyria:

No. Well maybe a little.

Toy:

I knew it. (Taunting) Moyria and Darien sitting in a tree.....

Moyria:

Stop it.

Toy:

K-I-SS-I-N-G first come love then comes marriage

(a shout form down stairs is made by the elderly tenant Will)

Will:

And next comes a gag on your mouth if you don't shut up I'm trying to sleep.

(Toy is silenced for the moment that is)

Toy:

Stupid old goat

Will:

I heard that

(Toy runs down the stairs passing Miriam who is coming to talk with Moyria)

Miriam:

Don't let her get to you dear

Moyria:

She won't

Miriam:

You do miss him.

Moyria:

Well yes but only as friends

Miriam :

Sure.

(Moyria's Grandfather sticks his head out of the apartment)

Grandfather:

AHhh Miriam its good to see you

Miriam:

You'll hafta wait like everyone else on my brownies.

(His face gains a sour look on it as he tries to cover-up his original plan)

Grandfather:

No, you misunderstood me I wish to speak with Moyria alone.

Miriam:

Well in that case I will get out of your way

Grandfather:

Come Moyria I have something for you.

(the scene changes to an outside cafe where Mina sits with Amy and a mopping Serena, who is occupying her time by stirring her untouched milkshake)

Mina:

Oh man Amy I think she's bummed again

Amy:

Serena, are you OK

(Serena does not acknowledging Amy talking to her)

Mina:

earth to Serena you OK

Serena:

huh

Amy:

You must really be out of it you haven't touched your milkshake in an hour are you okay

Serena:

I was just thinking of Darien

Amy:

Oh I see

Mina:

You and Darien do something last night

Serena:

Its not like that, he's been gone for about a week now. I was just wondering am I smothering him

Amy:

Well you do flip in a love crazed state each time you see him

Mina:

And you get jealous if he even asks a girl for directions to get somewhere

Amy:

And you always are hanging out with him in your spare time

Serena:

Okay I get your point

Mina:

what about

Serena:

(shouting at the top of her lungs) That's enough

(Mina and Amy both have embarrassed looks on their face as other customers stare at Serena)

Serena:

I only hope he will come back to me that's all

(Serena gains a sad look on her face)

Mina:

Oh come on Serena you two have been an item for centuries what makes you think he will leave you. I mean sure he kissed Moyria big deal.

Serena:

Maybe its nothing to you Mina but Darien is my guy I'm not about to lose him to some stuck up arrogant little.....

Mina:

Whoa there how do you even know Moyria want's Darien. I mean she has her boyfriend Sukura right.

Amy:

Yeah they can't have a relationship unless both of them want one right.

Serena:

I don't need to talk to her. She's after him I just know it.

Mina:

If you say so Serena

Amy:

speaking of Moyria where she been all this week

Serena:

(In a low growl) Probably out with Darien

Mina:

She said she was doing some training with her grandfather to prepare her for the road ahead or some junk like that

(the scene changes back to Moyria's apartment where she sits at her table a box is before her)

Grandfather:

Moyria inside this box is an item that will help fight Golum.

Moyria:

An item to defeat Golum.

Grandfather:

It is a magical talisman worn by your ancestors. When a life near to you needs help it will give you the power to protect that soul.

(Moyria Opens the box and pulls out a golden necklace that has one loop empty where something that once belong there)

Grandfather:

It will allow you to transform once again but it's power isn't complete until the missing piece can be rediscovered.

Moyria:

I can Transform again

Grandfather:

Well yes but the necklace will only work when its needed that is why I also have these for you

(He pulls out an object wrapped in a towel)

Moyria:

What is it.

Grandfather:

Open it and find out

(Moyria opens the towel to revile a golden gauntlet)

Grandfather:

with this you can call on magic to aid you but when you transform they are useless.

Moyria:

That's great but why are you giving me this because You need to be trained in mystic ways and since your only a half mystic you must use a relic to aid you in casting spells.

Grandfather:

Moyria:

oh please Grandfather get out of the dark ages I barely see a member of the Negaverse in a weeks time let alone get attacked in the shadows by some powerful beginning

Grandfather:

Sure say that now but just wait till you get attacked just you see (pause) Any way I'm off to get some of those brownies before their gone

Moyria:

You mean you going to snatch them before anybody else gets their hands on any

Grandfather:

(Grinning) not at all. So long.

(Moyria's Grandfather heads out of the apartment leaving Moyria sit before the two items he left for her.)

Curcit:

Do you think that those items will truly help us

Moyria:

Knowing grandfather, I have no idea.

(Meanwhile thousands of miles away in space on board Centurous's ship Iris looks on his captive who is being beaten by one of his minions.)

Iris:

Your pathetic Centurous. What did Geo ever see in you.

Centurous:

(coughing) You'll never get me to free him Iris. I will fight you with every drop of blood I have.

Iris:

Oh and you will. You will. You see I know the tale of Golum 's prison and how it takes the blood of his captures to free him. Your blood my dear and once freed he will aid us in destroying the Sailor Scouts once and for all.

(Centurous's face grows with hatred at the man whom she once fought along side. She feels betrayed as those who she trusted seek to destroy her and the one she thought as her enemy is the only one the misses her. The scene changes as Moyria sighs looking out her apartment window. She misses her sister. True that for years even before they both where sent a thousand in time they fought each other but little did they know that they weren't fighting in hatred but love. The waiting has gotten to Moyria she only wishes that her sister returns safely but she knows there is no way that will ever happen. A voice cries out to her drawing her attention its the voice of the guardian Luna.)

Luna:

Moyria are you OK

Moyria:

yes Luna I was just thinking

Luna:

Your grandfather tells me that you've been like this all week is something wrong

Moyria:

Its quiet

Luna:

Well yes but I don't see how that can hurt us

Moyria:

No you don't understand. I was raised by wars I was taught to kill while others where taught how to read and write. The quiet scares me. Its like something Raydon once told me. When its quiet you it tells you nothing, but it reminds you that you are alone.

Luna:

I guess things would have been different with Serena if Raydon stayed at the place all those years instead of fighting and teaching you and you sisters they ways of war.

Moyria:

I guess.

Luna:

But enough of this I came here to ask you why you haven't even spoken to any of the scouts in awhile

Moyria:

I guess I just need some time by myself, with Centurous taken prisoner by Iris I can't help but worry about what will happen next.

Luna:

That's not all you worry about is it.

Moyria:

Well um no.

Luna:

You miss him.

Moyria:

I miss just working with him and seeing his face everyday as I head out.

Luna:

Do you love him.

Moyria:

Maybe. I don't know. I like him as a friend but maybe something more. But I can't make him love me.

Luna:

I haven't noticed it but know I do see it.

Moyria:

See what?

Luna:

You and Serena your two sides of the same coin. as different as night and day but at the same time you two both are the same.

Moyria:

Maybe your right Luna.

Luna:

Well why don't we stop mopping around and go out and do something OK.

Moyria:

I guess so. Come on I'll treat you to a tuna fish ice cream cone.

Luna:

now your talking.

(The scene changes to another apartment this one is that of Andrew but we see Darien packing some things in a bag as Andrew brings in two cans of soda)

Andrew:

So you have any idea where your headed Darien.

Darien:

No, I just hope it will be better then last week. I spent the whole day wandering around Tokyo but nothing really came to me.

Andrew:

So why exactly are you doing this.

Darien:

Well you know how close Serena and I are.

Andrew:

Yeah

Darien:

Well I found another girl and I think may just love her as much as I do with Serena.

Andrew:

So your going to travel the wilds of Japan to find out which one is the one you truly love sounds like a little too much for me.

Darien:

Pretty much thanks for the gear Andrew.

Andrew:

no problem. You should take care now

(Darien leaves Andrew's apartment and walks alone the road toward the shadow of Mt. Fuji off in the distance in his hand he holds a notebook and a pen it is open to a page with a poem on it.)

In earth's night sky I look up to see the moon and stars

The moon shines high as it always has watching over me but now the stars also guard me at night lighting the empty darkness of my soul

My love reaches for both but I am denied both unless I give up on the other

But how can I deny my love for either the moon or the stars

the very thought of losing one tear at my soul as the day tears at the night

(The scene changes to the sidewalk along the cafe where Serena, Amy and Mina. have been sitting. Moyria walks down the path with Luna on her shoulder this catches Serena's eyes first causing her hatred for Moyria to be lashed out as she jumps out of her seat and comes after Moyria snatching Luna from Moyria)

Moyria:

Hey what's your problem Serena

Serena:

You are. Who said you could treat Luna like that.

Moyria:

Excuse me.

Serena:

there's No excuse for you

(the words only spark anger in Moyria)

Moyria:

Listen here Serena I don't know what your problem is but you better watch it.

Serena:

Or you'll do what. You lost your powers or have you forgot.

Moyria:

you need to cool of Serena.

(Moyria points her hand at a near by fire hydrant and mystically removes its top send water to come crashing out getting both her and Serena wet.)

Serena:

You and your stupid magic. Tell me is that how you stole Darien from me.

Moyria:

What?

Serena:

He left because of you or did you not know that.

Moyria:

How dare you blame me for his leaving

Serena:

You've been nothing but trouble since you came here.

Moyria:

I don't have too take this.

(Moyria begins to walk away as Serena continues to shout at her)

Serena:

Darien's leaving me, Centurours attacking us, the Negaverse, The Yarmoto Clan. There all your fault.

(Mina tries to hold her friend back)

Mina:

Calm down Serena Moyria is not our enemy.

Moyria:

No Mina she's right.

Mina, Amy and Luna:

What?

Moyria:

Since I'm so weak Serena I end our truce. I will never again fight at your side. You can fight your own battles while I fight mine.

Serena:

Fine

Moyria:

Goodbye

Serena:

Good riddance

Moyria:

Oh and one more thing now that our truce is over that means I'm going to face you again and when I do you won't survive

Serena:

Go ahead I'm not scared of you any more Moyria.

(Moyria walks off alone into the setting the sun. As the light burns away at her soul she knows that alone there is truly no way she will survive the battle that will soon face her. Meanwhile at his camp Darien sits eating a plate of rice)

Darien:

Its getting cold out here, I wonder how their down back in the city

(a voice cries out in the dark)

Voice:

Why have you come here.

Darien:

Who's there show yourself

Voice:

(much louder) Why have you come here?

Darien:

Who are you.

Voice:

You know who I am Prince Now Why are you here.

Darien:

Giha is that you.

Giha:

yes Prince It is I the one who gave you your power both times you have asked me but why do you seek me.

Darien:

I didn't come to seek you I came to get some answers.

Giha:

You lie I searched your heart you came to me why.

Darien:

I came to the forest to search for the answers I have. I didn't come for you

Giha:

Need I remind you who I am. I am every blade of grass, every rock, every creature that live on my body are each a part of me. I am the one you came looking for.

Darien:

If that's so can you help me.

Giha:

I have already given you more than anyone child why should I help you.

Darien:

Because I need to know who to love

Giha:

That is something I can't help you with because only your heart can answer that one. Don't worry it will come to you in time.

(Darien Stares at the shadows where the spirit has been hiding and notices that a small puddle of blood lays at Giha's feet)

Darien:

Blood but how.

Giha:

Its nothing child its just I'm not in as good shape as I was years ago. You see I need something from you child I need you to give back your powers I granted you so long ago.

To be continued in part 2.....

The song for this part is called "changing"

Sailor Moon: Andromita Factor The movie part 2 “Shadow Fall”

To the girls side is the body of another girl laying unconscious on the ground near her is the body of a young gentleman.and between the girl and the Monster is one lone soul.)

Monster:

(laughing) puny humans your family may have banished me once before but I will see to it that I get my revenge when the last of your line lay dead at my feet.

Karna:

You never destroy the one I care about

Monster:

Is that so

Karna:

I’m sorry dear sister I must leave you.

Andromita:

What are you talking about, Karna

Karna:

In order to defeat the monster I must see to it that he never harms another I must call on the power of our part 2 ancestors to aid me

Andromita:

But I don't understand how come you got to go

Karna:

I must Make sure that no one ever sets him free again

Golum:

Your magic can not destroy me

Karna:

No but it can stop you.

(Karna holds the mystic key of her mothers and gives an incantation)

Karna:

Power of earth I ask you severices lend me the power that brings life to in cage our foes.

(Light surrounds Karna and the Monster as the light dims the tempter drops and where the two souls where now lay a mountain of ice)

Karna:

Farewell dear child may light guide you down the path of righteousness.....

Andromita:

Farewell dear

(the scene changes to present day at Moyria's apartment as Moyria stands look at her mystic necklace)

Moyria :

Sister.

(Moyria looks on as the light sparkles on the necklace)

Moyria:

It's time. It's time I face the destiny I have lead myself on. the journey started so long ago but now I fear there is no stopping Geo from freeing Golum.

(Curcit who was sitting quietly on the TV decides to interrupt his mistress)

Curcit:

Um well mistress we could always attack Geo before Golum is released at least then we would have a weakened the forces against us

Moyria:

And how am I going to do that I don't even know where he's hiding out

Curcit:

But I do

Moyria:

You know where Geo is hiding why didn't you say so before

Curcit:

Well you never asked

Moyria:

Are you sure you know where he is

Curcit:

Positive they are located in a underground lair in the northern hemisphere not too far from the base where Sailor Moon fought Beryl.

Moyria:

Then In that case Curcit put on a fur coat we

Curcit:

why is that mistress

Moyria:

Because We're going hunting .

(the scene changes to Serena's room where Luna and Serena are having an argument)

Luna:

One of these day Serena your stubborn audited is going to get you into allot of trouble

Serena:

Stubborn! why I never.

Luna:

Moyria was trying to help us now you got her against us again

Serena:

Good We don't need that kind of dead weight around.

Luna:

Oh really as I recall She seems to be the only one that has any knowledge of what we're up against here

Serena:

Oh please I can handle Geo with one hand tied behind my back.

Luna:

this from a girl that can't walk and chew gum with out falling flat on her face

Serena:

I heard that

Luna:

Good then hear this until the negaverse is destroy I want you two to get along no matter what one does to the other.

Serena:

And If I don't

Luna:

then you'll find your dairy Shredded in Sammy's room

Serena:

you wouldn't dare

Luna:

Try me

Serena:

all right I help her out but I will not forgive her for stealing Darien

Luna:

Good then I'll go tell her the news

(meanwhile Off in a distant woods Darien Is struck with shock from the message he has received from Giha.)

Giha:

You must give me back your powers Young prince

Darien:

No I can't I need them

Giha:

You Have no choice I must receive the powers

Darien:

No I will not give them back I need them

Giha:

Then hear this young prince I will let you hold on to your powers for now but by dawns light I must take your powers from you by force. You will face my champion and you will lose.

Darien:

Not likely.

(the flashback fades as Darien watches the sun rise on his camp Regret of his choice feels like he is trying to swallow a boulder.)

Darien:

Dawn. Odd how I come looking for the answer to my question and end up in a fight for my life.

(Darien watches as a figure dressed in all black with a scarf covering his mouth and a bandanna placed on the top of his head, comes walking from the light of the sun. Without saying a word the warrior withdraws a blade from within his dark figure. Darien's instant reaction is reaching for the golden rose which now holds the last of Tuxedo Masks power. As the light hits the rose it reflects down upon Darien turning him into the super hero Tuxedo Mask)

Tuxedo Mask:

All right pal lets see what you got

(With no sound the figure runs and is in the air over Tuxedo mask within a matter of two seconds. Tuxedo Mask dodges the foes just barley having a piece of his cape ripped as the torn cloth falls to the ground it lands as a single petal from the golden rose.)

Tuxedo Mask:

Not bad but now its my turn.

(Tuxedo Mask pulls out a white rose throws it in a spin of which sends the petals off as small dirks aimed at his adversary. As the blades reach a few inches to the Dark figure they seem to fall to the ground.)

Tuxedo Mask:

No way How did he do that

(The figure moves into stance to run Tuxedo Mask through. But this time Tuxedo Mask is ready. Pulling out his cane he leaps up to avoid the charging foe. Once Tuxedo Mask Lands He notices that the foe is About to retry his last move. As the Foe charges Tuxedo Mask loosens his cape and drops it on the head of his foe and hits him with his cane knocking his foe to the ground.)

Tuxedo Mask:

That was too easy

Giha:

Congratulations on your loss young prince

(With anger Tuxedo Mask tears away his mask)

Tuxedo Mask:

What Are you talking about I beat you warrior

Giha:

Oh you beat the warrior but you didn't beat my champion

(Tuxedo Mask lifts the cape and reveals the face of his foe to be his own)

Giha:

The deal was that you the young prince that came to me years ago fight my greatest champion the warrior Tuxedo Mask.

Tuxedo Mask:

You tricked me

Giha :

Naturally. You didn't think you true could defeat the world with you pitiful ego. Your a mortal. You are As much a part of this world as the trees and rocks to fight me is to fight yourself.

Tuxedo Mask:

You didn't mention any of this to me How was I to have a fair fight.

Giha:

Fair. Nothing is ever fair. You think its fair that the one that gave you humans life should face her destruction because of you. Nothing Fair in life you play what hand is giving you even the gods must obey these rules. Now I must take what is Mine.

(In a swoop of her hand Tuxedo Mask reverts back to Darien. below him lays the golden rose turned to a darker color it lies dead upon the ground. As The hero Tuxedo Mask is no more. The scene changes to Moyria's apartment Moyria stands with a over coat on in her hand is the gauntlet give to her by her grandfather and around her neck is the necklace that is suppose to return her powers She stands ready but soon there is a knock on her door and upon opening it she reveals her boyfriend Sukura with Luna standing below his feet.)

Sukura:

Hey Moyria I just came by to see if you wanted to grab something to eat when this cat followed me up to your room.

Moyria:

Oh yeah well thats my neighbors cat I'm taking care of her for right now. Come on in.

(Sukura walks in and Luna follows and goes on into Moyria's Bedroom where she gestures for her to follow.)

Sukura:

Its a bit warm for that isn't it.

Moyria:

Huh Oh yeah (taking notice of her jacket) Well I was just truing it on to see how it fit.

Sukura:

Well I can't stay too long I got to get back before some of my classes start I just wanted to know if you wanted to come get some thing to eat.

Moyria:

Umm this isn't exactly the best time Suke.

Sukura:

Well how about tonight I know a great restaurant nearby.

Moyria:

Its not like I don't Want to Suke its just I can't.

Sukura:

Oh I see.

Moyria:

Its not like that

Sukura:

Yeah sure it isn't

(Sukura makes his way out the door when Moyria grabs him and give him a kiss goodbye. He doesn't notice the tear in her eye as they kiss.)

Sukura:

What was that for.

Moyria:

I just wanted to say goodbye

(Sukura leaves down the hall with a heavy heart and a puzzled look and he says one word as he walks down the hall shaking his head)

Sukura:

Women

(Moyria Wipes away the tear as she closes the door a whistle comes from the bedroom door where her grandfather stands)

Grandfather:

Wish the Lades told me goodbye like that I would leave more of them (starts Laughing rather Loud)

Moyria:

Oh shut up

(Moyria walks into the bedroom as Luna stands puzzled by the packed bag of supplies laying on the bed.)

Luna:

you seam to be leaving are you moving

Moyria:

No. Now what do you want.

Luna:

I convinced Serena that your not out to get her. She willing to fight with you again and

Moyria :

I don't need help Luna

Luna:

Those bags of supplies your going to fight him aren't you.

Moyria:

Yes

Luna:

If you wait a few minutes we could gather the scouts and they could help you fight Geo.

(Moyria's tone changes from quiet to angry)

Moyria:

You don't understand I don't want your help Geo is mine. I promised myself on Raydon's deathbed that I would avenge him for his murder.

Luna:

But Geo is too powerful you'll have to face his minions

Moyria:

We figure that most of his minions are busy holding Centurous on Mars right now we may never get a clearer shot at Geo then now. So I'm going to do the job alone.

Luna:

But ...what if you don't come back.

Moyria:

I m not going to return

Luna:

This is nuts You plan to take on the Negaverse as a one man army storming in there and taking out their leader and You plan to sacrifice it all for you revenge

Moyria:

My revenge is all I have

(meanwhile on Mars a dazed Centurous wakes up from unconsciousness to find her self strapped to the mountain of ice with a monster holding a blade at her hand. A prayer slips from her lips)

Centurous:

Dear sisters I have failed thee. I hope you can find the power to stop the monster that will soon be released By my hand.

(Her hands makes a quick jerk as the blade runs across her hand and almost instantly blood rushes down her cut and on to the ice of the mountain. With the touch of the blood the mountain send out a massive flash of light as the rumble of the ice cracking away Cneturous is broken free but remains weaken by her numb body from the pure cold of the ice. Nothing is seen as a cloud of snow and Ice tumbles toward s the ground . The ice soon settles and there is no noise nor anything but sky where the mountain once stood. This not only shocks Iris but enrages the Negaverse lackey.)

Iris:

Impossible The legendary Creature Was suppose to be here we did everything to exact order.

(a limp Ceturous lets out a laugh)

Centurous:

Hehhheee your A fool Iris if you think you can control something like Golum.

Iris:

Silence witch I you where the one to tell lord Geo of the monster. So tell me why does he not appear We have come here to free him, to make him our puppet.

(The ground begins to rumble letting out a ghostly cry)

Iris:

What's going on

Centurous:

The monster you so wanted to control has come.....To destroy you.

(A massive hand of stone reaches from the ice and grabs the body of Iris)

Iris:

Noooooooooo

Golum:

You wish to make me a puppet. Interesting a weak mortal dares to become a god . But carry a mortal form Lets us see if you can really become a god.

(Golum raises his other fist)

Iris:

No I freed you II

Golum:

You die

(The fist of Golum lands in his hand where Iris was held. Blood runs from Golum's hand)

Golum:

As I thought he was just another mere mortal

(Centurous watches as the monster now towers over her. she sees a slight glimmer of light on Golum's chest)

Centurous:

It can't be. But it is. She survived our sister has survived.

(Golum takes notice of the limp Centurous below picking her up with two fingers)

Golum:

Well what do we have here it seems you have survived our last fight warrior but you will not survive this time.

Centurous:

Monster I may not be able to stop you but my sister will

Golum:

Ah yes the young girl so she too is alive I promise you it wouldn't be for long.

Centurous:

You look at your self and think your immortal but your just as weak as we are Golum you will die

Golum:

Silly mortal You can not kill a god like me

Centurous:

We shall see

Golum:

I tier of thee mortal. But for releasing me I will allow you to choose your death

Centurous:

Shove it

Golum:

Very well

(Golum: tosses her toward the ground crushing her bones as she hits but Centurous remains alive laying and watching as the monster crushes the minions of the Negaverse and the ship. She watches as he sets himself up to leave Mars and make his way to the planet earth. The monster vanishes like a dark cloud from the world as the eyes of the once great bounty hunter, Centurous, fades away into the darkness of space. Meanwhile in the frozen North a chill runs down Moyria's body she Knows what is coming and she knows that her sister has left her for good and now for the first time in her life She truly feels that she is alone. She hesitates for a moment but walks on toward the lair of her arch rival Geo.)

Moyria:

He's coming I must hurry and defeat Geo before he arrives or else no one will be able to stop him.

(Meanwhile in Geo's lair He sits rather annoyed that he has yet to hear a word on his latest minion.)

Geo:

Why Have I not heard from them

Shadowen:

I think the fool Iris failed you

Geo:

Not likely Shadowen . At least he didn't return to me in such a weak condition. You had all the scouts in you grasp you should have finished them off. But you're lust for that one caused you to be defeat by just one of them.

Your pathetic.

(an alarm goes off)

Geo:

What is it

Shadowen:

It seems to be a visitor. Do you want me to destroy her.

(Geo Notices who the visitor is)

Geo:

No I want to face her myself. Take the rest of the warriors to volcano to wait for Iris's arrival with our new friend.

(outside the base)

Moyria:

Well this is the place . (pause) Hmm no guards could be trouble.

(Moyria walks on in the entrance. As she walks on the cavern walls change from stone to metal. some broken computers line the wall and almost instantly Moyria recognizes the place as the brig to the Stardust. Last time she walked down this hall with Goe in shackles when an explosion set by one of his minions freed him.)

Moyria:

If This is the Stardust brig then Geo would more then likely be in the place where this all began the bridge.

(Moyria follows the hall and trembles as she look down upon this ghost from her past finally she reaches the door to the bridge she uses her code to open the door. Inside its dark and quiet. Moyria walks in and looks around she lets out a sigh of depression.)

Moyria:

Raydon what am suppose to do. You have tried so hard to teach me the path to the light but all I see is the darkness. How can I fight this battle alone. I have no chance to win this war.

(Sounds of clapping comes from the darkness Moyria turns to see Geo sitting in the captains chair with a skull next to him and a crown on his head. He picks up the skull and places the crown on its head and talks to it)

Geo:

At last Raydon She learned how much of a failure she really is. Like father, like daughter.

Moyria:

Geo

Geo:

What no kiss hello

Moyria:

Kiss this

(Moyria Shoot a blast of energy from her wrist at Geo who avoids it by teleporting.)

Geo:

Ooooooh A light show. Come now where is the true Warrior this is no anger from the girl that watched as I brutally kill her only family

Moyria:

Shut up

(Moyria tosses another blast of energy at Geo and once again he teleports avoiding the blast)

Geo:

Oh how I enjoyed killing the king of the Moon Kingdom watching his blood run made me feel so good

Moyria:

Shut up

(another shot of energy and another dodge by Geo)

Geo:

Face It you have no power. You lose.

(Moyria's anger reaches its peak and instead of a small energy blast a massive ball of energy goes fling hitting Goe by surprise sending him toward the ground but little more)

Geo:

Auuh looks like I hit a nerve

Moyria:

One Thousand Years ago I made a promise to Raydon That I would destroy you and now I will keep my promise

(a voice cries out from the darkness halting Moyria from sending another Bolt of energy at Geo)

Sailor Moon:

Noo You Must stop this now Moyria

Moyria:

What do you know Sailor Moon. I said I don't need your help

Sailor Moon:

I was with you when we saw the event at the Moon Kingdom tell me you don't truly remember Raydon's last words to you.

(the scene flashes back to Raydon's last few moments)

Andromita:

Father I will avenge you I swear

Raydon:

Andromita no My life is meaningless but if we are to ever win this war you must learn to trust others. You must or you will perish.

Andromita:

I will never forget Father This I promise

(the scene changes back to the present)

Sailor Moon:

Did you truly forget his last words

(Moyria stands still as her hand starts to lower and tears fill her face. Little does she see Geo prepare his attack)

Geo:

Farewell fool

Sailor Moon:

No Moyria

(The cry out is far too late as the blast hits Moyria deep within her side she falls toward the ground)

Sailor Moon:

You jerk take this "Lunar Strike"

(A blast from Sailor Moon's staff hits Geo in his leg as he runs off laughing)

Sailor Moon:

Moyria are you okay

Moyria:

Ouch that one hurt. It stings like hell but I think Ill be fine. Which way did Geo go.

Sailor Moon:

he ran off but we need to take care of you right now

Moyria:

No you don't understand if Geo and Golum get together we're all doomed

Sailor Moon:

Golum Who's he

Moyria:

I'll explain later but right now I could use a little help getting up.

Sailor Moon:

Oh But I though you didn't need my help

(Moyria Starts to laugh)

Moyria:

You know I'm a really stubborn person.

Sailor Moon:

You can say that again

(Sailor Moon Helps Moyria to her feet as just as the other scouts enter the room along with the three guardians)

Luna:

Okay listen up scouts We are about to go into a battle unlike any we have ever faced before

Curcit:

If We do not defeat Geo in the next thirty minutes. It likely we won't be able to get a second chance.

Moyria:

Mercury you Mars, Venus, and Jupiter take care of any Minions giving Sailor Moon a clear path to reach Geo.

Sailor Moon:

What About you.

Moyria:

I'm going to see if I can't buy us any more time against Golum.

Artimis:

How do you plan to do this

Moyria:

I used to be second in command of this ship I might be able to get it flying again if so I can hold Golum back for maybe 10 to 15 minutes more. I can't defeat him But I can we can slow him down.

Curcit:

I will assist you

Luna::

So will I

Moyria:

Thank You but only I can stand up to his power I'm expecting you two to protect the others and to see to it that Geo is destroyed The Time of judgment has come.

To be continued in part 3.....

the midi that is playing is called "Reasons" It was selected to describe Moyria's dedication to hunt down Geo alone

Sailor Moon: Andromita Factor

Shadows of the past part 3:

"Darkness Strikes"

Purple = Character

Green = Action

black = Spoken

(the scene opens with a young Andromita running to a man in armor)

Andromita:

Papa's home. Papa's home.

(The man walks right passed Andromita and her mood changes to sad one. The man disappears into the darkness of an empty house. Minjuki, has been watching her daughter with Raydon next to her.)

Minjuki:

She's been like that for days now.

Raydon:

Did you tell her about what happened.

Minjuki:

I told Karna but, Andromita is so young I think if she knew her father was gone I think it would destroy her. I don't want to hurt her.

Raydon:

Unfortunately the monster that killed him is gone. To where I don't know. But Im quiet sure he will return.

Minjuki:

I think it would be best if you help teach her. She has incredible power and is a wonderful student.

Raydon:

Five years ago I would have been happy to take her on as my daughter. But things are different now Minjuki Im married now to Serenity and we have our own daughter to raise I can't simply abandon Serena. Nor can I abandon my role as king of the Moon Kingdom.

Minjuki:

Please Raydon. All I ask is for you to teach her help her learn how to live a fruitful life.

Raydon:

Very well. I will teach her the path to self righteousness.

(The scene changes from Minjuki's death, to Karna's death, and finally to Raydon's Murder. The scene goes black and fades onto the decaying remains of the stardust where Moyria stands punching through codes on the computer attempting to enable flight)

Moyria:

Well the computers still work after a thousand years of rest but I'm having doubts about this thing being able to fly again. Just hope Sailor Moon and the others get their chance to stop Geo.

Computer:

Warning Unidentified object entering Earth's atmosphere.

Moyria:

Damn its to soon Ill never get this heap of junk to hold off Golum. Computer Where is this object headed.

Computer:

Target will be approaching Northern Tokyo

Moyria:

He wants me to come to him then. Computer can the Stardust return to flying status.

Computer:

Negative.

Moyria:

Well there goes my trip back to Tokyo. The only way back is if I get something that can fly me there. Computer is there any other form of transportation on board.

Computer:

There is a cargo transport in the hanger. It's condition is unknown

Moyria:

If it can fly it will work I guess.

(Moyria Dashes off out of the bridge as the scene fades and Open with the scouts chasing Geo who is laughing madly down the passage way.)

Geo:

HAhAhahahahahahahaHhahahahaha

Luna:

After him scouts, if he gets away this time we may not get a second chance.

Sailor Venus:

cool it Luna we got Curcit on our side theres no way he can escape us while we have Curcit tracking him.

(Curcit comes to dead halt in the middle of an intersection and sits there puzzled.)

Curcit:

That's odd

Sailor Moon:

good Idea lets stop and take a break

Sailor Mercury:

Well Curcit which way did he go.

Curcit:

it appears that he went all three ways

Sailor Jupiter:

How the heck could he go all three ways. You must be missing a part or something.

Curcit:

I am in perfect working order and my sensors do not lie he went all three ways.

Luna:

I guess we are going to hafta split up

Artimis:

Venus, Mercury, and myself will take the right.

Curcit:

Jupiter and Mars will follow me to the left leaving Sailor Moon and Luna to continue down the straight path.

Sailor Mercury:

Are sure thats wise

Curcit:

Its our only option.

Sailor Venus:

Curcit's right we don't have time to waste on this. lets get going.

(Venus dashes on down the left path with Artimis and Mercury trailing behind)

Sailor Jupiter:

Venus seems to be take this all seriously

Sailor Mars:

Like it's a difference from earlier.

Sailor Jupiter:

Well I mean she doesn't seem like her cheery self any more.

Luna:

Worry about that later, Jupiter we need to hunt down Geo.

Sailor Mars:

Right lets go Jupiter.

Sailor Jupiter:

All right.

(Mars and Jupiter head down the right passage after Curcit who has gone ahead of them.)

Luna:

You ready Sailor Moon.

Sailor Moon:

Yeah I guess so.

Luna:

What is it.

Sailor Moon:

I don't know but I just can't help but keep thinking about home.

Luna:

Well I suggest you concentrate on the task at hand. Now lets go.

Sailor Moon:

Okay, Okay. I'm coming.

(Sailor Moon heads down the path straight ahead with Luna by her side, Meanwhile Darien stands in the woods where not to long ago he lost the powers of Tuxedo Mask. He can't help but stare at the dead fallen petals on the ground of the woods.)

Darien:

So it's all over. I no longer can become Tuxedo Mask. I can no longer save the world from danger. I can no longer protect Serena. I guess this is the answer to my question. Maybe I never loved Serena to being with maybe I was just looking for some one I could just talk to. Someone like, Moyria. But I don't understand I love them both and they both loved me. No. They loved him. The him that is gone. Tuxedo mask is dead and the love they had for him is gone as well. What am I saying they both love me as Darien as well. Damn it. I'm no better off then when I started.

Strange Voice:

Sounds like your really hung up on someone there.

Darien:

Huh who's there.

(A figure steps out of the shadows to reveal Moyria's Grandfather)

Grandfather:

So your stuck pulling a rose by it's thorns.

Darien:

Excuse me

Grandfather:

It's an old saying almost as old as me. It comes from a fable. A young man was in love with a woman and went into a mystic forest to find the perfect gift for her. He came upon a beautiful rose covered in thorns but next to it was a plain rose with few thorns. He felt his love to be strong enough that his love would forgive him for the average rose. He took the plain rose with no thorns to his love. When he presented the rose to his love it was already dead. This caused his love to hate him. So you see some time one must suffer a little pain to gain the love we search for all our lives.

Darien:

But I don't know which one I want to love.

Grandfather:

No I believe you do. Tell me what is in that note book there.

Darien:

A stupid poem I wrote

Grandfather:

No that is your heart filled answer my boy that is where you answered your question. Now you only need to prove your love. Well I'm getting stiff and these old bones aren't like they use to be. I hope to be seeing you back at the apartment building later my lad. So long.

Darien:

The old man's a kook.

(Darien picks up the notebook in which he has written his poem and reads it out loud)

Darien:

In earth's night sky I look up to see the moon and stars
The moon shines high as it always has watching over me but now the stars also guard me at night lighting the empty darkness of my soul
My love reaches for both but I am denied both unless I give up on the other
But how can I deny my love for either the moon or the stars the very thought of losing one tears at my soul as the day tears at the night
I look at the stars that guide me

They let me know I'm not alone out there

Their light warms me

I look at the moon its loyalty is strong as it stands by me

I know it will always be there each night even if I fail to see it

It watches over me giving me all its love.

I watch all night

I watch as the night answers me with the coming of dawn I watch the stars fade where to I don't know I don't even know if they will even return

For every day Stars are born and die

But the Moon remains in the sky watching as it has always done giving me all its love and more...

Because I love her back.

(Darien slowly closes the book silently picks up his gear and begins to walk toward town. The scene changes to the passage where Jupiter and Mars are headed. As the possibility of what has happened to cause them to break up)

Sailor Jupiter:

I've been thinking.

Sailor Mars:

What about.

Sailor Jupiter:

Well you remember the journey we went on at the Moon Kingdom.

Sailor Mars:

Yeah what about it.

Sailor Jupiter:

Well we where told Geo was the vessel for the Negaforce to travel to Earth. What if for safety reasons the Negaforce had kept a little piece to the Negaforce in him.

Sailor Mars:

As I recall the Negaforce feed on energy of humans.

Sailor Jupiter:

Yes but Nephlyte succeeded in gaining the most amount of energy from one source.

Sailor Mars:

Yeah, He would take energy when it hit it's peak. By causing a person to face their greatest challenges.

Sailor Jupiter:

Yeah and who do we know is going up against her greatest challenge.

Sailor Mars:

Moyria?

Sailor Jupiter:

Exactly.

Sailor Mars:

Are you saying this is all just a trick to keep us busy while Moyria releases all her energy at Golum, So the Negaforce can be set free again.

Sailor Jupiter:

I think its all ready free. I think it want's power to grow stronger.

Sailor Mars:

What do you mean it's already free.

Sailor Jupiter:

Remember how Geo acted before he became one with the Negaforce. He actually said that Beryl somehow had changed. I think the Negaforce is something more then what Beryl or Geo thought it was. I think in some way it is in some way it's own life form.

Sailor Mars:

You think Geo's being controlled by it

Sailor Jupiter:

Yes I do

Sailor Mars:

Then I suggest we contact the others and try to stop Moyria before she faces Golum

(A Dark laugh fills the passage)

Geo:

I don't think so Sailor Fools.

Sailor Jupiter:

Geo

Geo:

Not exactly dear Jupiter. That pathetic soul died years ago when I joined with him. But enough talk. Because I've come here to kill you.

Sailor Mars:

But how where you able to split up like that

Geo:

Why it is a simple task for one with as much power as mine.

Sailor Jupiter:

Why did you pick Moyria

Geo:

I need her power from her anger. I hunger for it. Naturally I thought the mere sight of me the murder of her mentor and the man she called father would be enough. But I was wrong so I sent for another figure of her hatred.

Sailor Jupiter:

Centurous.

Geo:

Yes, Moyria had great anger for her sister but unfortunately. It wasn't pure hatred so I had to seek out the one thing that would tear her hatred from her. The Demon Golum. He is the embodiment of her fears. When ever man kind faces his fears he faces them first as frightened as a mere babe. But so the fear turns into unbridle hatred and disgust. No matter how the battle ends I will win. So you see there is no way to stop me.

Sailor Mars:

Guess again

(Mars holds out her whip)

Geo:

Oh please you intend to stop me with that

Sailor Mars:

No, This.

(Mars lashes out her whip toward a pipe releasing a cloud of smoke causing Geo to temporally go blind allowing Mars and Jupiter to escape)

Geo:

Hahaahahaha Fools, They thought I was the real one.

(the Illusion of Geo fades as the smoke settles. The scene changes to just along the vast fields of Hakkaido as a shout of excitement is let out from Moyria who is rushing down the country side on what looks to be a floating platform.)

Moyria:

I forgotten how much fun this was. I haven't done this since we where on Findora.

(the crafts great speed sends her in no time down across Tsugaru strait)

Moyria:

At this rate I'll reach Tokyo in no time.

(little does she notice the dark object that falls suddenly toward the ground striking the ground in an earth shattering blast. The mere force of the blast causes massive waves in the strait changing Moyria's joy to one of hatred)

Moyria:

So He's here. No matter what happens now nothing can keep me from stopping him.

(Time passes and Moyria's craft now float's along the mass buildings of iron and glass spectators are in aw as they watch her float above their heads. It takes little time for her to find his trail. As the Building have changed to masses of smoking rubble.)

Moyria:

Damn it Golum. Why? Why, did you bring these people in our fight.

(Moyria begins to fly lower looking for survivors. when she gets a call on her wrist computer)

Moyria:

What is it?

Voice of Sailor Moon:

Hey Moyria how you hanging in there

Moyria:

I wish I knew where that monster was hiding

Voice of Sailor Moon:

No luck on your end ether huh?

(Moyria looks at a important structure of Serena's life and is caught dead quiet as the remains of Serena's home lay crushed)

Voice of Sailor Moon:

Is everything okay. Hello. Are you still there?

Moyria:

Yeah I'm fine it's nothing. I'll talk to you later okay.

(Moyria shut off her wrist computer and stands there quietly as the wind blows through her hair)

Moyria:

It's all my fault. My sister. And now Serena's home. Just hope her family wasn't in there when it happened.

(A faint cry comes from a nearby structure that has fallen. Moyria Walks towards the rubble and finds a young child crying over here mothers body)

Child:

whaaaaahaahaaaa

Moyria:

Are you okay there.

Child:

Lady help my mommy please.

Moyria: (to self)

Poor kid she's just like me. All alone. I wish there was a way I could just wave my hand and bring back her mother. Damn it. Theres no way I'm letting Golum get away not this time. (Out loud) Where is he?

Child:

Lady I'm scared.

Moyria:

Don't worry I'll protect you.

Child:

But if you protect me then....

(The child's voice changes to a deep monstrous voice. A voice that shatters Moyria's heart just hearing it.)

Child:

Who will save you from me.

(The child's hand changes to a claw ripping at Moyria's shoulder, causing her to scream in sheer pain)

Moyria:

GOLUM.....so thats ...where you've been hiding.

Golum:

A gift to the one who released me so long ago. You I am able to change into anyone I have destroyed.....

Karna:

Anyone. Like me.

Moyria:

sisterKarna your alive

Kanra:

Yes, and I've come to bring you something dear sister.

Moyria:

No your not her she die when she stopped you.

(Golum reverts from his form of Karna only to take a different form. The form of a young man)

Young man:

Dear child you can't just sit there and cry over the ones you love.

Moyria:

....p....Pa...Papa is that really you. Papa.

(tears fill Moyria's eyes as the scene changes to a few minutes earlier in the passage way where Sailor Moon has taken)

Sailor Moon:

Damn she's hiding sometime, and now she hung up on me. Just wait till I see her again she's gonna get an ear full.

Luna:

Calm down Serena and focus on the task at hand.

(All of a sudden Jupiter and Mars come running down the hall way)

Sailor Moon:

Sailor Mars. Sailor Jupiter. What's wrong.

Sailor Jupiter:

It's all a trap we running around while the Negaforce drains Moyria dry.

Sailor Moon:

Huh

Sailor Mars:

Don't stand there contact Moyria she's in serious trouble.

Luna:

We can't contact her she cut off her communications with us

Sailor Mars:

This is bad real bad.

Sailor Moon:

What is it?

Sailor Mars:

Geo is using Golum to build up Moyria's energy through anger and when she reaches her peak he is going to drain her dry.

Sailor Moon:

What?

Luna:

You're right Mars this is serious but How can we get back in time to warn her without Venus and Mercury we cant teleport back.

Sailor Mars:

Then we truly lost.

(The scene changes to Darien's apartment where Darien has returned. Moyria's Grandfather stands in the hall looking out the window. Darien suddenly falls to the ground reaching for his head.)

Darien:

She's in trouble but how can I help her

Grandfather:

Who are you talking to boy.

Darien:

Serena she's in trouble.

Grandfather:

Let me see.

(Moyria's Grandfather places his hand on Darien's head and sees that Serena is fine)

Grandfather:

Odd

Darien:

What is it.

Grandfather:

She is fine but I do sense that there is something that worries them. I'm going to see if I can find out what it is

(He concentrates and an image of Moyria laying hurt next to Golum)

Grandfather:

Oh dear dear this just wouldn't do.

Purple = Character

Green = Action

black = Spoken

(The scene opens to a open field where a young Andromita is running along with an expression of joy on her face. But the expression on her face quickly changes when she comes alone a block of ice.)

Young Andromita:

Papa is that you

(she looks closer at the block of ice. Touching it with her hand. When a young man comes dashing across the field yelling at Andromita)

Young man:

Andromita! Mistress Andromita.

Young Andromita:

Huh

Young man:

Andromita come now this is not a place for you.

Young Andromita:

But my father.

Young Man:

Come along now the professor is waiting for you.

(young Andromita turns away from the ice block and heads back. As the Two walk away the ice begins to glow and crack. The scene changes to vessel Aurgoes which has become a base for the survivors of the planet Haliger. Moyria sits in a lone room wrap in chains. A dark voice hits her with question after question.)

Voice:

Tell me why did you release him on us?

Moyria:

Him , You mean Golum. Who are you? How do you know me? How do you know about him?

Voice:

We will ask the questions. Why did you release Golum on us?

Moyria:

I don't know what you talking about. Who are you?

Voice:

So you honestly don't know who I am. Very well I am the descendent of the on who you learned how to protect the Moon Kingdom.

Moyria:

Impossible Raydon's only child was the princess.

Voice:

No I'm not Raydon's child. Remember there was another that taught you.

Moyria:

Kisanda, he was once the Galaxies greatest bounty hunter. Raydon brought me to him to learn how the be a better warrior.

Voice:

So you do remember. My name is Cosair and there is another hear my sister Jaspin.

Moyria:

That name sounds familiar as well

Cosair:

Yes we are also the descendants of the Original Jaspin. Who was to teach you how to be a proper lady. But she fell with Kisanda in the battle against Golum over a thousand years ago.

Moyria:

Tell me why have you brought me here.

Cosair:

You are on trail for the destruction of 20 million lives.

Jaspin:

You were the one to release the monster Golum on us. Why? Our ancestors took care of you they raised you with love.

Moyria:

I didn't release him.

Cosair:

Lair.

Moyria:

How dare you call me a liar I'm telling the truth.

Cosair:

When we want the truth we can extract it without you telling us.

Moyria:

What are you talking about.

Cosair:

When you were brought in here we implanted a little device that literally scans your memory for the truth and projects it for all to see. We watched as you touched the block of ice freeing the demon Golum

Moyria:

II freed him. I let the monster go this can be. This just can't be.

(The scene fades to the base of the Negaverse where Sailor Moon, Mercury, Mars, Jupiter and Venus.)

Sailor Moon:

You have no way to win Geo.

Geo:

How did you take the power from me. Shadowen help me?

Sailor Venus:

He can't help you now. No one can.

Geo:

Shadowen you coward help.

(The dark voice of Shadowen fills the hallway)

Shadowen:

What a sorry state the leader of the Negaforce is. It looks like its time for a new leader. Haahahahahahaaaaaa

Sailor Venus:

Where are you Shadowen I'm not finished with you.

Shadowen:

I'm sorry Venus but I must lead my army to our new home. And Geo don't worry I'll take good care of your minions.

Geo:

Curse you. Curse all you traitors.

(Geo is quiet as tears come from his eyes as he grits his teeth)

Geo:

Well Sailor Moon what are you waiting for go ahead destroy me now is your chance.

Sailor Moon:

I'm not cold blooded like you Geo.

Geo:

It doesn't matter the remaining fragment of the Negaforce has left me. My minions are gone and now even the object of my desire is gone.

Sailor Jupiter:

But I thought you possessed a little bit of the Negaforce.

Geo:

I did once but without the power of hatred it left me and went looking for a new host. I'm nothing anymore. Just an empty shell. So go ahead destroy me. There is nothing more here for me. Maybe for once a I can rest.

Sailor Moon:

I wouldn't do it. I can't.

Geo:

Then I'm doomed.

(just then a spike raises from the ground stabbing Geo dead on in the chest)

Shadowen:

If they are to weak I will finish you so that the trust of my new army will be stronger.

Geo:

Thank.....y..o...u.....

(Geo passes away as the dark figure of Shadowen slips back into the shadows. Venus heads after him but is stopped by Sailor who holds her back)

Sailor Moon:

Let him go for now.

Sailor Mars:

Yeah Venus we need to find out where Moyria went to and help her before Golum destroys her.

(The scene changes to moments later as The scouts have returned to Moyria's Apartment in hope that they can find out what had happened to Moyria)

Grandfather:

She is gone I'm afraid.

Sailor Mars:

You mean she's dead.

(Moyria's Grandfather can't help but break out in laughter)

Grandfather:

Dead?...AHAHHHAAAHAa. That's a good one obviously you don't know who your talking about. Moyria has left this world to search for the answers of Golum's past.

Sailor Jupiter:

Well then what about Golum.

Grandfather:

He is now on his way after Moyria and he will find her soon.

Sailor Mars:

Then we must do something. We must help her out. She can't defeat Golum a lone can she.

Grandfather:

Actually she can't defeat him at all.

Everybody:

What !!?

Sailor Mars:

Then why is she even go off alone to face him alone the first time.

Sailor Mercury:

That doesn't matter Mars we must find some way to help her. Anybody got any idea's.

Sailor Moon:

Why don't we just teleport there like always

Luna:

Unfortunately you can only teleport along earth Serena. If Moyria is on another planet it's a little difficult to get there by teleporting there.

Grandfather:

Not exactly

Sailor Venus:

Then you can get us there

Grandfather:

No, not all of you I can only take one other with me

Sailor mercury:

But why would you have to go along

Grandfather:

Well I was able to send Moyria there with my power but in order for Moyria and who ever goes to come back I must be on the same planet as they are. It's sorta a one way door locked at both ends.

Sailor Mars:

Where exactly is this world.

Grandfather:

It is on the ship world Haliger. I will tell you all more when time is not our enemy. Now who will go with me.

(All are silent until Luna bites the ankle of Sailor Moon)

Sailor Moon:

Ahhhhhhhhh!!!! Hey what was that for.

Grandfather:

Ah wonderful a volunteer

Sailor Moon:

Huh... (Sailor Moon looks at Luna) You tricked me.

(Luna just grins as Moyria's Grandfather drags Sailor Moon out of the apartment and on down the road all of which has caught the eye of Darien. Who goes running after them. Meanwhile on Haliger. Where Moyria rest in her prison blood and dirt cover her face. Silently a door opens and wakes up Moyria from her rest.)

Moyria:

Who's there?

(a young girl appears before Moyria and begins to wipe her face clean.)

Moyria:

So you must be Jaspin.

(the girl continues to wipe Moyria's face.)

Moyria:

How.... how come your.....

Jaspin:

You want to know how come I do this. It's because I pity you.

Moyria:

Pity me but why.

Jaspin:

When Cosair was out I saw it. I saw it all. How you lost your mother how Golum took both of your sisters. How Raydon was destroyed. Death seems to be your shadow. Cosair has raised me and true times have been tough but he was always there to love me. You have lost that you have suffered like none I've ever seen.

Moyria:

Stupid girl has you ancestors truly forgotten the lesson that pity is merely a wish for death. You may have the same eyes as the original Jaspin but you are but an empty shell to the woman that she was. Why don't you save your pity for yourself.

(The girl tosses down the bowl of water and cloth. Raises her hand and slaps Moyria across the face before leaving the room. Moyria sits there looking into the puddle of water at her feet. She stares at the reflections of who she is.)

Moyria:

An empty shell all that remains is a scared little girl.

(A tear drops and hits the puddle as the scene changes to Sailor Moon and Moyria's Grandfather who are standing at the spot where she was teleported.)

Sailor Moon:

So why did we come here.

Grandfather:

We need Moyria's Physic residue in order to make the jump.

(The old man searches around while Darien finally catches up with the two)

Darien:

Serena

Sailor Moon:

Darien?

Darien:

I need to speak to you.

(Moyria's Grandfather jumps up for joy)

Grandfather:

I've found it. Hurry Sailor Moon. We only have a few minutes to find Moyria before Golum gets to her.

Sailor Moon:

See you Darien

Darien:

But Serena I have something to tell you.

Sailor Moon:

Umm well I sorta got to go save the world right now can it wait.

(Darien starts to laugh)

Sailor Moon:

What? What is it?

Darien:

You your so serious. years ago you would have thought twice before going into a battle.

Sailor Moon:

Now that you mention it I guess it is funny.

Grandfather:

Sailor Moon Hurry!

Sailor Moon:

Darien I hafta go.

Darien:

I will be waiting for your return.

Sailor Moon:

Thank you...

(Sailor Moon joins hands with Moyria's grandfathers as light starts to encase them Darien speaks out)

Darien:

Serena come back safely to me ok.

(As the two begin to vanish a smile lights up Serena's face as the scene changes. Moyria rests in her cell as the door opens yet again. But this time the figure is that of Cosair)

Moyria:

You've come back to torture me some more.

Cosair:

No

Moyria:

Then what?

Cosair:

I recently picked up the signal of a alien form on collision course with this planet.

Moyria:

Golum!

Cosair:

Apparently he is after one thing and one thing only. Your miserable hide.

Moyria:

Cosair, I'm sorry for the pain that your family suffers but I am not the one to destroy your ancestors. Golum is.

Cosair:

You are his miserable accomplice in all this it is your cursed blood that brought this demon to us and it is your blood that will be spilled to face the monster.

Moyria:

Golum has killed my family as well. Cosair, we are the same.

Cosair:

No I'm am and will be the hero of a humanity. I came here to prepare you for your doom.

(Cosair detached the seat Moyria was placed on and it begins to float he escorts it out toward the hallway where Jaspin is standing with Moyria's gauntlet and necklace in hand.)

Cosair:

Jaspin take those useless items and melt them in the furnace.

Jaspin:

But Cosair. Can we truly stop Golum by sacrificing her.

Cosair:

Our ancestors have always known there was a bond of blood between the demon and the warrior. For only the blood of her family can waken the demon from it's sleep.

Moyria:

So thats it. Cosair stop you don't need to force me.

Cosair:

What are you talking about.

Moyria:

I will face him myself.

Cosair:

Don't take me for a fool.

Moyria:

But ether I win or lose ether way you win. Ether I destroy Golum or I get destroyed by him.

Cosair:

If you betray me you will.

Moyria:

On my fathers blood if I betray you shoot me and don't hold back.

(Moyria hands Cosair her gun)

Cosair:

Very well. But without your weapon how will you fight.

(Moyria points at the gauntlet and necklace)

Moyria:

Those will be all the weapons I need.

(Moyria turns toward Jaspin)

Moyria:

Now is a time to prove me wrong Jaspin you must be brave and make sure your brother does what is right.

(Jaspin nods as Moyria grabs the two items and dashes on down the hall way. She makes a stop on the door out as the figures of Sailor Moon and her Grandfather stand in her way.)

Moyria:

Sailor Moon get out of her this isn't your battle

Grandfather:

Moyria you disgrace me. Here we can here to help you out and you simply get all stuck up about it.

Sailor Moon:

Well thats putting it dead on

Moyria:

Shutup Golum is mine he took Karna and Centurous and if I don't defeat him he will go on destroying people.

Grandfather:

Moyria, Moyria, Moyria. You anger clouds your judgment and make you sloppy. Anger is what Golum feeds on.

Moyria:

You said he feed on magic energy.

Grandfather:

Physically he does but when he fights he feeds off of your anger to make an opening for him to invoke his attack.

Now that I see you I can say you will surly perish. For only the heart of a child can defeat Golum.

Moyria:

I don't have time for your games old man.

(Moyria raises the gauntlet to the light of the star and in the reflection she transforms her old uniform rest under a short white cape and a head band with a round pearl rests on her head as she has returned to the form of the warrior she was so long ago. The warrior Andromita.)

Andromita:

Sailor Moon this is my fight stay out of it.

Sailor Moon:

You ungrateful snob I came here to help you out. Fine get yourself killed see if I care.

(Andromita dashes of leaving the two behind)

Grandfather:

Go after her.

Sailor Moon:

What?

Grandfather:

Golum is weak where a symbol of the past appears. If you strike him there he will be defeated.

Sailor Moon:

Why should I help her.

Grandfather:

Please I beg you. And besides without Moyria we can not return home.

Sailor Moon:

Okay okay you convinced me. I'll go. Will you be okay.

Grandfather:

I've been around along time I'm not about to bite the dust just yet.

(Sailor Moon dashes off after Andromita as a glowing star falls toward the planet. Moyria arrives on the crash site just as Golum raise from his landing)

Andromita:

Golum I am here face me.

Golum:

Ah the child comes from hiding and shows its thorns how quaint.

Andromita:

Shut up you monster you kill them.

Golum:

Them? Oh you must mean your pathetic excuse for sisters.

Andromita:

You took my family from me you destroyed all I had and for that I will destroy you.

(Sailor Moon Dashes toward the crash site and shouts at Andromita)

Sailor Moon:

Moyria stop it you can't beat him. If you will keep this up then you will die.

Andromita:

Exactly Sailor Moon.

Sailor Moon:

What? What are you saying.

Andromita:

Golum is dying. He needs my soul to allow him to live but if I die before he can kill me then he will fall.

Sailor Moon:

I won't let you do it I won't let you kill yourself.

Andromita:

Sailor Moon. Do something for me.

Sailor Moon:

What?

Andromita:

Take care of Darien.

Sailor Moon:

I will not let you destroy yourself Moyria. We will see this battle through the end.

Golum:

How touching but now you both are going to die

(Golum strikes at the ground near the two separating them both the smoke keeps Sailor Moon from seeing whats happening but the scream let out lets her know that Moyria was unable to escape the grasp of Golum. As the Smoke clears Andromita is squeezed in Golum's talons)

Golum:

Finally I will destroy the last of this cursed blood.

(Golum's words strike Moyria hard as the answer she has been searching for has just been handed to her. Plus another pair of words she had heard her grandfather tell her)

Grandfather's voice:

Only the heart of a child can stop Golum.

(Sailor Moon watches as light in circles Moyria as she begins to disappear in Golum's hand)

Sailor Moon:

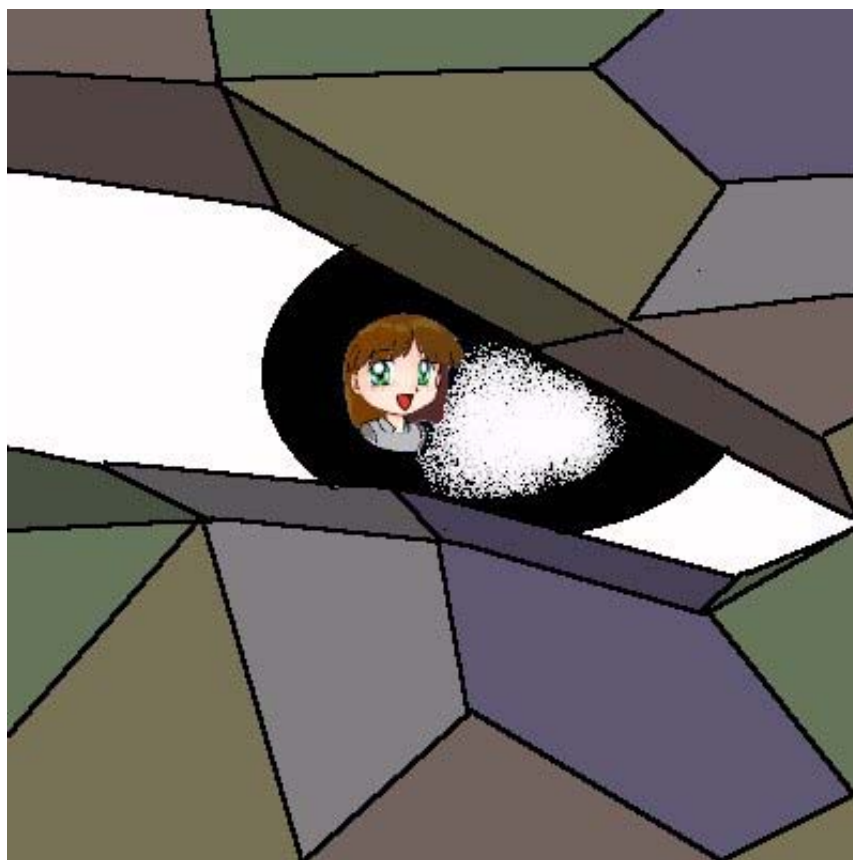

No she's gone. She's dead this can't be this can't be.

(The tears from Sailor Moon are quieted with the sound of a young child giggling)

Sailor Moon:

Huh what is that.

(Golum's fist opens to revile a young Moyria)

Young Moyria:

Papa

(The monster is silent as the young girl smiles at him)

Young Moyria:

Papa why did you take them away. Why did you take away Karna and Centurus.

Golum:

My little lotus flower. I am sorry I do have control over this form anymore.

Young Moyria:

Papa?

Golum:

Yes little one.

Young Moyria:

Why did you make mommy cry.

(The monster lays still and sets the child down on the ground)

Golum:

I am sorry little one I have made you all suffer.

Sailor Moon:

Um I don't mean to interrupt this warm moment but what is going on here?

Golum:

One thousand years ago I was the leader of the Moon kingdoms armies and husband to Minjuki I had two daughters with my love the first was Karna the second was young Moyria here. But one day I was called to fight a demon. I used the magic of a talisman my wife gave me to send myself and the Demon into the depths of space. The demon's body was destroyed instantly but its soul claimed my frozen body. Four years passed and I was freed by the touch of my young daughter here. But the demon's urges overwhelmed me and I searched to destroy those of the world I was born. But thanks to My eldest Daughter she stopped me and left me a weak spot. right here

(Golum wave his hand around the key that was once Karna's)

Golum:

It is here where I can be destroyed and the demon with me. Now I must ask you Sailor Moon. Princess. Please destroy me and guide Moyria so that she will not suffer the same fate as me.

Young Moyria:

Papa ?

Golum:

goodbye little one.

Sailor Moon:

Farewell brave warrior.

(Sailor Moon holds her staff up high and shouts out for a magical blast to hit the key dead on)

Sailor Moon:

Luna Staff Strike

(in a blast of white light the demon Golum crumbles toward the ground)

Young Moyria:

Bye bye Papa.

(Sailor Moon pick up the young girl and carries her on back to her grandfather as a tear runs down the face of the young Moyria the scene changes to the road where they left light now fills the street as the three warriors return home Darien is waiting on a piece of rubble staring at the night sky)

Darien:

Your back!!!

(The other scouts come out of the shadows to greet their companions)

Moyria:

Umm Serena. I have something to tell you. When we where on the comlink earlier. I did see something but I didn't want to upset you because I thought it would distract you from the fight ahead.

Serena:

What was it

(Just then Sammy come running down the road screaming for Serena)

Sammy:

Serena. Serena! Thank goodness mom and dad are worried that you where home when it was destroyed

Serena:

My house. Is gone.

(Moyria silently nods at her)

Serena:

Well I guess as long as no one is hurt I should be thankful. But why didn't you tell me.

Darien:

Um Serena...

Serena:

If it's about my house Darien I already know. Now why don't you go run off to your lover and have a good time laughing at clumsy old Serena.

Darien:

Serena listen

(Serena walks off with Sammy)

Darien:

Serena will you please listen for one minute.

(a very angry Serena turns around to face Darien)

Serena:

What is it?

Darien:

Over the past few years we've been through so much together it's all gotten so confusing and it wasn't till recently I learned where I truly stand in all this.

Serena:

And just where is that Darien.

Darien:

By your side if you'll let me.

Serena:

But you always will be as Tuxedo Mask

Darien:

No. Tuxedo Mask is no more. But the promise I've made. the promise a thousand years ago that I will always protect you still lives on.

Serena:

No more Tuxedo Mask? But then your not saying you want to just save me from monsters are you?

Darien:

No I'm asking you. Serena, Sailor Moon, princess, will you marry me.

(In Darien's hand rest a ring that looks like a golden rose in which it's blossom rest a diamond. Just the mere site of it causes Serena to gasp and shock on all scouts)

Serena:

I'll say yes on one condition. That the one I am marrying will always remain with me no matter what we face together.

Darien:

I promise you I will give you my heart, mind and soul and no one can take that from us.

Serena:

Then I guess it's a yes.

Mina:

Well it was bound to happen sooner or later.

Rie:

Yeah I guess so.

Serena:

Oh but what about a place for me to stay while my house is gone.

Sammy:

Well someone already took care of that for mom and dad. come on I'll take you to our new home.

Serena:

Okay then lets go.

(They all follow Sammy down the road. Until they reach a familiar building.)

Serena:

Um Sammy this is Darien's Apartment building.

Sammy:

Yeah apparently the tenants know dad and they already now you so they agreed to put us up till our house gets rebuilt.

Moyria:

You mean I hafta be woken to Serena's loud mouth each morning. Great why don't they have a jackhammer in my room go all night.

Serena:

Hey

Moyria:

Just kidding Serena.

(A moment later and a light comes on at the front light and Serena's parents come out and greet her as well as the rest of the tenants to greet Serena and even congratulate the two but to a few it comes as a shock.)

Serena's Dad:

Marriage !!!!

Serena's Mom:

Oh don't worry dear Darien's a nice boy.

Serena:

Hey Mom I just thought since Darien and I are now engaged and I'm already in the same building as him maybe I should move in with him.

(A sudden puzzled look hits Darien and he freezes in a perfect mirror of Serena's father. Things begin to quiet down as Serena is sitting out side fooling with her ring. A dressed up Moyria walks out of the apartment building and sits down next to her)

Moyria:

Its overwhelming isn't it all

Serena:

You know sometimes I think this is nothing more than a dream.

Moyria:

I know the feeling. hey Serena I haven't had the chance to thank you yet.

Serena:

Thank me you did all the work.

Moyria:

Yes but if you haven't given up on me I would have never been able to release Golum from his prison. You saved both my father and My mother's soul.

Serena:

Do you still love him.

Moyria:

My father of course.

Serena:

No not your father you idiot, Darien.

Moyria:

Well I guess so but I know it will never work out so I have to look for love elsewhere.

Serena:

Elsewhere?

(just then a motor bike pulls up to the front of the apartment)

Moyria:

See yah Serena.

Serena:

Hey you didn't answer my question.

Moyria:

Didn't I.

(The cyclist lifts his visor to revile Sukura)

Sukura:

Ready for that dinner I owe you Moyria.

Moyria:

All set Suke-chan.

(the two gun off into the night leaving Serena giggling. Later that night a creak on a board is hit in the hallway to Moyria's and Darien's apartments sending one of the sleepers inside quickly to the door. Serena pokes her head out and tiredly eyes Moyria who is just getting in)

Serena:

What is the big idea coming here in the middle of the night

Moyria:

I live here and since when did you become my mother.

Serena:

Listen here I still haven't forgotten of that kiss you know.

(Darien and Moyria's Grandfather step out into the hall Luna joins them)

Moyria:

Oh yeah if it weren't for me Golum would have destroyed you.

Serena:

If you weren't around he wouldn't have come here!

Moyria:

You want a fight you got it

Serena:

Your on.

(Moyria appears to be swinging on Serena's pig tails as Serena punches at Moyria's stomach)

Luna:

The more things change the more things stay the same. Sigh.

(the scene changes to the depths of space as a massive ship that looks something like a Roman temple floats in Space it is soon passed by the familiar image of the ship planet Haliger.)

(On the Haliger)

Cosair:

If you think I've give up on my revenge Andromita think again.

(On the Roman temple)

Alien Rep:

Sir We seem to have rendezvous with a planet thats also a space ship.

Alien:

Leave them be I can sense they a no threat to us. Keep our course strait towards the princess.
